TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1907.

Whitehall, August 2, 1907.

The following Address was presented to Their Majesties The King and Queen on Their arrival at Chippenham, on the 20th July, on Their way to Bowood Park.

To Their Most Gracious Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, respectfully desire to offer to Your Majesties our glad and hearty welcome upon the occasion of this Your first visit to the old Saxon Royal Town of Chippenham on Your way to stay with our distinguished neighbour The Marquis of Lansdowne, K.G., the Lord Lieutenant of the County, and the Marchioness, at Bowood.

We greatly rejoice at the opportunity thus afforded us of being permitted to approach Your Majesties, and on behalf of the Inhabitants of the Borough to express to You their loyalty and devotion, which we are sure You will find emphasised on all sides by the throng of Wiltshiremen who will greet Your Majesties' progress through our streets, with the sincerest and warmest manifestations of loyalty, affection, and regard.

We deeply appreciate the constant and untiring efforts of Your Majesties for the welfare of Your great Empire, and we humbly trust that Your Majesties may long be spared in health and happiness to rule over a contented, prosperous, and united people.

Given under our Common Seal at the Borough of Chippenham this 20th day of July, 1907.

Daniel Collen, Mayor.

Francis H. Phillips, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

On behalf of the Queen and Myself I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address of welcome. It has given Me great pleasure to traverse the beautiful county of Wilts and to note around Me many hopeful signs of harvest. As you are aware, I take the greatest interest in agriculture, and have always recognized that in some branches of that industry Wiltshire holds a very high place.

You may be assured of My hearty good wishes for the prosperity of your ancient borough.

On Their Majesties' return by way of Calne the following Address was presented:—

To His Most Excellent Majesty King Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts, have heard with unfeigned pleasure of the intention of Your Majesty, with our beloved Sovereign Lady, Queen Alexandra, to visit our esteemed and distinguished neighbours, the Most Noble the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G., and the Marchioness of Lansdowne, at their seat at Bowood, on the confines of this town, with which their family has been so long and closely connected.

It was with still greater pleasure that we became aware that Your Majesty would, in the course of Your return journey, pass through our ancient borough, and be willing to accept at our hands an address of welcome, thus making this noteworthy occasion for ever memorable to us and our successors.

We desire to extend, both to Your Majesty and to Your Royal Consort, a loyal and hearty welcome. We rejoice in our British heritage. We count it an inestimable privilege to be members of so great a nation, and we are deeply thankful for the consciousness we have that our devotion to Your Royal Person finds a parallel in the kindly interest and affectionate regard which Your Majesty ever bears to the humblest of Your subjects.

We devoutly trust and pray that Your Majesty may, by the grace of God, long be spared in health and strength to reign over a happy and contented people; that Your Throne may ever be maintained by their love, and Your life made happy by their unceasing fidelity.

Given under our Corporate Seal this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seven.

John E. Wood, Mayor.

Geo. I. Gough, Town Clerk.

L. S.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you most heartily for your loyal Address of welcome, and are touched by the expressions of esteem for Our Persons which are contained in it.

We have enjoyed Our visit to your charming neighbourhood, with its diversified and truly English scenery, and regret that the time at Our disposal has not enabled Us to prolong Our visit.

The interests of agriculture, with which the well-being of your town is so largely bound up, have always occupied a considerable portion of My thoughts and interests, and you may be certain that I shall continue to feel the warmest solicitude for the prosperity of this most important industry.

Whitehall, August 2, 1907.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties The King and Queen on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit, on the 24th July, to the Royal Victoria Patriotic Asylum, Wandsworth Common, in commemoration of the Jubilee of its Foundation and Endowment as a National Memorial for the benefit of Orphan Daughters of the Nation's Sailors, Soldiers, and Marines:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Borough of Wandsworth, under their Common Seal.

We, Your Majesties' most loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly approach Your Majesties, and desire to express our deep gratification at Your visit to this borough in commemoration of the Jubilee of the foundation in the year 1857 of the Royal Victoria Patriotic Asylum for Orphan Children of Soldiers, Sailors and Marines.

