WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called “the said benefice”) of Long Compton, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Long Compton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, commonly called The King's College of our Blessed Lady of Eton, nigh or by Windsor, in the said county of Bucks and the same College.

“And whereas the said Provost and College are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Long Compton, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Worcester.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, now Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, has executed this scheme as hereafter mentioned.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Long Compton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Long Compton.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said Provost and College of Eton (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme with their corporate or common seal) and with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme
