

England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at West Marsh, Great Grimsby, in the parish of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at West Marsh, Great Grimsby, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Great Grimsby, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at West Marsh, Great Grimsby as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, West Marsh, Great Grimsby.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate at West Marsh, Great Grimsby, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, West Marsh, Great Grimsby being:—

"All that part of the parish of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, which is bounded upon the north-west by the parish of Great Coates, upon the west by the parish of Little Coates, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west, upon the south and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Little Coates from the said parish of Great Grimsby crosses the middle of the River Freshney, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such river for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the street called South Parade, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the South Parade for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Alexandra-road, and continuing thence eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts to a point on the western side of Alexandra Dock, and extending thence generally northward along the western side of Alexandra Dock, for a distance of forty chains and a half or thereabouts and continuing thence northward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line (thereby crossing Alexandra Dock and the Grimsby Docks Branch Line of the Great Central Railway) for a distance of sixty-six chains or thereabouts to a point at or near the low water mark of ordinary tides in the River Humber upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Grimsby from the said parish of Great Coates."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of November, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called "the said benefice") of Burham, in
