Any person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor, soil or injure the linings or cushions of a car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in or upon a car.

Provided that, on cars specially run for artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers, no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in or upon a car under the provisions of this Bye-law on the ground of the condition

We have audited the above Balance Sheet with the books and vouchers of the Company, and have to report thereon as follows:—
The Stocks of Stores, &c., on hand, have been taken and valued by the Company's Officials. Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum has been paid to 15th December, 1905, on 21,238 shares of £10 each of the Issued Share Capital.
Subject to these observations, the Balance Sheet is in our opinion correctly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs as shown by the books.

Certificate of Board of Trade Auditor for the Year ended 31st December, 1906.

I have examined the foregoing accounts with the books and vouchers of the Company, and am of opinion that they correctly represent the position of the Company subject to my notes on the audit of previous accounts, and to the following observations, viz :—

1. The item of £140,583 19s. 6d. charged in Capital Account under the head of Machinery includes a sum of £7,320 paid to Messrs. Willans and Robinson, in excess of the amount due to them as a result of an over-estimate of the work actually done at the time when the Limited Company took over the liabilities of the Parliamentary Company. This item is referred to in a note upon the Balance Sheet issued to the shareholders. The Company has undertaken to rectify this error in the next accounts.

2. The accounts are based on an agreement dated 19th December, 1906, between the Company and the "Cleveland and Durham Electric Power Limited," a new Company occupying the same offices, and having upon its Board all the Directors of the Parliamentary Company and two other persons—while practically all the shares of the latter Company were transferred to and are now held by the Limited Company. This agreement is in the nature of a lease (terminable by three months' notice on either side) by the Parliamentary Company to the Limited Company of most of the powers and rights of the former under its special Acts, including the power of appointing the principal officers of the Parliamentary Company, and the right to use the works, plant, and machinery of the latter for the production of electrical energy, supplying the Parliamentary Company with such energy as it may require at cost price plus such fixed charge per kilowatt as may be mutually agreed on, and with the right to sell or dispose of such energy as might not be required for the purposes of the Parliamentary Company, for the use and benefit of the Limited Company.

The chief object of this arrangement appears to have been to enable additional capital to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking. It may be a question whether on a strict construction of the Company's Special Acts, the Parliamentary Company has the right to delegate its statutory powers to another Company without express legislative sanction; on the other hand, the details of Capital Expenditure by the Limited Company have been submitted for audit, and vouched in the same manner as they would have been had the monies been expended by the Parliamentary Company, and whether the contention of the Company and its Solicitors that power to enter into the agreement is given or implied by section 7 of the Company's Special Act, 1901, is correct or not, the course adopted would appear to have been of advantage to the undertaking, and to have facilitated the carrying out of the objects for which it was formed.

JOHN SMITH, Auditor appointed by Board of Trade.
