At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-one of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "that when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within

"such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas by section twenty-three of the aforesaid Act it is further enacted "that whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act, whether the Order for disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to, or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to His Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, hath represented in a writing dated the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united rectory of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston, in the county of Norfolk and my diocese of Norwich, by the separation of the said rectory of Melton Constable from the said rectory of Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion."

And whereas on the sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, the said Archbishop inquired into the circumstances of the case.

And whereas on the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six, the said Archbishop certified to His Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the rectory of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Melton Constable from the rectory of Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might usefully be dissolved, and that the Right Honourable Albert Edward Delaval,

Lord Hastings, of Melton Constable aforesaid, being the patron or person entitled to present to the united benefice of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva and Briston, the same being now vacant, consents to the proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consents to Your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of each of the churches in the parishes of Melton Constable, Briston, and Burgh Parva with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they might within such six week show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent in writing of the said Lord Hastings, and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Melton Constable from the rectory of Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston, so as to constitute the rectory of Melton Constable a separate benefice and the rectory of Burgh Parva with the vicarage of Briston another separate benefice for cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and in accordance with the representation and consents above referred to we recommend that of the present endowments of the rectory of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva the scheduled sum of one hundred and thirty pounds apportioned tithe rent-charge shall be assigned and attached to the rectory of Burgh Parva with the vicarage of Briston, and that all other endowments of the rectory of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva shall be retained by and belong to the rectory of Melton Constable subject to their respective outgoings.

"Randall Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice, consisting of the rectory of Melton Constable with the rectory of Burgh Parva and the vicarage of Briston, situate in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Melton Constable from the said rectory of Burgh Parva and vicarage of Briston.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop with the consent of the patron of the said benefices, to assign and attach to the said rectory of Burgh Parva with the vicarage of Briston the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds apportioned tithe rent-charge set out in the schedule hereto, and to direct that all other endowments of the said rectory of Melton Constable with Burgh Parva shall be retained by, and belong to, the rectory of Melton Constable, subject to their respective outgoings.
