Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called “the said benefice”) of Long Compton, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Long Compton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, commonly called The King's College of our Blessed Lady of Eton, nigh or by Windsor, in the said county of Bucks and the same College.

“And whereas the said Provost and College are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Long Compton, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Worcester.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, now Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, has executed this scheme as hereafter mentioned.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Long Compton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Long Compton.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said Provost and College of Eton (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme with their corporate or common seal) and with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Long Compton now vested in them, the said Provost and College of Eton as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them to the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint James, Milton, and of the new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, both in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order in Council of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of May in the same year, part of the parish of Portsea, in the said county of Southampton and in the said diocese of Winchester, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate in the said parish of Portsea, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Portsea.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of the same month, part of the said parish of Portsea was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Milton, in the said parish of Portsea, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Milton.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month, part of the said parish of Portsea was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at North End, in the said parish of Portsea, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint James, Milton, and the said district chapelry of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, and the said new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, and of the said new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, shall be altered so that (firstly) all those portions of the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, of the parish of Wymering and of the extra parochial place called Great Salterns, both in the said county and diocese, which are described in the first schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, and (secondly) all those portions of the said parish of Wymering and of the said extra parochial place called Great Salterns which are described in the second schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured green shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester, being:—

"I. All that portion of the district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the west, upon the north, and upon the east by the new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Stephen, Portsea, in the said county and diocese and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Stephen, Portsea, from the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, at the junction of Gamble-road with the road called Kingston-crescent, and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the middle of Kingston-crescent for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Twyford-avenue upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, from the said new parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea.

"II. And also all those contiguous portions of the parish of Wymering, of the new parish of Saint James, Milton, and of the extra parochial place called Great Salterns, all in the said county and diocese, which taken together lie to the east of an imaginary line drawn along the middle of Tipner Lake, to the south of a similar line drawn along the middle of Hilsea Creek otherwise known as Port Creek, and to the west of a similar line drawn along the middle of the London and South Western and London Brighton and South Coast Joint Railway.

"The SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the said parish of Wymering, of the said extra parochial place called Great Salterns which taken together lie to the west and south of an imaginary line drawn along the middle of Broom Channel and Hilsea Creek, otherwise known as Port Creek, and to the east of a similar line drawn along the middle of the said London and South Western and London Brighton and South Coast Joint Railway."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Kingsthorpe and partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Paul, Northampton, both in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Kingsthorpe and the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Kingsthorpe and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas the trustees of the will of the late John Beck Wickes, formerly of Boughton in the said county of Northampton, Clerk in Holy Orders, have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of four thousand three hundred pounds towards the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of the said new parish and towards the maintenance of the Minister or Incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year to such Minister or Incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly mentioned Act the sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of four thousand three hundred pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we should grant out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling in respect of which there shall be paid by us to the Minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as before mentioned a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said grant of seven hundred pounds sterling will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us the said Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the contributors of the said sum of four thousand three hundred pounds have nominated the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being as the person to whom they desire that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall be assigned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Kingsthorpe and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Holy Trinity, Northampton.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors, Bishops of Peterborough, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Holy Trinity, Northampton, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (some-time district) of Saint Paul, Northampton, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is bounded upon the north-east and upon the north-west by the parish of Kingsthorpe, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Kingsthorpe from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, crosses the middle of the road called Queen's Park Parade, and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of Queen's Park Parade for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such road is crossed by the Parliamentary boundary of the borough of Northampton, and extending thence first north-eastward, then north-westward, and then again north-eastward along the said Parliamentary borough boundary for a distance of thirty-seven chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the road called Kingsthorpe Grove where the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, the new parish of Saint Matthew, Northampton, in the said county and diocese, and the said parish of Kingsthorpe all meet.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Kingsthorpe which is bounded upon the north-east by the parish of Abington, in the said county and diocese, upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Northampton, upon the south by the above described portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Northampton, from the said parish of Kingsthorpe, crosses the middle of the said road called Queen's Park Parade, and extending thence northward along the middle of such road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Mill-lane, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line (thereby passing between the house called Kingsthorpe Lodge and the Kingsthorpe Farm-house) for a distance of one mile and seven chains or thereabouts to the western angle of that portion of the said parish of Abington which for civil purposes has been annexed to the civil parish of Weston Favell."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

