

that all that part of the said parish of Saint Helen's, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Seaview as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Seaview.'

"And with the like consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Seaview as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Seaview, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Helen's, in the Isle of Wight and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded upon the east and upon the north-east by the sea, upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint John, Oakfield, upon part of the south by the parish of Brading, both in the said island and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the angle of the boundary which divides the said parish of Brading from the said parish of Saint Helen's near the middle of the southern fence of Longlands Copse, and extending thence eastward along the said fence for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of the bridle road running along the eastern side of Longlands Copse, and extending thence first eastward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the said bridle road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Saint Helen's to Nettleston, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of eighteen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Priory-lane, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of Priory-lane for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading past the houses known as the Chute and Rostrevor to the sea, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where such road joins the sea, and extending thence due east in a straight line to the low-water mark of ordinary tides."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Souls, Leicester, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Andrew, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Leicester, and of the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Leicester, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Souls, Leicester, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See as well of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Leicester, as of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester (in testimony