We rejoice that Your Majesties have shown in the welfare of this Institution the same warm interest with which it has been honoured by Her late beloved Majesty Queen Victoria and by many other Members of the Royal Family, to whose sympathy and support it is deeply indebted. The site of the Institution comprises forty acres, formerly part of the common by which it is surrounded, and as an open space is of great value to the large population of the two adjoining Boroughs of Battersea and Wandsworth. During the fifty years which have elapsed since the Institution was established this population has increased from about 60,000 to over 500,000, and is still rapidly increasing.

It is less than a month since Your Majesties graciously opened in an adjacent borough the Union Jack Club, also for the benefit of men serving in the Army and Navy, and Your presence on this interesting occasion is another instance of the readiness of Your Majesties to promote the success of institutions established for the advancement of the best interests of the Services of the Crown.

It is our earnest hope that Your Majesties may long live to reign over a loyal and prosperous people.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

In behalf of the Queen and Myself, I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address. I am glad to take this opportunity of meeting the representatives who have been chosen by My people to regulate the affairs of this important Borough.

The object of My visit, to which you allude with so much sympathy, is one which must appeal to all those who have the welfare of their country at heart.

The men of My Navy and Army have ever been distinguished for bravery and devotion, and no public effort is more worthy of support than the endeavour to provide for the orphan girls of those who have died in the service of their Country.

I rejoice in the success of an institution which bears the name of Queen Victoria, My dear and ever to be lamented Mother. I wish it every success in the future, and I share with you the gratification which we must all feel in the promotion of this worthy and patriotic object.

May it please Your Majesty,

I have, on my own behalf as President and on behalf of the Royal Patriotic Fund Corporation, to thank Your Majesty for graciously visiting the Royal Victoria Patriotic Asylum in commemoration of the Jubilee of its erection and endowment in 1857 by command of Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

Upon a mural tablet at the entrance of this building there is the following inscription:

"This Asylum for the Orphan Daughters of the Soldiers, Seamen and Marines of the Realm

"is erected and endowed by command of

"Queen Victoria,

"from part of the Patriotic Fund formed

"in 1854-55 by the Donations of the People

"of Great Britain and Ireland, the British

"Colonies and India, aided by many contri"butions from other parts of the world."

During the fifty years which have elapsed since 1857, 2,413 girls have been admitted into the Institution, receiving a sound elementary education and a practical training, fitting them to earn their own living in domestic employment.

The most gratifying reports have been received from employers of those who have passed out, testifying to the good service rendered by the girls.

Since the Patriotic Fund was raised other funds have passed under its administrators, and now the Royal Patriotic Fund Corporation, of which I have the honour to be President, administers 21 funds for the benefit of widows, children, and other dependents of officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Army.

During the fifty years which have elapsed since the foundation of the original Patriotic Fund, 12,164 widows, 15,784 children, and 2,216 other relatives of officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Army have benefited to the extent of £3,296,927. At the beginning of this year there remained on the books of the funds 4,102 widows, 4,522 children, and 221 other dependents, and I desire to assure Your Majesty and Your Majesty's subjects throughout the Realm that the Royal Patriotic Fund Corporation is imbued with a deep sense of its duty to do all that lies in its power to succour and relieve, as far as the funds at disposal will permit, the necessitous widows, orphans, and other dependents of Your Majesty's Navy and Army.

George P.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for your loyal Address of welcome.

No nobler use could have been made of the Royal Patriotic Fund than by the establishment of the splendid work of beneficence known as the Royal Victoria Patriotic Asylum.

It is impossible to over-estimate the good which has been done by your efforts to afford careful instruction to so many young girls between the ages of seven and sixteen. When they leave you they are qualified to take positions in the world which enable them to earn their own living; and they are not likely to forget the careful training which they have received at your hands.

I am confident that you fully realise the grave responsibility which attaches to your undertaking, and that by thorough investigation you are careful to acquire intimate knowledge of the circumstances of each case submitted to your care.

