TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1908.

Whitehall, July 2, 1908.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on Their arrival at Salisbury, on the 27th June, on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to the Earl and Countess of Pembroke, at Wilton House, Salisbury:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of New Sarum desire to offer Your Majesties a cordial and loyal welcome to our ancient City.

We highly appreciate the honour Your Majesties now confer upon us by Your Royal presence, and beg to assure You of our unbounded loyalty to the Throne, and we fervently pray that by the Providence of Almighty God Your Majesties may long be spared to the faithful Citizens of this Great Empire.

The Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens was hereto affixed, this 27th day of June, 1908.

Robert M. Hall, Mayor.

Francis Hodding, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you, on behalf of the Queen and Myself, for your loyal and dutiful Address of Welcome to your Ancient City, and for your cordial expressions of good will.

"It gives Us great pleasure to come among you, and you have our sincere good wishes for your continued happiness and prosperity."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of The Blessed Virgin Mary, of Salisbury:—

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Dean and Canons of Salisbury Cathedral, desire to offer to Your Majesties a respectful, loyal, and cordial welcome upon the occasion of Your first visit to this Cathedral City after ascending the Throne of these Kingdoms. The original foundation Charter of our Cathedral received the Confirmation of the Seal of William the Conqueror, and since his time many of Your Majesties' ancestors and predecessors have honoured our City and Cathedral with their presence, and have resided within its Close. Three of them were formally received into the brotherhood of the Chapter, and in more recent years we recall with pleasure the facts that Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was brought here as an infant by Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Kent, in the year 1819, that she again visited us with the Duchess in 1830, and a third time in the year 1856, when Your Majesty accompanied her as Prince of Wales. We highly appreciate the honour which Your Majesties now confer upon this City by Your presence, and we beg leave most respectfully to assure Your Majesties that it is our earnest prayer that You may long reign over Your great Empire, and that Your active endeavours to promote peace among all Nations, and true religion, happiness, and prosperity among Your subjects, may have complete and lasting success.

Dated in our Muniment House of our said Cathedral Church, this 27th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1908.

A. R. Malden, Chapter Clerk.

The Seal of the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury Cathedral.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"The Queen and I thank you most heartily for your loyal Address of Welcome.

"It is a great pleasure to Us to visit your beautiful City, so full of interesting historical memories, and so often visited by My predecessors, and especially by My dear Mother.

"Your noble Cathedral, a living monument to the piety of those long dead, attracts visitors from all parts of the world, and is justly famous as one of the most beautiful places of worship in the country. I am glad that the Dean and Chapter are fully alive to the duty of maintaining the fabric which is the pride of your City.

"It is very gratifying to Me to know that you appreciate My efforts in the cause of peace. It is in times of peace that the happiness, progress, and prosperity of My people can best be increased, and that the standard of religion and morality can be raised."

The following Address was presented to Their Majesties at the entrance to the Borough of Wilton :—

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Corporation, and Burgesses of the Ancient and loyal Borough of Wilton, do most humbly beg to Welcome Your Majesties on the occasion of Your visit to Wilton, the Ancient Capital of Wiltshire.

Although in former days Wilton was well known to several British Sovereigns no occupant of the Throne has honoured the Borough with his presence since His Majesty George The Third visited it in the year 1778.

We, therefore, the more gladly take advantage of the present occasion to assure Your Majesties of our deep devotion and loyalty.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough, the 27th day of June, 1908.

J. M. Swayne, Mayor.
Henry J. King, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I thank you for the loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Wilton.

"I have felt much interest in visiting a town so closely associated with the early history of our country, and particularly with the ancient Kings of Wessex, a town, too, which in later days has excelled in peaceful pursuits, both manufacturing and agricultural.

"You may rest assured of My warmest good wishes for your happiness and prosperity."

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two) chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain improvements at the episcopal house of residence belonging to the See of Wakefield, which is known as Bishopgarth, Wakefield.

