In the High Court of Justice—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Eve at Chambers.

1908. H. No. 973.

Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1908.

Between GEORGE BENJAMIN HODSDON, Plaintiff, and ALEXANDER THWAITES HOGARTH, Defendant.

UPON the application of the plaintiff, by summons dated the 3rd day of April, 1908, and upon hearing the Solicitors for the applicant, and upon reading an affidavit of William Henry Ewart, filed the 3rd April, 1908, and an affidavit of the said William Henry Ewart, filed the 6th April, 1908, and the exhibit A thereto,

It is ordered, that the publication by advertisement in the form set forth in the schedule hereto of the originating summons issued in this action, on the 24th March, 1908, and a copy of this order, once each in the London Gazette and the Daily Telegraph newspaper, be deemed good and sufficient service of the said originating summons on the defendant.

W. O. HEWLETT, Master.

Schedule.

To Alexander Thwaites Hogarth, of "Hookway," Klean-avenue, Clapham Park.

Take notice, that on the 24th day of March, 1908, an originating summons was issued in the action of George Benjamin Hodson v. Alexander Thwaites Hogarth, 1908. H. No. 973, and that the plaintiff, by such originating summons, asks for the determination of the following questions:—

1. That it may be declared that under and by virtue of the several memoranda hereinafter referred to, the plaintiff is entitled to an equitable lien or mortgage on the property comprised in the said several memoranda.

2. That an account may be taken of what is due to the plaintiff under and by virtue of certain memoranda of charge, dated respectively the 24th day of October, 1906, the 13th day of November, 1906, and the 5th day of December, 1906, and respectively signed by the defendant in favour of the plaintiff, and also under and by virtue of a certain memorandum of charge, dated the 13th day of December, 1906, signed by the defendant in favour of Messrs. Oldfield, Bartram, and Oldfield, the benefit of which is now vested in the plaintiff and for his costs of this action.

3. That such mortgage may be enforced by sale or foreclosure.

4. If necessary, that the defendant may execute a proper conveyance or assignment to the plaintiff.

And take notice, that by an order, dated the 7th day of April, 1908, it was ordered that the publication of this notice once in the London Gazette and once in the Daily Telegraph newspaper should be deemed good service of the said originating summons upon you.

And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action, and judgment may be given in your absence.