I am familiar with the good work performed by your Corporation apart from this Orphanage, and with the constant endeavours to assist those whose husbands or fathers have met their death while in My service.

I pray that by God's blessing the success of your efforts may long be continued.

Whitehall, August 2, 1907.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties The King and Queen on the occasion of Their visit to Frognaal, Hampstead, on July 26th, when His Majesty opened the new Buildings of University College School. The first Address was presented on Their Majesties' arrival at Swiss Cottage, the second Address on Their arrival at the School:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward The Seventh and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Metropolitan Borough of Hampstead, have heard with great satisfaction of Your Majesties' gracious intention to pay a first official visit to this ancient and historic Borough for the purpose of opening the New University College School at Frognaal.

We desire, on behalf of the Inhabitants of the Borough, to express the very great pleasure with which we welcome Your Majesties, and to tender our hearty thanks for the honour which You have graciously been pleased to afford us of thus personally greeting You on the occasion of Your visit.

We trust that, under the Providence of Almighty God, Your Majesties may long be spared to continue the deep interest which You take in all educational and other projects which tend to the enlightenment and advancement of Your Majesties' loyal subjects.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you in behalf of the Queen and Myself for the Address of Welcome from the Borough of Hampstead and for your good wishes.

Your ancient borough abounds in literary associations, and now, as well as in the past, it includes among its inhabitants many who are well known in the world of art and letters. It is, therefore, very fitting that the new University College School should be in Hampstead, where keen interest is taken in the advancement of education and the progress of My people, which I have so much at heart. I heartily trust that your borough may enjoy long and continued prosperity.

May it please Your Majesties,

On behalf of the School, of its Governing Body, and of its many distinguished alumni, some of whom are present here to-day, it is my privilege to tender the assurance of our loyalty and attachment to Your Majesties' Persons, and to express the thanks of this assembly for Your gracious condescension in coming here to-day to declare open the new buildings of University College School.

For more than three-quarters of a century the School has been the nursing mother of men who have played no obscure or unimportant parts in moulding the destinies of Your Majesties' Empire in these Islands and beyond the seas. In the tolerance and sympathy which the School has always shown to the youth of all nationalities, irrespective of race or of creed, in its early recognition of the vital importance of the study of science and of modern languages, the School has done much to diffuse knowledge and to dispel prejudice.

In particular, we would refer with pride to the fact that in this School have been educated, wholly or in part, some of the most distinguished statesmen of Your Majesties' ally, the Emperor of Japan.

Your Majesties have, personally, done so much for the advancement of learning, for the promotion of the comity of nations, and for the maintenance of the peace of the world, that Your presence here to-day sets the seal of approval on the past work of the School, and affords the highest and happiest auguries for its future.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful address of welcome, and for your expressions of attachment to Our Persons.

Amongst the many institutions of an educational character which it has been My pleasure to inaugurate, there are few in which I have felt so great an interest as I do in University College School.

In the great work of education, which, as you all know, is so much in My thoughts, the managers of this school have since its first establishment in 1830 borne a leading part. The names associated with its inception, Brougham, Henry Hallam, James Mill, Thomas Campbell, were in themselves sufficient to ensure success, and to stamp any enterprise which they favoured with the hall-mark of broad-minded efficiency.

I am convinced that the youth of our nation is full of promise. It needs, in My view, only wise culture and patient industry to inculcate those habits of logical thought and methods of solid study which will fit them to carry on the work of learning and discovery, and to render our sons worthy successors of those ancestors whose genius has shed such a lustre on our national history.

It is very gratifying to Me to believe that our great Colonies recognise the excellence of our schools and are anxious, when possible, to send their children home to be educated. I am convinced that the reliance they place on the Mother Country will not be in vain, either in this or in any other particular.

The beautiful buildings of your new school seem admirably fitted for the purpose for which they are designed, and reflect great credit on the ingenuity and skill of the architect, and I am sure that the council and the staff of the school will continue to carry on the admirable work which has earned for you so high a reputation.

