FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1908.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of March, 1908.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Wenlock.
Mr. Secretary Haldane.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the seventeenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in foreign parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas in virtue of the powers conferred upon Him by section six of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, His Majesty has decided to raise and maintain a force, to be called the "Territorial Force," and to comprise the several units detailed in the second column of the Schedule appended hereto:

And whereas it is provided by section twenty-nine of the said Act that where an Association has been established thereunder for any county,

His Majesty may by Order in Council transfer to the Territorial Force such units of the Yeomanry or Volunteers (or part thereof) raised in the county as may be specified in such Order; and that the said Order may provide, in connection with such transfer, for the several matters mentioned in the said section, and may contain such supplemental, consequential, and incidental provisions as may appear necessary or proper for the purposes of the said Order:

And whereas in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, the Army Council have established Associations for the several counties detailed in the third column of the Schedule appended hereto:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The several units (or parts of units) of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the schedule appended hereto shall, on and from the first April, one thousand nine hundred and eight, be transferred to the Territorial Force, and shall thereafter be units of the Territorial Force, and shall be respectively known by the titles specified in the second column of the said Schedule.

2. All officers and men of units (or parts of units) so transferred shall on or before the thirtieth June, one thousand nine hundred and eight, elect whether they will consent to become subject to the provisions of the said Act as to conditions and area of service, or not.

3. Officers electing to become subject to such provisions will, provided that they are recommended by the Commanding Officer of the unit in which they wish to serve, be gazetted as officers of the Territorial Force; and men so electing will, subject to a similar proviso, be enlisted in the said Force in accordance with section nine of the said Act, and with regulations prescribed by His Majesty's Army Council. Any officer or man electing not to become subject to the said provisions will respectively either relinquish his commission or be discharged from His Majesty's Service as soon as may be.

4. All officers and men of the units (or parts of units) transferred to the said Force under this Order shall, until they either have been gazetted or attested (as the case may be) or have relinquished their commissions or been discharged, as provided above, remain subject to the same provisions, as regards conditions and area of service and otherwise, as would have been applicable to them, if the units or parts of units to which they belong had not been so transferred; provided that no officer or man shall while remaining subject to such provisions be permitted to undergo training or to attend drills, unless required to do so by His Majesty's Army Council.

5. All property belonging to or held for the benefit of any unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the schedule to this Order and vested in the commanding officer of any corps or regiment of Volunteers or Yeomanry as such shall, if and so far as it consists of land or any interest in land, by virtue of this Order become vested in, and, so far as it consists of other property, be transferred to, the association hereinafter mentioned, subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the property is properly applicable, and shall be held by that association for the benefit of the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force, in like manner in all respects as it was held by such commanding officer as aforesaid for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, or for such other purposes as the association, with the consent of such corresponding unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council) shall direct:

Provided that the foregoing provisions as to vesting shall not apply as respects the legal estate in any copyhold or customary land, but in such case such legal estate shall, subject to the customs of the manor, be transferred to such trustees as the association in which the estate, if the land had not been copyhold or customary land, would have vested may appoint for the purpose.

6. The association in which any land or interest in land is so vested shall be—

(a) if the unit is administered by a single association, that association, wherever the land may be situated; and

(b) if the unit is administered by more than one association, the association of the county in which the land is situated, or, if the land is not situated in any of the counties the associations of which administer the unit, such of those associations as the Secretary of State may by Order direct.

The association to which property other than land is to be so transferred shall be—

(a) if the unit is administered by a single association, that association; and

(b) if the unit is administered by more than one association, such of the associations and in such proportions as the Secretary of State may direct.

The commanding officer in whom any property directed by or under this Order to be transferred to an association or to trustees is vested shall, on the request and at the cost of the association to which the property is to be transferred or by which the trustees are appointed, execute and do all such lawful assurances and things for transferring the property to the association or trustees as the association may reasonably require.

If any question arises as to the association in or to which any property is vested or is to be transferred under this Order, the question shall be decided by the Secretary of State, whose decision shall be final.

7. Where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to this Order is vested in or held by any trustees other than such commanding officer as aforesaid, those trustees shall, until otherwise directed by Order in Council under the said section 29, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special trustees, to the exclusion of the association, and shall continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force, in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and the corresponding unit shall notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force.

