PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two) chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain sanitary improvements at the episcopal house of residence belonging to the See of Llandaff, which is known as The Palace, Llandaff.

“Whereas the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, now Bishop of Llandaff, is desirous that certain sanitary improvements should be made at the said episcopal house of residence, and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have approved the same.

“And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said improvements a sum of three hundred and fifty pounds (being a sum which together with the amount of the outstanding balance of the sum already borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Llandaff.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding three hundred and fifty pounds, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of twenty years or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following; that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one-fifteenth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Joshua Pritchard, now Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound, or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed sanitary improvements at the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop of Llandaff, for the time being shall insure against loss or damage by fire and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence, the said insurance to be for a sum of not less than eight thousand two hundred pounds and to be effected in one or more of the public offices of insurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us, and that in case of loss or damage by fire to the same episcopal house of residence the moneys receivable in respect of the said insurance shall be paid over to us by the said Bishop and shall with any interest or accumulation thereon be applied by us in rebuilding or repairing the same episcopal house of residence with the concurrence of the said Bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries within the archdeaconries of Coventry and Worcester, in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas there are within the said diocese of Worcester two archdeaconries, to wit, the said archdeaconry of Coventry and the said archdeaconry of Worcester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, has represented to us that it is desirable to make certain new arrangements (being the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed), with respect to the rural deaneries within the said archdeaconries of Coventry and Worcester.

"And whereas the areas of the said archdeaconries of Coventry and Worcester, and of the rural deaneries therein, were set forth in the schedule annexed to an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of the same month.

"And whereas the areas of the said archdeaconries of Coventry and Worcester have since been altered in consequence of the formation of the diocese of Birmingham and the re-arrangement of diocesan boundaries in connection with the formation of that diocese.

"And whereas we are of opinion that the new arrangements now proposed by the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, may properly be carried into effect.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester (in testimony whereof he hath to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, a new rural deanery to be named 'The Rural Deanery of Kenilworth,' shall be constituted in the said archdeaconry of Coventry, that a new rural deanery to be named 'The Rural Deanery of Swinford' shall be constituted in the said archdeaconry of Worcester, that the rural deaneries of Rugby and Dunchurch in the said archdeaconry of Coventry shall constitute one rural deanery to be named 'The Rural Deanery of Rugby with Dunchurch,' that each of the said archdeaconries of Coventry and Worcester shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries, the names of which are set down in order under its name, and are numbered consecutively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in such schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church, the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any rural deanery in the first column of the said schedule shall belong to and be a part of the rural deanery and of the archdeaconry under the name of which it so appears as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean and Archdeacon thereof, and shall not any longer belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery or of any other archdeaconry or be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Rural Dean or of any other Archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Ecclesall Bierlow, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Ecclesall Bierlow is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Ecclesall Bierlow which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

"And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an Order of the High Court of Chancery dated the first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four confirming a scheme for the future application of the income of the trust property of the twelve capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield in the said county of York and of an Order of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales dated the fourth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four in partial variation of the scheme established by the said first mentioned Order, the said Burgesses and Commonalty have proposed to appropriate the sum of two hundred pounds per annum out of that part of the income of their trust property which is applicable to ecclesiastical purposes in and towards the endowment of the district herein proposed to be constituted.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have signified by a writing bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven under our common seal our approval of and consent to the proposed endowment of the said proposed district.

"And whereas the said endowment of two hundred pounds per annum has been so appropriated as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned to the twelve capital Burgesses and Commonalty of Sheffield aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Ecclesall Bierlow which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Oswald, Sheffield.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be vested in and shall be exercised by the said twelve capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield and their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Oswald, Sheffield, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Ecclesall Bierlow, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which is bounded upon the south-west partly by the parish of Dore and partly by the new parish of Saint John, Abbey Dale, both in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell, upon the south-east partly by the parish or extra parochial place called Beauchief, partly by a detached portion of the parish of Norton, and partly by the new parish of Norton Woodseats, all in the said county of Derby and in the said diocese of Southwell, upon the north partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Abbeydale, Sheffield, and partly by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Sharrow, both in the said county of York and in the said diocese of York, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Sharrow, from the said new parish of Ecclesall Bierlow, at the junction of Union-road with Brincliffe Edge-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Brincliffe Edge-road for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past Knab Cottage to Carter Knowle-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Carter Knowle-lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Carter Knowle-lane for a distance of three chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past Grange Farm to Millhouses, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 1 upon the map or plan annexed to this scheme, and extending thence first westward and then in various directions along the fences forming the northern or western boundaries of the said close numbered 1 and of the closes numbered 2, 3, 4 and 5 upon the said map or plan for a distance of thirty-seven chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence forming the northern boundary of the said close numbered 5 meets the eastern side of Button Hill-lane, and extending thence westward in a straight line across Button Hill-lane to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of the footpath leading through Ecclesall Wood to Cow-lane and Abbey-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cow-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of Cow-lane for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Abbey-lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of Abbey-lane for a distance of twenty chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the southern portion of Ecclesall Wood, and extending thence first south-westward to the said wall or fence and then first south-westward and then in various directions along the said wall or fence for a distance of forty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where such wall or fence turns south-westward along the eastern bank of Limb Brook, otherwise Fenny Brook, and extending thence westward in a straight line to a point in the middle of the said brook upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Ecclesall Bierlow from the said parish of Dore and the said county of York from the said county of Derby."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbent of the new parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Christ Church, Spitalfields, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the advowson of the rectory and benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, in the city and diocese of London, is vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

"And whereas the advowson of the said parish and benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, is vested in Truman Hanbury Buxton and Company Limited (hereinafter called the Company).

