At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of February, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anselm, Streatham, situate within the parish of Streatham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Streatham, and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter, Streatham, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Streatham and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anselm, Streatham, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Most Noble Herbrand Arthur, Duke of Bedford, a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, as the Patron of the rectory of the said parish of Streatham, and with the consents of the Reverend Charles Southey Nicholl, of Christ Church Vicarage, Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Charles Dingwall, of number 40, Eastcheap, in the city of London, Esquire, of Alan Bruce Charles Bellamy, of Oakdene, Gleneldon-road, Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, of the Reverend the Honourable Victor Alexander Seymour (commonly called Lord Victor Alexander Seymour), of number 78, Cornwall-gardens, London, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and of Frederick Bernard Palmer, of number 10, Leigham Court-road, Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, Journalist, as the Patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Streatham and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anselm, Streatham, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anselm, Streatham.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anselm, Streatham, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Streatham and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter, Streatham, both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, in the said county and diocese, from the said parish of Streatham, at the centre of the bridge which carries the South London, Sutton, and Peckham Line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway across Potters-lane, and extending thence north-east-
