THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1882.

SCHEME determining the Boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Richmond in the county of Surrey.

WHEREAS by an Order of the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council dated the eleventh day of February one thousand nine hundred and seven His Majesty in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in Him by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and of every other power enabling Him in that behalf, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, fix the number of wards into which the said borough of Richmond should be thenceforth divided and did order and direct that the number of the said wards should be six:

And whereas the Right Honourable Herbert John Gladstone, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State did, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament by warrant given under his hand and seal at Whitehall on the twenty-fifth day of February one thousand nine hundred and seven duly appoint me Edward Thornton Hill Lawes, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of, and apportioning the Councilors among, the wards of the said borough of Richmond:

Now I the said Edward Thornton Hill Lawes in pursuance of the powers given to me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act do hereby determine as hereinafter mentioned the boundaries of the said six wards into which the said borough is divided, which wards are hereinafter named and numbered as follows, that is to say:—

- No. 1. North Ward.
- No. 2. West Ward.
- No. 3. East Ward.
- No. 4. South Ward.
- No. 5. North Sheen Ward.
- No. 6. Kew Ward.

No. 1.—North Ward.

I do hereby determine that North Ward shall comprise so much of the borough of Richmond as is contained within a line commencing at a point on the municipal borough boundary in the River Thames at the bridge where the London and South Western Railway (Windsor Line) crosses the said river and running thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of the said railway to a point opposite the corner of the Old Deer Park wall near Park-lane, thence to and along the said Deer Park wall as far as the private road leading to Kew Observatory, thence along the centre of such private road and Clarence-street in a south-easterly direction to the centre of Kew-road, thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of Kew-road to the junction of Lower Mortlake-road, continuing thence along the centre of Lower Mortlake-road to the point where the same passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington, thence along the centre of the said railway in a northerly direction past Kew Gardens Station to the point where the Kew parish boundary intersects the said railway, thence following the said Kew parish boundary in a south-westerly direction intersecting Mortlake-road to a point at the junction of Sandycombe-road, Station-road, Kew Gardens-road, and Broomfield-road, thence in a westerly direction along the centre of Broomfield-road to the centre of Kew-road, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Kew-road aforesaid to a point near Hatherley-road thence in a westerly direction across Kew Gardens still following the said Kew parish boundary across the lake to a point where the same meets the municipal borough boundary in the river, and thence in a south-westerly and southerly direction to the point of commencement aforesaid at the said railway bridge.

No. 2.—West Ward.

And I do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point on the municipal borough boundary at the said railway bridge over the River Thames, and running thence along part of the southern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described along the centre of the said railway, along the Old Deer Park wall and along the centre of the said private road and Clarence-street to the point in the centre of Kew-road aforesaid, thence intersecting Kew-road and running in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Church-road over the railway and continuing to a point where Church-road meets the Vineyard, thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the Vineyard to a point in Hill Rise opposite Compass-hill and along the centre of Compass-hill to Petersham-road, thence in a straight line across the Petersham-road to the municipal borough boundary in the River Thames, thence in a north-westerly direction following the said municipal borough boundary in the river past Richmond Bridge and Corporation Island to the point of commencement aforesaid at the said railway bridge.

No. 3.—East Ward.

And I do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point in Kew-road opposite Clarence-street thence following part of the southern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described along the centre of Kew-road and Lower Mortlake-road to the aforesaid point where the same passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Manor-road intersecting the London and South-Western Railway (Windsor Line) thence continuing along the centre of Manor-road in a southerly direction intersecting Sheen-road to a point on the south side of Sheen-road opposite the centre of Manor-road, thence in a south-westerly direction to the centre of Queen's-road near the Black Horse Inn, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Queen's-road to the point where an ancient boundary crosses the said road at the southern end of Pest House Common, thence along the said ancient boundary in a westerly direction intersecting Denbigh Gardens and along the southern wall of the garden of Holy Trinity Vicarage to a point in King's-road opposite Audley-road, thence along the centre of Audley-road and Albert-road, crossing Albany Passage still following the said ancient boundary along the centre of Preston Place to the centre of Church-road opposite the Vineyard, thence along the centre of Church-road in a north-westerly direction following the eastern boundary of West Ward as hereinbefore described to the point of commencement aforesaid in Kew-road.