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as such Bishop, and by the Company that in order to render legally practicable an apportionment of the endowments of the said benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, in favour of the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, the transfer of patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed should be effected.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that such transfer of patronage as is hereinbefore mentioned is expedient and will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage to be transferred arises or exists, that is to say, in the said parish of Christ Church, Spitalfields.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Company as the patrons of the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as the Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, is situate as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he, the said Bishop, has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal); we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, now vested in the Company as aforesaid shall be transferred to the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be fully and freely exercised by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of

Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Michael, Coventry, situate in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester, for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, situate in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester, and of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Knowbury, situate in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Hereford.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael, Coventry, is vested in Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown and such right of patronage and presentation is exercised by the First Commissioner of Your Majesty's Treasury for the time being acting on behalf of Your Majesty.

“And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, and Knowbury is vested in the Bishop of Worcester for the time being.

“And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, G.C.B., now First Commissioner of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as aforesaid, and the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, now Bishop of Worcester, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said three benefices of Saint Michael, Coventry, Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, and Knowbury may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said three benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said three benefices are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“And whereas the yearly value of the said benefice of Saint Michael, Coventry, in the King's books is fifty pounds and neither of the said two benefices of Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, and Knowbury is mentioned in the same books.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Campbell-Bannerman, acting as such First Commissioner of Your Majesty's Treasury (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, acting as such Bishop (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and affixed thereto his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael, Coventry, and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from Your Majesty to the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, and Knowbury, and each of the churches thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown to the intent that every nomination and presentation to each of the said benefices of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, and Knowbury may be made on Your Majesty's behalf by the said Henry Campbell-Bannerman or other the First Commissioner of Your Majesty's Treasury for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

For the publication of banns and solemnization of marriages the inhabitants of the said township of Wansford have been obliged to resort to the parish church of Nafferton.

"That the annual value of the benefice of Nafferton, exclusive of the residence house thereon, is about three hundred and fifteen pounds or thereabouts.

"That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one down to the present time made a grant to the Vicar of Nafferton of a sum of one hundred pounds per annum for the services of a licensed Curate in the church and parish of Nafferton with Wansford.

"That the said sum of one hundred pounds per annum will still be paid by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and shall on this scheme taking effect be equally divided each year between the Vicar of Nafferton and the perpetual Curate of Wansford as part of the perpetual income of the respective benefices each benefice of Nafferton and Wansford receiving a moiety of such aforesaid grant of one hundred pounds.

"That there is a suitable residence house at Wansford recently built by the said Sir Tatton Sykes for a resident clergyman which has been conveyed to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners as a parsonage house for the said benefice of Nafferton with Wansford by deed dated the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

"That the patronage of the said benefice of Nafferton with Wansford belongs to the said Lord Archbishop of York in right of his See of York and the present Vicar of the said benefice of Nafferton with Wansford is the Reverend Walter Marshall Hewitt, M.A., who consents to such proposed separation.

"That on such proposed separation being effected the patronage of the said church and ecclesiastical parish of Wansford shall be vested in the said Sir Tatton Sykes, Baronet, and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"That the said church and residence house at Wansford aforesaid was built by the said Sir Tatton Sykes, who has also built a school contiguous to the church at Wansford for the benefit of the children of the said township.

"That it appears to the said Archbishop that under the provisions of the said Acts of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and of the second and third years of the reign of Her late Majesty, chapter forty-nine, the township of Wansford together with that portion of the township and parish of Nafferton particularly shewn and delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, may be advantageously separated from the parish and parish church of Nafferton and be constituted a separate parish for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act, the said Archbishop has prepared a scheme in writing appended to this report describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with such scheme, he doth by this report to Your Majesty in Council certify the same to Your Majesty to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty shall think it expedient and proper so to do make an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions and other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under our consideration the question of the remuneration payable to Officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines for acting as Shorthand Writers at Naval Courts Martial, etc.:

"And whereas the employment of a Shorthand Writer on these occasions is of great advantage by shortening very materially the duration of a Court Martial and thereby reducing the cost of the proceedings:

"And whereas in view of this consideration, we are of opinion that it is desirable to hold out sufficient inducement to Officers and men to qualify in shorthand:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction Officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines who act as Shorthand Writers at Naval Courts Martial, etc., being paid Extra Pay at the rate of fourpence for each folio of one hundred words (to cover both notes and transcription) but with a minimum payment of three shillings and sixpence, and we beg leave further to recommend that these proposals should take effect as from first January, one thousand nine hundred and four, in order to admit of remuneration being given to Officers and men who have already acted as Shorthand Writers.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