"Whereas the Right Reverend George Rodney, now Bishop of Wakefield, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said episcopal house of residence, and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said improvements a sum of four hundred and fifty pounds (being a sum which does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishop of Wakefield.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding four hundred and fifty pounds, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of twenty years or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following: that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one fifteenth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said George Rodney, now Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop of Wakefield for the time being shall insure against loss or damage by fire and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence, the said insurance to be for a sum of not less than eight thousand pounds and to be effected in one or more of the public offices of insurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us, and that in case of loss or damage by fire to the same episcopal house of residence the moneys receivable in respect of the said insurance shall be paid over to us by the said Bishop and shall with any interest or accumulation thereon be applied by us in rebuilding or repairing the same episcopal house of residence with the concurrence of the said Bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of his said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of July, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said benefices') of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, both in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, is vested in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Hart, in the said county of Durham and in the said diocese of Durham.

"And whereas the Reverend Henry Ebenezer Powell, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hart, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, now vested in him as aforesaid as such Vicar or Incumbent, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Durham.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, now Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefices of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parishes or districts in or in respect of which the rights of patronage or advowsons so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arise or exist, that is to say, in the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Ebenezer Powell, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Hart, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, and Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, now vested in him, the said Henry Ebenezer Powell, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Hart as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Henry Ebenezer Powell, and from his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Hart, to the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His

said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of July, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice (being a district) of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Charles Henry Sellwood Godwin, of Number 2, Southfield-villas, Middlesbrough-on-Tees, in the county of York, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the present Incumbent of the said benefice.

"And whereas the said Charles Henry Sellwood Godwin is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, now Archbishop of York, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the district of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Charles Henry Sellwood Godwin (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Aidan, Middlesbrough, now vested in him, the said Charles Henry Sellwood Godwin, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James, Burnley, of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Burnley, and of the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Burnley, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James, Burnley, of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Burnley, and of the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Burnley, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Burnley, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint James, Burnley; and (secondly) all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Burnley, which are described in the second schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Burnley.

Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Ruthin, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Ruthin.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Ruthin for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carnarvon.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carnarvon shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. 7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the county of Carnarvon, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. 11. Any person who, after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carnarvon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carnarvon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Carnarvon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

"(5) (1) On and after the commencement of this Act the general Lighthouse Authorities shall levy light dues with respect to the voyages made by ships or by way of periodical payment and not with respect to the lights which a ship passes or from which it derives benefit, and the dues so levied shall take the place of the dues now levied by those Authorities.

"(2) The scale and rules set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of the levying of light dues in pursuance of this Act, but Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, alter, either generally or with respect to particular classes of cases, the scale or rules and the exemptions therefrom.

"(3) Before any Order in Council is made under this section, the draft thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament for not less than thirty days on which that House is sitting, and if either House, before the expiration of the thirty days during which the draft has been laid before it, presents an address to Her Majesty against the draft, or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, but this shall be without prejudice to the making of any new draft Order."

And whereas yachts of under five tons registered shipping tonnage are included in the exemptions from the said scale and rules:

And whereas it appears expedient to His Majesty to alter the exemptions in the Second Schedule to the said Act by adding thereto sailing yachts of and above five tons registered shipping tonnage, which are not registered in the British Islands, and which come into the territorial waters adjacent to the United Kingdom with the sole object of taking part in yacht racing:

And whereas the draft of this Order has been laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, and no address against the same has been presented:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the power conferred upon Him by the above recited provision, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare that there shall be added to the exemptions from dues payable under the Second Schedule to the said Act the following class of vessels; that is to say, sailing yachts of and above five tons registered shipping tonnage, which are not registered in the British Islands, and which come into the territorial waters adjacent to the United Kingdom with the sole object of taking part in yacht racing, so long as such yachts are coming into, remaining in, or leaving such territorial waters solely in connection with such object, and hold a certificate in a form approved by the Board of Trade.

The proposal form shall be signed by two Members, to one of whom at the least the candidate shall be known personally, and every candidate shall make and subscribe the declaration therein contained—that, if elected, he agrees to be bound by the Charter and By-laws and by any Regulations made thereunder, and to further the objects of the Society.

7. All proposal forms of Candidates, duly signed and subscribed as hereinbefore provided, received by the Secretary prior to the issue by him of notice convening an Ordinary Meeting of Council, shall be considered thereat, and the Council may in their absolute discretion, by resolution passed by a majority of those present, elect or postpone the election of any candidate as a Member of the Society, or may refuse to elect any candidate whom they consider to be not a fit or proper person to be elected as aforesaid, and upon such election may also decide whether any Member so elected shall be required to pay for the year then current the whole or any proportionate part of the annual or other subscription or other fee hereafter provided, and thereupon the Secretary shall give notice of such election and decision to the Member elected as aforesaid, and upon such notice and the payment of the said subscription or other fee, the person so elected shall, pursuant to the Charter and By-laws, become and continue to be subject to all the duties and obligations, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of a Member.

8. The Register of the Society of 1881 shall become, and the Council shall cause the same to be continued as, the Register of the Society by the entry therein by the Secretary, or other person authorized by the Council, of the names of all persons elected Members as hereinbefore provided, together with the date of their several elections, and sufficient particulars of their several professions or occupations and addresses, and such particulars shall be amended or corrected as occasion may require, and the Council may cause to be printed, and sent without any charge therefor to each Member, a list of the names and respective addresses of all Members then appearing in the Register.

9. Except as otherwise decided by the Council, every Member shall, upon notice of his election, in addition to a subscription for the current year in which he is elected, or any payment in lieu thereof, pay to the Treasurer, or other person appointed by the Council to receive Members' fees or subscriptions, an entrance fee of One Guinea, or such other amount as may for the time being be prescribed by Regulations.

10. Every Member shall on the first day of January in each year pay to the Treasurer, or other person as aforesaid, the sum of One pound five shillings, or such other sum as the Council may prescribe by Regulations, and every Member shall upon his election pay the like amount as his subscription for the year current in which he is elected, or such proportionate part thereof as may be decided by the Council, but in lieu of any such payment a Member may compound for that and all future payments, as hereinafter provided.

11. A Member, upon his election, or any other Member whose subscription is not in arrear, may at any time compound for all annual subscriptions by payment to the Treasurer, or other person as aforesaid, the sum following (that is to say):—

(a) A Member whose age does not exceed 30 years, the sum of £25.

(b) A Member whose age exceeds 30 years, the sum of £20, less such sum as is ascertained to be equal to one-fourth part of the total of the sums which have been paid by such Member as annual subscriptions after reaching the age of 30 years. But before accepting any compounding payment the Council may require from any Member desirous of compounding, such evidence of his age as they may think fit.

12. Any Member whose annual subscription, payable on the first day of January, is unpaid on the first day of March next following, shall, while remaining subject to the duties and obligations, not be entitled to any of the rights of a Member until such subscription shall be paid, and upon the first day of May the Secretary shall give notice to all Members whose subscriptions are so in arrear, and shall furnish a list of such notices to the Council at the next ensuing Ordinary Meeting thereof, and if the Council shall then so direct, shall by further notice require such Member to pay the said arrears by a date to be fixed by them; and if any Member on the next ensuing thirty-first day of December shall continue in arrear, such Member shall cease to be a Member, and his name shall then be removed from the Register by the Secretary, but without prejudice to the right of the Council to recover any such arrears or to enforce any duty or obligation to which, as a Member, he may have become liable at the time of such removal, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and if the Council shall so direct, the name of any Member removed as aforesaid shall be published in the Journal. Notwithstanding anything in this By-law provided, the Council, in the exercise of their sole discretion may, having regard to the circumstances in which the subscription of any Member shall be in arrear aforesaid, postpone or remit the payment thereof, and continue such Member in full enjoyment of all rights of Membership as if such subscription had not at any time been or continued in arrear.

13. A Member who has not paid before the first day of March any fee or subscription payable and due by him shall be disqualified for nomination as President, Vice-President, and Ordinary Member of Council, and to continue in any such office, and to become or remain an ex-officio Member of Council, and to sign the form of nomination of any Ordinary Member of Council.

14. Any Member may at any time determine his Membership by notice in writing to that effect, sent to the Secretary not later than the thirty-first day of December in any year, but such notice in order to operate as a determination shall be accompanied by payment of any subscription or fee which at the date of the notice shall have become payable by the Member and which remains unpaid in respect of Membership for that year.