Present,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Earl of Elgin.
Lord Sandhurst.
Mr. Secretary Gladstone.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one, it was provided that subject to the provisions of such Order the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, should apply as if the territories named in the First Schedule of such Order were a British possession and that Part 2 of the said Act should apply to the colonies, possessions, and territories mentioned in the First and Second Schedules of such Order;

And whereas His Majesty has by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, power and jurisdiction in and over the territory known as Swaziland;

And whereas by virtue of an Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and three (known as the Swaziland Order in Council, 1903), and of a further Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six (known as the Swaziland Order in Council, 1906), there has been conferred upon and committed by His Majesty to the High Commissioner for South Africa powers and authority in and over the territory of Swaziland;

And whereas by reasons of contiguity or frequent intercommunication with the colonies, possessions, and territories named in the First and Second Schedules of the Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one aforesaid, it is expedient and conducive to the better administration of justice that Part 2 of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, should apply to the territory of Swaziland as one of the group of colonies, possessions, and territories mentioned in the First and Second Schedules of the said Order, and that subject to the provisions of the said Order in Council of the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one, and this Order, the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, should apply as if such territory were a British possession.

Now therefore His Majesty by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one, is hereby amended by the insertion of Swaziland amongst the territories mentioned in Clause 2 (a) and Schedule 1 of the said Order, and the said Order shall henceforth be read and construed accordingly.

2. The Governor of each of the colonies, possessions, and territories named in the Schedules of the said Order as amended by this Order shall cause this Order to be proclaimed therein, and the same shall come into operation in each such colony, possession, or territory on a day to be fixed by such Proclamation.

3. This Order shall be read as one with the Order in Council, dated the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by the twentieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her late Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865, it is among other things enacted that the Admiralty may (subject to the approval of Your Majesty in Council), fix the salaries of officers appointed for the service of Greenwich Hospital.

"And whereas by the eighth section of an Act passed in the thirty-sixth year of Her late Majesty's reign, entitled the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1872, it is enacted that the provisions of the twentieth section of the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865, so far as the same relate to salaries, shall extend to pensions and pecuniary benefits of any kind.

"And whereas Mr. James Baker, one of the Masters at the Royal Hospital School, Greenwich, will retire from the service of Greenwich Hospital on the twenty-fifth May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, when he will attain sixty-five years of age.

"We beg leave to humbly recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize the grant to Mr. Baker of a pension at the rate of seventy-five pounds a year from the funds of Greenwich Hospital, to take effect from the date of retirement."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas a War Course College has been established at Portsmouth on the footing of a Naval Technical Training Establishment :

"And whereas we consider it desirable that the Officers selected on account of their expert knowledge for the Staff of this College shall receive such remuneration for their services as will provide that they be not prejudicially affected in respect of their emoluments by such appointment :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the following scale of special allowances, to take effect as from the tenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and six :—

	Each
	s.	d.
"To the Junior Captains Royal Navy on the Staff of the College .. .. .	6	0
"To the Commanders, Royal Navy .. .. .	5	0
"To the Lieutenants, Royal Navy .. .. .	4	0

"To the Engineer Officers and Royal Marine Officers, allowances on the same scale, according to their relative rank :

"The foregoing allowances to be in addition to Command Money allowed by the Regulations but to supersede any special allowances in the nature of pay to which the Officers might otherwise be entitled, and to be payable under the same general conditions as those allowances :

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have concurred in these allowances."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1857, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, by and with the advice of His Privy Council from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as might have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council should be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons should do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof should be paid out of the poor rates of the parish. Provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Margaret, Edgware, in the county of Middlesex, have made a representation, stating that they are of opinion that for the purpose of preventing the burial places beneath the parish church of Saint Margaret, Edgware, from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order in Council should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said churchwardens or such other person or persons as may have the care of the burial places beneath the said church, shall do or cause to be done the following acts, that is to say :—

Subject to the authority and direction of the Consistory Court of London under a faculty to be issued in that behalf :

1. All human remains beneath the floor of the said church shall be removed therefrom and forthwith buried in some consecrated burial ground in which burials can legally be made.

2. Any earth, gravel, or other material, around, above, or beneath the coffins containing such remains, which may be found to be impregnated with offensive matter, shall be removed and disposed of in such a manner as not to create nuisance or danger to health.

3. After the removal of the human remains and any earth, gravel or other material as aforesaid, the spaces left shall be filled in with hard core, the whole of the ground beneath the said church shall be properly drained by means of drains laid with open joints, and the surface of the ground beneath the said church shall be entirely covered with a layer of concrete not less than six inches thick.

4. The work of removing and burying the said remains, of removing and disposing of the earth, gravel, or other material aforesaid, and of filling in the spaces left and draining the ground beneath the church shall be carried out under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health for the rural district of Hendon.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Bartholomew, Holmer, in the county of Hereford, and of the parish of Saint Stephen, Woodville, in the county of Derby, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the civil parishes of Holmer and Shelwick, and Woodville, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

HOLMER.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Bartholomew, Holmer, in the county of Hereford; and in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave :

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

WOODVILLE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Stephen, Woodville, in the county of Derby; and, after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave :

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fifteenth day of July next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said fifteenth day of July.

THE MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of East Sussex.

WHEREAS the County Council of East Sussex have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a regulation under section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, and section 8 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, for restricting to five miles per hour the speed at which any motor car may be driven upon the part of a highway hereinafter described, namely:—

A portion of the highway leading from the Lewes to Eastbourne main road at Berwick, to Seaford, commencing at a point where the boundary of the parishes of Berwick and Alfriston crosses the road near Winton Farm, thence southwards through the High-street, Alfriston, past Frog Fille and Tile Barn, to a point 550 yards or thereabouts south of Tile Barn, a total length of 3,350 yards or thereabouts.

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 15th day of March, 1907, in the "Sussex Daily News" and the "East Sussex News" of the 15th day of March, 1907:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that F. J. Willis, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the County Hall, Lewes, on Saturday, the twenty-second day of June, at a quarter-past eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this fourth day of June, 1907, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

H. C. Monro, Assistant-Secretary.

THE MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of Essex.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the County Council of Essex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads and parts of roads within the urban district of Ilford, that is to say:—

Cranbrook-road, extending from its junction with High-street to its junction with Forest-road; so much of the Romford Main-road as is comprised within the urban district, including the parts of the road known as Ilford-hill and High-street respectively; so much of Green-lane as is comprised within the urban district; Barking-lane; so much of the road situate at the southern extremity of Bennett's Castle-lane as extends from its junction therewith in a westerly direction for a distance of  $5\frac{1}{4}$  furlongs or thereabouts:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 18th day of January, 1907, in the "Ilford Recorder" of the 25th day of January, 1907, and in the "Essex Times" of the 26th day of January, 1907:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that F. J. Willis, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Offices of the Urban District Council, Ilford, on Tuesday, the twenty-fifth day of June, 1907, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this fifth day of June, 1907, at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Eastern Archipelago, Nos. 942a and 941b; Lombok to Flores, No. 1696. Also, Eastern Archipelago, Part II, 1904, page 223.

No. 725.—ENGLAND, EAST COAST.

The Harwich Harbour Conservancy Board has given notice, dated 16th May, 1907, that from 21st May sweeping operations would be commenced in Harwich Harbour, to ascertain if any obstructions exist on the bottom, and that a barge displaying a red flag by day and exhibiting three white fixed vertical lights by night, and sounding a bell in thick or foggy weather, will be employed for this purpose. The area over which the barge is working will be marked by four buoys, which will be shifted as the work progresses.

Mariners are warned to reduce speed when approaching this area, and give it a berth of at least three quarters of a cable when passing the buoys or barge.

Approximate position, Harwich Church, lat.  $51^{\circ} 56\frac{3}{4}' N.$ , long.  $1^{\circ} 17\frac{1}{2}' E.$

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Harwich Harbour, No. 1491. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part III, 1905, page 296.

No. 727.—BALTIC—GERMANY.

Kiel Fiord Entrance—Regulations Respecting Torpedo Practice.

The German Government has given notice, dated 18th May, 1907, that torpedo practice will take place during certain specified periods over an area, as given below, in Strander Bucht on the western side of the entrance to Kiel Fiord, and that the following regulations must be observed by Mariners entering and leaving the fiord during those periods:—

1. Torpedo practice will take place in the entrance to Kiel Fiord annually on working days between the undermentioned times:—

From April to September from 6.30 A.M. to 6.30 P.M.

In March and October from 6.30 A.M. to 5.0 P.M.

In February and November from 7.0 A.M. to 4.30 P.M.

In January and December from 7.30 A.M. to 4.0 P.M.

2. THE LIMITS OF THE PRACTICE AREA ARE AS FOLLOWS:—On the southward by a line drawn from the Torpedo Station in Strander Bucht to Kiel Buoy No. 4, and to the northward and westward by the shore between the Torpedo Station and Bulk.

Approximate position, Bulk Lighthouse, lat.  $54^{\circ} 27\frac{1}{2}' N.$ , long.  $10^{\circ} 12' E.$

3. SIGNALS DENOTING THAT PRACTICE IS PROGRESSING.—When firing is in progress, a red ball will be hoisted at the tower of the Torpedo Station in Strander Bucht.

4. REGULATIONS.—When the above ball is displayed, vessels at anchor in the danger area must leave, and they are also prohibited from anchoring in the line of fire in the fairway at the entrance to the fiord.

Targets will be laid out during the day, but withdrawn at night, and during foggy weather. Should fog prevent their withdrawal a bell will be sounded from each target.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Eckernforder Bucht and Kiel Fiord, No. 33. Also, Baltic Pilot, Part I, 1904, pages 477, 478; and Supplement, 1907, page 29.

No. 728.—FRANCE, NORTH COAST—BAIE DE SEINE.

Havre Approach—Floating Surveying Beacons.

The French Government has given notice, dated 18th May, 1907, that during the summer a survey of the approach to Havre is to be made, and that from 1st June to 1st October six floating beacons 23 feet above the sea, painted black, with a black circular topmark surmounted by a white flag, will be moored in various positions according to the progress of the work within an area comprised between the shore, and the parallel of 49° 42' North latitude, and eastward of the meridian of 0° 40' West longitude.

Each beacon will be moored with four anchors, each anchor being marked by a watch buoy forming a rectangular area around the beacon.

Mariners are warned to keep clear of these buoys, and, in the event of their not being seen, to pass at a distance of at least one cable from the beacon. Fishing boats are prohibited from making fast to the buoys or beacons.

The surveying yacht Senta will frequently be at anchor in the above area, and will exhibit at night the lights carried by Telegraph ships, viz:—three lights in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than 6 feet apart, the highest and lowest being red, and the middle light white.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Cape Levi to Fécamp, No. 2613. Also, Channel Pilot, part II, 1906, page 423.

No. 729.—PERSIAN GULF.

Bahrein Harbour—Particulars of Shoal in Approach.

Information, dated 16th April, 1907, has been received from Captain A. W. Heneage, His Majesty's ship Hyacinth, that a sounding of 4½ fathoms was obtained in the approach to Bahrein Harbour, in approximately lat. 26° 35' N., long. 50° 53½' E.

Depths of 4½, 5½, and 6 fathoms were found at distances of 1½, 3, and 5 miles, respectively, S. 33° W. from this position, and 7 fathoms 3½ miles N. 33° E. from it.

It is considered, as a result of these soundings, that the shoal reported by the Commander of R.I.M.S. Lawrence is of greater extent than was at first supposed.

[Variation Nil in 1907.]