No. 4.—South Ward.

And I do hereby determine that South Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point on the municipal borough boundary in the River Thames where the southern boundary of West Ward meets the same, thence following the said southern boundary of West Ward intersecting Hill Rise along the centre of the Vineyard and continuing along the ancient boundary forming the southern boundary of East Ward as hereinbefore described to the aforesaid point where the same crosses the centre of Queen's-road at the southern end of Pest House Common, thence along the centre of Queen's-road in a northerly direction following the eastern boundary of East Ward as hereinbefore described to the aforesaid point on the south side of Sheen-road opposite the centre of Manor-road, thence leaving the eastern boundary of East Ward and continuing along the south side of Sheen-road to the point where it meets the municipal borough boundary, thence following the said municipal borough boundary in a southerly and westerly direction to and through Richmond Park and Sudbrook Park, across Petersham-road and thence still following the municipal borough boundary to a point in the River Thames near Ham House, thence following the said municipal borough boundary in the River Thames to the point of commencement aforesaid.

No. 5.—North Sheen Ward.

And I do hereby determine that North Sheen Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point where the Lower Mortlake-road passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington, thence following the centre of that railway in a northerly direction along the eastern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described to the aforesaid point where the Kew parish boundary intersects the said railway, thence following the said Kew parish boundary in a south-easterly direction till the same meets the municipal borough boundary, thence following the said municipal borough boundary in a westerly and southerly direction past Gipsy Corner along the eastern side of Mortlake-road, to the Lower Richmond-road, thence along the northern side of Lower Richmond-road in a westerly direction till the said municipal borough boundary crosses the said road, thence following the said boundary in a southerly direction and intersecting the London and South Western Railway (Windsor Line) past King's Farm Lodge to the south side of Sheen-road, thence still following the said boundary in a south-westerly direction to the point where the same leaves the Sheen-road and turns to the south, thence continuing along the south side of Sheen-road to the aforesaid point in the same opposite the centre of Manor-road, thence along the centre of Manor-road in a northerly direction intersecting the London and South Western Railway (Windsor Line) and following the eastern boundary of East Ward to the point of commencement aforesaid, where the Lower Richmond-road passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington.

No. 6.—Kew Ward.

And I do hereby determine that Kew Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within the old parish boundaries of Kew, that is to say:—Within a line commencing at the aforesaid point in the River Thames where the northern boundary of North Ward meets the municipal borough boundary, thence following the said municipal and parish boundary in the River Thames in a north-easterly direction intersecting King Edward VIIth. Bridge, and in a south-easterly direction intersecting the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington aforesaid to a point in the said river opposite Gipsy Corner, thence to the point in the Kew Marshes where the Kew parish boundary leaves the municipal borough boundary, thence leaving the municipal borough boundary and following the Kew parish boundary in a north-westerly direction to the point hereinbefore described where the said Kew parish boundary intersects the said railway, thence in a south-westerly and westerly direction still following the Kew parish boundary and following the northern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described to and along Broomfield-road and Kew-road as far as Hatherley-road, and thence across the Kew Gardens as hereinbefore described to the point of commencement aforesaid in the River Thames.

And I do further declare that the wards hereinbefore determined and defined are shown upon the plan hereunto annexed and signed by me, and that the boundaries of the said wards are clearly set forth by red lines thereon.

And I do hereby assign and apportion six Councillors of the said borough to the North Ward, West Ward, East Ward and South Ward respectively, and three Councillors of the said borough to North Sheen Ward and Kew Ward respectively, as follows, that is to say:—

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 858 to 891 of the year 1907.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 858.—ENGLAND—WEST COAST.

Menai Strait, Northern Portion—Buoyage Altered.

