

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and six, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parishes without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

NESTON - CUM - PARKGATE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary and Saint Helen, Neston, in the county of Chester; and in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

DINNINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Leonard, Dinnington, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, and in the churchyard.

BROMYARD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Peter's, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford; and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

BARFORD SAINT MARTIN.—Forthwith and entirely in the old Parish Churchyard in the parish of Barford Saint Martin, in the county of Wilts, provided that in the brick grave now existing in the said churchyard in which the remains of the late Reverend

J. Mitchell are interred, the burial of Mrs. Mitchell may be allowed subject to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1857, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as might have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council should be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons should do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof should be paid out of the poor rates of the parish. Provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary, Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, have made a representation, stating that they are of opinion that for the purpose of preventing the North Transept of the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Amersham, from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order in Council should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said churchwardens or such other person or persons as may have the care of the North Transept of the said church, shall do or cause to be done the following acts, that is to say :—

Subject to the authority and direction of the Consistory Court of Oxford under a faculty to be issued in that behalf:

1. All human remains in the catacombs in the North Transept shall be removed therefrom and forthwith reburied in some consecrated burial ground in which burials can legally be made.

2. Such remains shall be reburied in dry soil which has never previously been used for burials and at a depth of at least five feet below the surface of the ground.

3. Any earth, gravel, or other materials, around, above, or beneath the coffins containing such remains, which may be found to be
