A PROCLAMATION

Directing that the Doubloon shall cease to be Legal Tender in the West India Colonies.

EDWARD R. & I.

Whereas by virtue of a Proclamation of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, dated the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, certain parts of the Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by section two of the Coinage Act, 1891, were applied with the modifications specified in the Proclamation to Our West India Colonies (including Our Colony of British Guiana):

And whereas it is provided by the said Proclamation that any coins coined in a foreign country which, at the date of the promulgation of the said Proclamation, were by law current and a legal tender in any colony or possession to which the said Proclamation extended should, until by Proclamation otherwise directed, continue to be so current and a legal tender at the same rate and up to the same amount as heretofore:

And whereas under the provisions so applied We may by Proclamation regulate any matters relative to the coinage and the Mint within the present prerogative of the Crown which are not provided for by the Coinage Act, 1870, and may revoke or alter any Proclamation previously made:

And whereas by virtue of a Proclamation of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, dated the fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, it was provided that throughout the whole of Our West India Colonies (including Our Colony of British Guiana) the doubloon should circulate and be received in payment as being of the full value of sixty-four shillings sterling, current money of the United Kingdom:

And whereas the doubloon has ceased to be legal tender in certain of Our West India Colonies, namely, in Our Colony of Bermuda by virtue of an Act of that Colony entitled the Legal Tender

Act, 1882, in the Island of Jamaica by virtue of Our Proclamation dated the thirtieth day of January one thousand nine hundred and one, and in Our Colony of Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of Our Proclamation dated the 1st day of June one thousand nine hundred and seven:

And whereas it is expedient that the doubloon should no longer be legal tender in any of Our West India Colonies:

Now, therefore, We do hereby in pursuance of the said recited provisions and of all other powers enabling Us in this behalf by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct, and ordain that the doubloon shall, as from the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and eight, cease to be current or legal tender in any of Our West India Colonies (including Our Colony of British Guiana) in which immediately before that date it is so current or legal tender.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, and in the Eighth year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48) in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eight, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute XV, clause 4, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"Any Official Fellow who retires from service after having served the College for not less than twenty-five years may at the discretion of the President and Fellows to be exercised at any time after the expiration of such twenty-five years and on one year's notice either receive the pension corresponding to his term of service or be permitted to retain a Fellowship during his life with an additional stipend not exceeding one hundred pounds a year payable out of the Pension Fund."

"Any Fellow elected under this clause either for life or for a term of years shall receive an additional stipend not exceeding one hundred pounds a year payable out of the Pension Fund as long as he continues to enjoy such Fellowship.

"On the determination of this Fellowship the right of the ex-Fellow to receive the pension corresponding to his term of service shall revive.

"Elections made under this clause shall be subject to the following conditions:—

"(a) They shall take place only at a Stated General Meeting.

"(b) There must be in favour of the election a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting.

"(c) No election to a Fellowship shall be made under this clause while there are three Fellows of the College elected under the same clause.