The Town Clerk, Beaumaris, has given notice, dated 26th May, 1907, that the buoyage of the northern portion of the Menai Strait has been altered, and is now as follows:—

a. A red conical buoy marked B. No. 1 has been established on the north-western end of Dinmor Bank in a position situated at a distance of $6\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. 30° W. from Menai Light. The black buoy $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables to the south-eastward has been withdrawn.

b. A can buoy, painted in black and white horizontal bands, known as Causeway Buoy, has been established in a position situated at a distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ cables S. 24° E. from Menai Light. The former red and white buoy, and the green wreck buoy, situated about one cable to the north-eastward and northward, have been withdrawn, the wrecks having disappeared.

c. A red conical buoy No. 2 has been established in a position situated at a distance of $7\frac{1}{4}$ cables S. 19° W. from Menai Light.

In consequence of this, the red conical buoys have been renumbered thus:—the red conical buoy B. 2, off Penmon Bay, becomes No. 3, the red conical buoy B. 3 becomes B. 4, the red conical buoy situated $1\frac{3}{4}$ cables south-eastward from Mount Field Light has been marked B. 5. The red conical buoy situated $2\frac{3}{4}$ cables eastward from Beaumaris Pier Light has been marked B. 6. The red conical buoy M I, 2 cables to the southward of Gallows Point, has been marked B. 7.

d. The black can buoy B 2 is now situated at a distance of $8\frac{3}{4}$ cables S. 11° W. from Menai Light.

e. A black can buoy marked B. 3 has been established in a position situated at a distance of 14 cables S. 30° W. from Menai Light.

In consequence of this the black can buoys have been renumbered thus:—Buoy B. No. 3 becomes B. No. 4; B. No. 4, B. No. 5; B. No. 5, B. No. 6 B.; No. 6, B. No. 7 B.; the black can buoy $2\frac{1}{4}$ cables south-westward from Beaumaris Pier Light has been marked B. No. 8. The black can buoy situated 7 cables south-westward from Beaumaris Light has been marked B. No. 9.

f. A black can buoy marked B. No. 10 has been moored in a position situated at a distance of $11\frac{1}{2}$ cables S. 64° W. from Beaumaris Pier Light. The black can buoy marked M I, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables to the eastward of Garth Pier Head, has been marked B. 11.

Approximate position, Menai Light, lat. $53^{\circ} 19' N.$, long. $4^{\circ} 2' W.$

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
27th to 29th June, 1907.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Bradley, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said rectory of Bradley to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint John, Ealing Dean, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John, Ealing Dean, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, that three Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by such Bishop, have been employed within the parish of Saint John, Ealing Dean aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parish of Saint John, Ealing Dean.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Long Compton, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage; and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Long Compton, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Snitterfield, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Snitterfield, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the benefice of Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Southwark, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the said benefice shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Southwark, that three Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by such Bishop, have been employed within the parish of Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said benefice and parish of Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of five hundred pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Stand Lane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Stand Lane, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of five hundred pounds, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Stand Lane.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Ufton, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said rectory of Ufton, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory, one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In the Matter of the BESTWOOD COAL AND IRON CO. Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 26th day of June, 1907, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm a Special Resolution of the said Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 21st day of April, 1907, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 15th day of May, 1907, and which resolution is as follows:—"That the provisions of clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with respect to the Company's objects be altered by inserting immediately after paragraph (6) the following new paragraphs, namely:—(7) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licenses, concessions and the like conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licenses in respect thereof, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, and information so acquired. (8) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares, stock, or securities. (9) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licenses, patents, machinery, ships, barges, rolling stock, plant, and stock-in-trade. (10) To sell any part or section of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares or debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company. (11) To promote any companies for acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company. (12) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to give any guarantee or indemnity as may seem expedient. (13) To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company. (14) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem, purchase, and pay off any such securities. (15) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, enfranchise, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company, and by altering the numbering of the paragraph now numbered (7) into (16). And notice is hereby further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Warrington, on Tuesday, the 16th day of July, 1907, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the proposed alteration of the Company's objects under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for the purpose, and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the