8. Where the council of a county or borough have acquired any land or interest in land on behalf of any unit of Volunteers mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to this Order, the council may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, transfer the land or interest in land and any outstanding liabilities incurred by the council in respect thereof to the association or one of the associations by which the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force is administered, if that association consents to the transfer, but unless and until the land or interest is so transferred the council shall continue to hold the land or interest in land on behalf of the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force, in like manner in all respects as they held it on behalf of the unit of the Volunteers.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of March, 1908.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Wenlock.
Mr. Secretary Haldane.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the seventeenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in foreign parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid :

And whereas the Honourable Artillery Company was incorporated by a charter granted by His Majesty King Henry the Eighth, dated the twenty-fifth day of August, fifteen hundred and thirty-seven :

And whereas under divers Royal warrants, letters patent, and Orders in Council, the members of the Company enjoy various civil rights and privileges :

And whereas the Company is possessed of certain land and premises situate in the metropolitan borough of Finsbury, which land and premises are held under two leases, the one being dated the thirtieth day of December eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and made between the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London of the one part, and the persons therein named of the other part, as trustees of the Company, and the other being dated the twenty-third day of June, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and made between the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London of the one part, and the persons named therein of the other part, as trustees of the Company :

And whereas it is provided by each such lease that the piece or parcel of land thereby demised shall not be enjoyed for any other use or purpose whatsoever than for the Company to exercise arms in and for the mustering, training, and exercising of the trained bands or militia of the City, in accordance with certain provisions in the said leases respectively contained :

And whereas the existing trustees by whom the said land and premises comprised in the said leases are held are Captain Edward Blanks, Lieutenant-Colonel George Thomas Carpenter, Captain William Elam, Thomas Lampard Green, and William Harrison Hillman :

And whereas by an Order in Council made under section twenty-nine of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, dated the nineteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, the Company has become a unit of the Territorial Force by the title of the Honourable Artillery Company, and is comprised in the part of that force under the administration of the Territorial Force Association for the City of London.

And whereas by the said section twenty-nine of the said Act it is enacted that an Order in Council made under that section may provide, amongst other things,—

For transferring to the association any property belonging to or held for the benefit of any such unit, so however that all property so transferred shall as from the date of the transfer be held by the association for the benefit in like manner of the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force, or for such other purposes as the association with the consent of such corresponding unit, to be ascertained in the prescribed manner, shall direct; and any question which may arise as to whether any property is transferred to an association or as to the trusts or purposes upon or for which it is or ought to be held, shall be referred for the decision of a Secretary of State, whose decision shall be final. The corresponding unit of the Territorial Force shall, in the event of any such transfer, become entitled, notwithstanding the terms of any trust, limitation, or condition affecting the property so transferred to the estate or interest in such property of the unit to the property of which the Order relates; but, subject to this provision, the interest of any beneficiary other than such unit shall not, without the consent of such beneficiary, be affected. The Order may, if it be deemed proper, having regard to the special circumstances of any case, provide for the appointment of special trustees to act together with or to the exclusion of the association in regard to any such property, and such special trustees may be the existing trustees of such property:

and that the Order may contain such supplemental, consequential, and incidental provisions as may appear necessary or proper for the purposes of the Order.

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to His Majesty by the said section of the said Act and of all other powers enabling His Majesty doth, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows:

The said Captain Edward Blanks, Lieutenant-Colonel George Thomas Carpenter, Captain William Elam, Thomas Lampard Green, and William Harrison Hillman or other the trustees for the time being appointed for the purpose by the Court of Assistants of the Honourable Artillery Company shall be and are hereby appointed special trustees in regard to the land and premises comprised in the said leases to the exclusion of the Association for the City of London or any other County Association constituted under the provisions of the said Act, and shall continue to hold the said property and premises in trust for the Company in all respects as they held them before the Company became a unit of the Territorial Force, and the Company shall, notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting the property and the premises so demised contained in the said leases, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the Company was entitled thereto before the Company became a unit of the Territorial Force.

Nothing in the said Order, or in this Order, or in any other Order or regulation made under the said Act, shall affect the incorporation of the Company or any civil rights and privileges enjoyed or exercisable by the members of the Company before the making of the first mentioned Order.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of March, 1908.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Wenlock.
Mr. Secretary Haldane.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the seventeenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in foreign parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas in virtue of the powers conferred upon Him by section six of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, His Majesty has decided to raise and maintain a Force, to be called the "Territorial Force":

And whereas it is provided by section twenty-eight of the said Act that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, apply, with the necessary adaptations, to the said Force, or to the officers or men belonging to that Force, any enactment relating to the Militia, Yeomanry, or Volunteers, or to officers or men of the Militia, Yeomanry, or Volunteers, other than enactments with respect to the raising, service, pay, discipline, or government of the Militia, Yeomanry, or Volunteers:

And whereas it is expedient that certain enactments relating to the Militia specified in the First Part of the Schedule appended hereto, and certain enactments relating to officers of the Volunteers specified in the Second Part of the said Schedule, should be made applicable to the said Force:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The several enactments specified in the First and Second Parts of the Schedule appended hereto shall apply to the Territorial Force and to the officers and men thereof in like manner as they apply to the Militia and to the officers and men of the Militia, and to officers of the Volunteers respectively.
