FRIDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1906.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day Sir Henry Burton Buckley Lord Justice of Appeal, Sir Arthur Kekewich, and Sir Claude Maxwell MacDonald, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., were, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, 21st December, 1906.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Oriol College, Oxford, on the eleventh day of October, one thousand nine hundred and six (and sealed on the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and six), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

A STATUTE to amend a Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48), and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in relation to Oriol College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at a General Meeting of the Provost and Fellows, specially summoned for this purpose, held on Thursday, the eleventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six, and passed at such Meeting by the votes of two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas by Statute VI, 5, of the Statutes made by the University of Oxford Commissioners, under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and approved by Her Majesty

Queen Victoria in Council, on the third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in relation to Oriol College, in the University of Oxford, it was enacted as follows:—

"5. Every Tutorial Fellow who shall marry before the expiration of seven years from the day of his first becoming a Tutor shall thereupon vacate his Tutorship. Every unmarried Tutorial Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the Provost and Fellows, at a stated General Meeting, shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least two unmarried Fellows, being Tutors or Lecturers of the College, resident in rooms within the College during the usual College Terms. So long as that number is complete, a Tutorial Fellow, vacating his Tutorship by marriage, may be reappointed thereto by the Provost and Fellows, if they shall desire to retain his services as a Tutor."

And whereas the Provost and Fellows are of opinion that it is desirable to amend the said Statute in manner hereinafter appearing, We, the said Provost and Fellows of the said College, do hereby, in exercise of the powers given to us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act, alter the fifth clause of Statute VI of the said Statutes by substituting for the words "at least two unmarried Fellows, being Tutors or Lecturers of the College," the words "at least two Tutors or Lecturers, being Fellows of the College."

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and six.

Privy Council Office, 21st December, 1906.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, on the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six (and sealed on the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend Statute III framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly enacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows, being the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, and holden on the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas Statute III, clause 11, of the Statutes of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, provides a means whereby the Master and Fellows may elect as Fellow any person eminently qualified for the office of Prælector or Tutor, whose services the College needs, and who is willing to serve the College in either capacity without examination, and without regard to divers restrictions enumerated in the first paragraph of the said clause.

And whereas the said clause provides that there shall not be in the said College at any one time more than five Fellows elected under the said clause, in respect of the office of Prælector, Tutor, or Bursar.

And whereas the office of Bursar is not an Educational office, and the number of four or of five Prælectors and Tutors is and has been found to be inadequate to the growing Educational needs of the College.

And whereas the only other means provided by the existing Statutes for obtaining the services of Fellows for the Educational needs of the College is by the exaction of such services for two years from Fellows to be elected after open competitive Examination (see Statute III, clause 4), and this method has been found inadequate and unsatisfactory, and is indeed open to obvious and grave objections.

Now, therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of the said College, desiring to enlarge the powers of the College so as to enable it to obtain, in sufficient number, the services of men eminently qualified for the office of Prælector or Tutor, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred on us by Section 54 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), and by Statute XI of the Statutes of the College, in relation to the alteration of Statutes, alter and amend Statute III, clause 11, of the said Statutes, by substituting for the word "five" in the last paragraph of the said clause (page 14, line 6, ed. 1902), the word "eight."

Given under the Common Seal of the Master and Fellows of the said College, this seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and six.

Reginald W. Macan, Master.

ORDER ON APPLICATION TO APPROVE COMPOSITION OR SCHEME.

Debtor's Name.	Address.	Description.	Court.	No. of Master.	Date of Order.	Nature of Scheme or Composition sanctioned or Order made.
Rawlinson, James ...	20, St. Domingo-grove, Everton, and 19, Oldhall-street, both in the city of Liverpool	Produce Broker, lately trading and carrying on business in copartnership with one Thomas William Sweetman, under the style of Rawlinson and Sweetman, at 19, Oldhall-street aforesaid, as Produce Brokers	Liverpool ...	71 of 1906	Dec. 7, 1906 ...	The Court being satisfied that the statutory majority of the joint creditors of James Rawlinson and Thomas William Sweetman, and the separate creditors of the said James Rawlinson have duly accepted a Composition in the following terms, namely:—1. That payment in priority to all other of the debts of the debtor, James Rawlinson, of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt, shall be provided for as follows:—By depositing a sufficient sum in cash with the Official Receiver forthwith after the creditors shall have passed a resolution accepting the Composition hereinafter mentioned. 2. That provision for payment of all the proper costs and charges and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, and all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade shall be made in the following manner:—By depositing a sufficient sum in the manner and at the time mentioned in paragraph 1 hereof. 3. To pay in full all the creditors of the Separate Estate of the said debtor, James Rawlinson, the amounts of their respective debts. 4. To pay immediately, on the approval of the Court thereto being obtained, a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound in respect of all provable debts of the firm of Rawlinson and Sweetman under the Receiving Order herein (without prejudice to the liability of Thomas William Sweetman, the copartner of the said debtor, James Rawlinson, in respect to such debts), and for that purpose to pay to the Official Receiver such a sum as shall, with the proceeds of the realization of the assets of the said firm, be sufficient to provide the amount of such Composition. 5. That the payment of the Composition be secured in the following manner:—By depositing with the Official Receiver forthwith, after the creditors shall have passed a resolution accepting the said proposal, a sum which, together with the proceeds of the realization of the assets of the said firm, shall be sufficient to cover such payment. 6. That upon the deposit of such last mentioned sum, and the approval of the Court of the said Composition, the Receiving Order herein be discharged so far only as the same affects the said James Rawlinson, and that the separate estate of the said debtor, James Rawlinson, after making such payments as aforesaid be transferred to and vested in him, and being satisfied that the said terms are reasonable and calculated to benefit the general body of the joint creditors of the said James Rawlinson and the said Thomas William Sweetman, and the separate creditors of the said James Rawlinson. And being satisfied that a fact has been proved which would justify the Court in refusing, qualifying, or suspending an Order of Discharge, but that having regard to the nature of such fact, and the Composition providing reasonable security for payment of not less than 7s. 6d. in the pound on all the unsecured debts provable against the joint estate of the said James Rawlinson and Thomas William Sweetman, the said Composition was thereby approved.
