

and beaconing the port and deeps under any Orders in Council or otherwise and all powers of the Corporation to levy in or in respect of the port and harbour any tolls, dues, rates and charges by virtue of any charter, statute, or Order in Council or prescription save and except the tolls payable to the Corporation in respect of the ferry across the harbour, and all the liabilities of the Corporation as such conservators of the port other than the debt of eighteen thousand pounds incurred by the Corporation in the removal of the steamship "Wick Bay."

And whereas the King's Lynn Conservancy Board are about to remove the said Floating Light from its present position to a position near the Lower Roaring Middle Staff Buoy in the roads in the said port, and are about to place a lighted buoy in the position now occupied by the said lightship, and have represented that provision should be made for the continued maintenance of the said Floating Light, and have submitted that a due should be leviable in respect of the same:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the application is reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, upon the application of the King's Lynn Conservancy Board and in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the said recited Act by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct that on and after the removal of this Floating Light there shall be paid to the King's Lynn Conservancy Board in respect of every ship (whether British or Foreign) which shall pass the said Floating Light when placed in the new position as hereinbefore mentioned inwards or outwards and shall derive benefit therefrom (except ships unladen or in ballast, vessels of His Majesty's Royal Navy, Government revenue vessels, vessels belonging to or used by the General Lighthouse Authorities or by the Board of Trade, vessels supplied with ordinary fishing gear and employed in catching or in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds and vessels employed for pleasure only) for each time of passing and deriving benefit from such Floating Light the sum of one halfpenny per ton of the registered tonnage of such ship save that no outward bound ship putting back for refuge or anchorage only shall be subject to any further due on that account without prejudice to the recovery of any dues then owing. And His Majesty is further pleased to declare that as from the date of the removal of the said Floating Light the Order in Council dated the twenty-third October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, shall be annulled.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Denman.
Lord Tweedmouth.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, dated the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the provisions of section 103 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section 6 of the

Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act of 1885 were applied to Tasmania:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the provisions of the said section 103 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by the said section 6 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section 1 of the Patents Act, 1901, were applied to the Commonwealth of Australia:

And whereas seeing that the Commonwealth of Australia includes Tasmania it is deemed desirable that the said Order in Council, dated the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, should be specifically revoked.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council and in exercise of the power in Him vested doth hereby revoke the said Order in Council, dated the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Denman.
Lord Tweedmouth.

WHEREAS by section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, it is enacted as follows:—

1. If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government or Governments of any foreign State or States for mutual protection of inventions, designs and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design or trade mark in any such State shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under this Act, in priority to other applicants and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such foreign State.

Provided that his application is made in the case of a patent within seven months and in the case of a design or trade mark within four months from his applying for protection in the foreign State with which the arrangement is in force:

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the actual acceptance of his complete specification or the actual registration of his design or trade mark in this country as the case may be.

2. The publication in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the respective periods aforesaid of any description of the invention or the use therein during such periods of the invention or the exhibition or use therein during such periods of the design or the publication therein during such periods of a description or representation of the design or the use therein during such periods of the trade mark
