

have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Amersham, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as varied by the Orders in Council of the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, as relates to burials in the Parish Church and churchyard of Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, should be further varied, so as to provide :—

- (a.) That notwithstanding anything in the said Order in Council, it shall be lawful to reinter in the portion of the said churchyard which is situate on the north side of the said church, at or below the depth of five feet below the surface of the ground, certain human remains which have been or are about to be removed from beneath the clergy vestry of the said church ; and
- (b.) That, except as hereinafter provided, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in every part of the said church, provided that in the vault belonging to the Drake family situate at the east end of the church burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin interred therein shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-sixth day of October next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-sixth day of October.

Mr. R. Spence Watson.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the exercise of the power and jurisdiction vested by Treaty in His Majesty the King in and over the Island of Cyprus :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy

Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

I. There shall be a High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "the High Commissioner") in and over the said Island of Cyprus (hereinafter called "the Island"), and the person who shall fill the said office of High Commissioner shall be from time to time appointed by Commission under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet.

II. The High Commissioner shall administer the Government of the Island in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and shall do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said office, according to the tenour of any Orders of His Majesty in Council relating to the Island, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him, under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or by Order of His Majesty in Council, or by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are now or shall hereafter be in force in the Island.

III. The High Commissioner shall keep and use the public seal of the Island for the sealing of all things whatsoever that shall pass the said public seal.

IV. In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from the Island of the High Commissioner for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed by an instrument under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet to administer the government of the Island ; or if there be not in the Island any person so appointed, then in the person for the time being lawfully discharging the functions of Chief Secretary to the Government of the Island. Provided that no such powers or authorities shall vest in any such person until he shall have taken the oath or oaths directed to be taken by the High Commissioner by any instructions under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet in the manner therein prescribed.

V. The High Commissioner may make and execute in His Majesty's name and on His behalf, under the public seal of the Island, grants and dispositions of any lands which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by His Majesty within the Island.

VI. The High Commissioner may constitute and appoint all such Judges, Justices of the Peace, and other necessary officers in the Island as may lawfully be appointed by His Majesty, all of whom shall hold their offices during His Majesty's pleasure.

VII. The High Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His behalf, grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any Court, or before any Judge, Justice, or Magistrate within the Island, a free and unconditional pardon, or a pardon subject to such conditions as may at any time be lawfully thereunto annexed, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender for such period as to him may seem fit.

VIII. The High Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His behalf, remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may accrue or become payable to Him provided the same do not exceed the sum of fifty pounds sterling in any one case, and may suspend the payment of any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture exceeding the said sum of