One of the finest features of English life has always seemed to Me the love borne to their old school by pupils who have long since left its shelter and have fought the battle of life either in their own country or in far distant lands. They always refer to their school with affection. All their life they will feel the influence of the teachings which they received in early days. A grave responsibility rests, therefore, with those to whom the care and education of youth has been entrusted, and nobly has this responsibility been fulfilled.

I feel sure that while giving full attention to the development of the intellect of your pupils you will not neglect the teaching of sound morality, and the encouragement of those high ideals which are of such enormous influence in the promotion of character. It is the character of the people of this country which has made them respected in all parts of the world, in circumstances of danger and difficulty, and I am confident that the traditions which it is our privilege to inherit will not suffer in your hands. I pray that the blessing of God may attend your labours, and that your work may continue to be crowned with success.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 2ND AUGUST 1907.)

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1903, or of any Order by which such provisions are applied to any scheduled area, swine may be moved to the exhibition mentioned in the Schedule hereto, and from such exhibition to any place of destination in Great Britain situate in any scheduled area, if accompanied by a Licence authorising such movement.

2. In the case of movement to the said exhibition the Licence shall be one granted by some person authorised in that behalf by the Carmarthenshire County Council, and in the case of movement from the said exhibition the Licence shall be one granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate.

3. The swine shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay to the exhibition or place of destination specified in the Licence and not elsewhere, and while being so moved shall not be subject to Regulations made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board relating to Swine-Fever.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this second day of August, nineteen hundred and seven.

A. W. Anstruther,
Assistant Secretary.

SCHEDULE.

Exhibition to be held by the Carmarthenshire Agricultural Society at Llanelly, in the administrative county of Carmarthen, on the 13th day of August, 1907.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF WEST HAM. TRAMWAYS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of West Ham, acting by the Council of the said borough, under the powers conferred by the Tramways Act, 1870, at a meeting held on the 9th day of July, 1907, made a series of Bye-laws for regulating the use of their tramways within the county borough, and that they have forwarded the said Bye-laws to the Board of Trade in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.

A copy of the Bye-laws is set out in the schedule hereto.

By Order of the Council,
FRED: E. HILLEARY, Town Clerk.
Town Hall, West Ham, E.,
2nd August, 1907.

SCHEDULE.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF WEST HAM. Tramways Act, 1870.

BYE-LAWS made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of West Ham, being the Promoters of the tramways in the County Borough of West Ham, with respect to such tramways, pursuant to the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870.

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the word "Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of West Ham, and shall include any lessees or persons for the time being working the tramway system herein-after referred to or any portion thereof; the word "Tramways" means the tramway system worked by the Corporation either within its own boundaries or within any other area over which the Corporation has running powers; the word "Car" means any carriage or car run by the Corporation upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers; the word "Conductor" means any officer or servant of the Corporation having charge of or helping in the charge of a car; and the word "Driver" means any officer or servant of the Corporation driving or assisting to drive a car.

Penalty.

2. Any person infringing any of the following Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding (40s.) forty shillings, and in case of a continuing offence to a penalty of not exceeding ten shillings, in addition to the first-mentioned penalty, for every day during which such offence continues.

Offensive Language or Conduct.

3. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language or conduct himself offensively whilst in or upon any car, or spit, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any car or tramway station, or premises used in connection with the tramway system, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger. No person shall sing, or play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements, pamphlets, notices, handbills, or tracts of any kind, or beg or collect money, alms or subscriptions, or sell or attempt to sell any article, or play any game, or gamble, or paste notices or handbills, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car.

Objectionable Persons.

4. Any person who is in a state of intoxication, or who from that or any other cause is, in the opinion of the conductor, unfit to be a passenger on a car, shall not be allowed to board or enter upon any car, and if any such person be found in or upon any car, he shall be requested by the conductor to leave the car, failing which, it shall be lawful for the conductor or any other officer or servant of the Corporation to remove such person from the car. Any person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor, soil or injure the linings or cushions of a car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in a car.

Provided that, on cars run specially for artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers, no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in a car under the provisions of this Bye-law on the ground of the condition of his dress or clothing, if such condition is solely due to the nature of his employment.

Dogs, &c.

5. No person shall take a dog or other animal into or upon any car except by the permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or any annoyance to passengers. Any dog or other animal taken into or found in or upon any car shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the car immediately upon request by the conductor.

Damaging Cars.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, for the amount of any damage so done.

Smoking.

7. No person shall smoke or carry a lighted pipe, cigar, or cigarette in or upon any car, except on such seats outside the car as may be specially set apart for persons smoking or desirous of so doing.

Payment of Fares.

8. Each passenger shall, before leaving the car, or immediately upon demand by the conductor, if such demand shall be first made, pay to the conductor the fare legally payable for his journey and obtain a ticket therefor. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

No child under five years of age who is sitting on the lap of a passenger shall be liable to pay a fare.

Tickets.

9. Each passenger shall, immediately upon demand produce and hand his ticket to any duly authorized officer or servant of the Corporation, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Tickets shall not be transferable, and shall be available only by the car on which they are issued.

Interference with or Obstruction to Conductor, Driver, or other Servant.

10. No person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car or its equipment, or any switch or point connected with the tramway track, or any frog-rope or other appliance or attachment to the equipment of the tramways, or signal a car to start.

No passenger or other person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in any car or tramway of the Corporation.

Luggage.

11. No luggage which, in the opinion of the conductor, from its size or otherwise, is unsuitable for conveyance in or upon a car shall be taken in or upon such car. Any personal luggage carried by passengers or the tools of artisans, mechanics and daily labourers shall be placed on the front or driver's platform unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, and if placed on a platform of the car shall be carried at the owner's risk. No package or luggage of any description, unaccompanied by a passenger, shall be conveyed upon any car, except under any regulations or restrictions which the Corporation may adopt.

Entering Full Cars.

12. When any car, or the inside or outside of a car, or any compartment of a car contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to carry, no additional person shall enter, board or remain in or upon any such car or portion of such car. The conductor shall not permit any person beyond the licensed number of passengers to enter, board or remain in or upon any part of a car. All such persons shall leave the car immediately upon the request of the conductor.

Disabled Cars.

13. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and, if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

14. No passenger or other person, not being an officer or servant of the Corporation, shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any car or stand either on the roof or, except in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation exhibited upon such car, in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any car, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or board a car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of a car.

Firearms, &c.

15. No person shall travel in or on any car with loaded firearms, or dangerous or offensive articles, instruments, tools, or implements.

Entering and Leaving Cars.

16. Every person shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor.

All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person boards the car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to board the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

Entering a Car When in Motion.

17. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave any car whilst in motion.

Persons Suffering from Disease Not to Travel on Cars.

18. No person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any car, or attempt so to do. And no driver or conductor shall suffer or permit any such person so to do.

Power to Remove Passengers Committing Offence.

19. Any person who shall commit, whilst on any car, any legal offence, or any breach of these Bye-laws, shall, in addition to being liable to a penalty, be liable to be immediately removed from the car, and, if such person shall have paid his fare, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

20. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position in each car in use on the tramways a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

21. From and after the date of the confirmation of these Bye-laws, the Bye-laws under the Tramways Act, which were confirmed on the eighth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, by the Board of Trade, shall be repealed.

BOROUGH OF ABERAVON.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Aberavon, in the county of Glamorgan, acting by the Council as the Urban Authority for the said Borough, hereby give notice, that we have with the approval of the Board of Trade, made certain bye-laws with respect to Seamen's Lodging Houses, and that a copy of such bye-laws is deposited at my office at Talbot-square, Aberavon, and will be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of ratepayers of the Borough, without fee or reward for the space of one calendar month from and after the 3rd day of August, 1907.

Dated this 27th day of July, 1907.
