And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Holy Trinity, Meldreth, in the county of Cambridge, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the civil parish of Meldreth, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the twenty-first day of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said civil parish of Meldreth, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

MELDRETH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of the Holy Trinity, Meldreth, in the county of Cambridge; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

In the vaults or walled graves now existing in the said churchyard and belonging or reputed to belong to Mr. John George Mortlock, Mrs. Cory, Mr. Hubert O. S. Ellis, and Mr. Harry Badcock burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vaults or graves be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Paul, Ramsbottom, in the county of Lancaster; and of the parish of the Holy Cross, Bury, in the county of Huntingdon, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the civil parishes of Ramsbottom and Bury without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

RAMSBOTTOM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Paul, Ramsbottom, in the county of Lancaster; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In the vault now existing in the said churchyard and belonging or reputed to belong to Henry Heys, burial may be allowed of the bodies of the said Henry Heys and his wife, Sophia Lord Heys, at their decease, subject to the condition that the coffin in each case be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b.) In any walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin
