This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents or Consuls-General of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by a copy of the judgment passed on the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

Si la persona reclamada por el Gobierno de Su Majestad Británica ó por el Gobierno de Panamá estuviera sometida á juicio, ó cumpliendo su sentencia por otro crimen, en el territorio de la Gran Bretaña ó en la República de Panamá, se aplazará la entrega hasta que sea puesta en libertad ya por haber sido absuelta, ya por haber cumplido su sentencia, ó por cualquier otra causa.

No se tendrá como convicto al reo contra quien se haya proferido sentencia en rebeldía, pero la persona así sentenciada se considerará como acusada.

ARTICLE X.

A criminal fugitive may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings, as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the said authority exercises jurisdiction; provided, however, that in the United Kingdom the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a competent Magistrate.

He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in the Republic of Panamá as in the United Kingdom, if within the term of sixty days a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent or Consul-General of his country in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty. The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed in the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall take place only if the evidence be found sufficient according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the same State, or if extradition is claimed in respect of an offence of which the fugitive has been already convicted, to prove that the prisoner is the person convicted, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition of fugitives under the provisions of this Treaty shall be carried out in His Britannic Majesty's Dominions and in the Republic of Panamá, respectively, in conformity with the laws regulating extradition for the time being in force in the surrendering State.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the Authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State.

2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified, under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.

ARTICULO X.

Un criminal fugitivo podrá aprehenderse mediante orden de arresto expedida, por cualquier autoridad competente de uno de los dos países, en virtud de demandas, quejas ó pruebas ó después de procedimientos que, á juicio de la autoridad que expida la orden, justificarian el arresto si el crimen hubiese sido cometido, ó la persona hubiese sido convicta en aquella parte de los dominios de las dos Partes Contratantes en que dicha autoridad ejerce jurisdicción; siempre que, en el Reino Unido, tan pronto como el acusado sea aprehendido, se le ponga á disposición de un Magistrado competente.

El preso, de acuerdo con este Artículo, será puesto en libertad, tanto en la República de Panamá como en el Reino Unido, si la demanda de extradición no es formalizada por el Agente Diplomático ó Cónsul General de su país, dentro del plazo de sesenta días, de acuerdo con las estipulaciones de este Tratado. Esta misma regla regirá en casos de personas acusadas ó convictas de cualquiera de los crímenes ó delitos mencionados en este Tratado, cometidos en alta mar, á bordo de cualquier barco, perteneciente á una de las Partes que llegue á un puerto de la otra.

ARTICULO XI.

Se concederá la extradición siempre que el Estado á quien se hace la solicitud considere, de acuerdo con sus leyes, que las pruebas aducidas son suficientes tanto para justificar que el prisionero sea sometido á juicio, caso de que el crimen haya sido perpetrado en el territorio del mismo Estado, como para probar, cuando la demanda de Extradición sea motivada por un delito de que el fugitivo ha sido ya convicto, que él es la misma persona convicta y que el crimen de que ha sido convicto es uno por el cual el Estado á quien se hace la solicitud hubiera concedido la extradición en la época de la condena.

ARTICULO XII.

La extradición de fugitivos, según las estipulaciones de este Tratado, se formalizará, tanto en los dominios de Su Majestad Británica, como en la República de Panamá de acuerdo con las leyes sobre extradición que al tiempo de la entrega rijan en el Estado que la verifica.

ARTICULO XIII.

Al procederse al exámen que debe tener lugar de conformidad con las estipulaciones que preceden, las autoridades del Estado á quien se hace la solicitud aceptarán como pruebas válidas las declaraciones juradas ó afirmaciones de testigos tomadas en el otro Estado, ó copias de las mismas, así como las órdenes de arresto y sentencias consiguientes, y los certificados ó documentos judiciales que comprueben el delito, siempre que sean autenticados como sigue:—

1. La orden de prisión deberá ser firmada por un Juez, Magistrado, ó funcionario del otro Estado.

2. Las declaraciones ó afirmaciones, ó copias de las mismas, deberán ser certificadas con la firma de un Juez, Magistrado ó funcionario del otro Estado, acreditando que son declaraciones ó afirmaciones originales, ó que son copias fieles de las mismas, según lo requiere el caso.

3. El certificado ó documento judicial que compruebe un delito, deberá ser autenticado por certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State.

4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law of the country where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE XIV.

If the individual claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to the State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE XV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within ninety days from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XVI.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery of such articles, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XVII.

All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the colonies and foreign possessions of His Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws in such colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such colony or possession by the chief Consular officer of the Republic of Panamá in such colony or possession.

un Magistrado ó funcionario del otro Estado.

4. En todo caso, la orden de arresto, declaración, afirmación, copia, certificado ó documento judicial, deberá ser autenticado, bien sea mediante juramento de testigo ó bien por el sello oficial del Ministro de Justicia ó de cualquier otro Ministro del otro Estado; pero cualquiera otra autenticación que á la sazón sea permitida por las leyes del país donde se efectue el examen puede sustituirse en lugar de la antedicha.

ARTICULO XIV.

Si el individuo reclamado por una de las Altas Partes Contratantes, en virtud del presente Tratado fuese igualmente reclamado por uno ó más Gobiernos, por crímenes cometidos dentro de sus territorios respectivos, se concederá la extradición al Estado cuya demanda sea de fecha más antigua.

ARTICULO XV.

Si dentro de los noventa días siguientes á la fecha de la detención, ó si dentro del tiempo adicional que el Estado á quien se hace la solicitud ó su tribunal competente concedan, no se presentaren pruebas suficientes para justificar la extradición del fugitivo, este será puesto en libertad.

ARTICULO XVI.

Todos los efectos que se encuentren en poder del preso en el momento de su aprehensión serán entregados al concederse la extradición, siempre que la autoridad competente del Estado á quien se hace la solicitud ordene tal entrega, la cual no solo comprenderá los objetos robados, sino también todo lo que pueda servir como cuerpo de delito.

ARTICULO XVII.

Todos los gastos que ocasione la extradición serán á cargo del Estado que la pida.

Las estipulaciones del presente Tratado se aplicarán á las colonias y demás posesiones de Su Majestad Británica hasta donde las leyes de dichas colonias y posesiones lo permitan.

La demanda de entrega de un criminal fugitivo refugiado en cualquiera de esas colonias ó posesiones, se dirigirá al Gobernador ó primera autoridad política de la colonia por el funcionario consular de la República de Panamá en dicha colonia ó posesión.

Dicho Gobernador ó primera autoridad despachará tal demanda con sujeción siempre, lo más que se pueda y cuanto las leyes de dicha colonia ó posesión lo permitan, á las estipulaciones de este Tratado, quedando el Gobernador, sin embargo, en libertad de efectuar la entrega ó de someter el asunto á su Gobierno.

His Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of criminals from the Republic of Panamá who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Denman.
Lord Tweedmouth.

WHEREAS by section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, it is enacted as follows:—

1. If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government or Governments of any foreign State or States for mutual protection of inventions, designs and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design or trade mark in any such State shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under this Act, in priority to other applicants and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such foreign State.

Provided that his application is made in the case of a patent within seven months and in the case of a design or trade mark within four months from his applying for protection in the foreign State with which the arrangement is in force:

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the actual acceptance of his complete specification or the actual registration of his design or trade mark in this country as the case may be.

2. The publication in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the respective periods aforesaid of any description of the invention or the use therein during such periods of the invention or the exhibition or use therein during such periods of a description or representation of the design or the use therein during such periods of the trade mark shall not invalidate the patent which may be granted for the invention or the registration of the design or trade mark.

3. The application for the grant of a patent or the registration of a design or the registration of a trade mark under this section must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act provided that in the case of trade marks any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under this Act.

4. The provisions of this section shall apply only in the case of those foreign States with respect to which His Majesty shall from time to time by Order in Council declare them to be applicable and so long only in the case of each State as the Order in Council shall continue in force with respect to that State.

And whereas by section one hundred and four of the said first-mentioned Act it is enacted as follows:—

1. Where it is made to appear to His Majesty that the legislature of any British possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions designs and trade marks patented or registered in this country it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to apply the provisions of the last preceding section with such variations or additions if any as to His Majesty in Council may seem fit to such British possession.

2. An Order in Council under this Act shall from a date to be mentioned for the purpose in the Order take effect as if its provisions had been contained in this Act; but it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to revoke any Order in Council made under this Act.

And whereas by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, it is enacted as follows:—

1.—(1) In the first proviso to sub-section one of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (which section relates to the time for making applications for protection under international arrangements) the words "twelve months" shall be substituted for the words "seven months."

(2) An application under that section shall be accompanied by a complete specification which if it be not accepted within the period of twelve months shall with the drawings (if any) be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty The King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, that the Legislature of Trinidad and Tobago has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs and trade marks patented or registered in this country:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority committed to His Majesty by the above enactments, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby declare, and it is hereby declared as follows:—

1. The provisions of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, shall apply to the British Possession of Trinidad and Tobago.

2. This Order in Council shall take effect from the twelfth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the burial ground of the parish church of Banbury; in the burial grounds and in the ground under the chapels of the Roman Catholic and Baptist chapels, and in the Friends' burial ground:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order so far as it affects the parish of Banbury be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as relates to burials in the parish of Banbury, be varied, so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful after the death of the Reverend Father Bowen to bury his body in a vault or walled grave to be constructed in the churchyard of the Roman Catholic church of St. John, Banbury, subject to the condition that the coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Bartholomew, Holmer, in the county of Hereford, and of the parish of Saint Stephen, Woodville, in the county of Derby, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Holmer and Shelwick, and Woodville, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the first day of June, last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parishes without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:-

HOLMER.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Bartholomew, Holmer, in the county of Hereford; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

WOODVILLE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Stephen, Woodville, in the county of Derby; and, after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.