15. Any Member in respect of whom a complaint of misconduct is made to the Council, which complaint, the Member first having had an opportunity of being heard, is sufficiently established, in the opinion of the Council, may, by resolution of the Council as hereinafter provided, be suspended from rights of Membership for such period as the Council may decide, or the Council may in like manner decide that his Membership shall be determined, and thereupon such Member shall cease to be a Member, and his name shall be removed from the Register; and in the event of it being brought to the notice of the Council that any Member has been adjudged by a Court of competent jurisdiction in the country in which he is alleged to have committed an offence to be guilty of an offence which in Great Britain or Ireland would be an indictable offence punishable alone by imprisonment, then, except such offence may be regarded as a political offence, the Council may order his name to be removed from the Register, and thereupon he shall cease to be a Member. A resolution of the Council as aforesaid shall not be passed unless twelve or more Members of the Council are present at the meeting at which it is proposed and not less than two-thirds of those present vote in favour of such resolution.

16. Every Member shall be at liberty to introduce, at any meeting of a Local Section at which the Member introducing is entitled to be present, such visitors as the rules of the Local Section may prescribe. Every such visitor shall enter his name in a book provided for that purpose, and may take part in but shall not vote at the meeting, but the Committee of the Local Section may, in consequence of any special circumstances relating to any such meeting, suspend the said liberty by notice given either in the notice convening the meeting, or at a reasonable time prior to the holding thereof.

17. Any Member who shall persistently use after, or in conjunction with, his name, letters or initials which purport to indicate or convey that Membership of the Society confers upon him any degree, qualification, or authority to practise in any profession or calling, or a right to use any distinctive title, after notice from the Secretary authorised by resolution of the Council to discontinue such use, may be deemed by the Council to be guilty of misconduct, but this By-law shall not prevent any Member from bona fide subscribing or describing himself as a Member of the Society or any office bearer thereof.

18. Any former Member whose Membership has ceased or been determined under any provisions of the By-laws may apply for re-admission to Membership, and such application shall be considered and decided upon by the Council at the next ensuing Ordinary Meeting thereof in all respects as if it were a proposal for Membership of the Society, and if such application be granted, then after notice thereof by the Secretary to the applicant, and upon making such payments and complying with such conditions, if any, which the Council may decide, the applicant shall be re-admitted to Membership, and shall again become subject and entitled to all the duties, obligations, and rights of a Member. A resolution of the Council under the provisions of this By-law shall not be effective unless there shall be present not less than twelve Members of the Council, three-fourths of whom at the least shall vote in favour of such resolution, and any resolution as aforesaid, if the Council in like manner so determine, may be published in the Journal.

PART III.—THE COUNCIL.

19. The Council shall consist of :—

(a) Twenty-five elected Members of Council, comprising :—

(i) A President ;

(ii) Twelve Vice-Presidents ;

(iii) Twelve Ordinary Members of Council ;

(b) Ex-officio Members of Council, comprising :—

(iv) The Sectional Officers ;

(v) The Treasurer, the Foreign Secretary ; all of whom shall be Members of the Society.

The elected Members of Council, except Members appointed to fill casual vacancies, shall be elected by ballot at the time, in the manner, and for the respective periods prescribed by the By-laws, and all Members of Council in office at the commencement of the By-laws shall in their several capacities continue in office, but subject to all incidences, whether as to powers, duties, retirement, re-election, nomination, election, or otherwise, as if they had been elected and were holding office pursuant to and under the several provisions of the By-laws applicable thereto.

20. The President shall be nominated from amongst the Members by the Council, and such Member so nominated shall be submitted by the Council for election at the Annual General Meeting in manner hereinafter provided. He shall retire from office at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting, and shall be eligible for re-election, but a Member who has been elected or appointed President two years or one year and a part of another year in succession, shall not be eligible for election as President before the Annual General Meeting next but one ensuing after his last retirement. A retiring President not nominated for re-election shall be nominated by the Council as one of the four Vice-Presidents to be submitted for election at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting.

21. The Vice-Presidents shall be nominated from amongst the Members by the Council, and such Members so nominated shall be submitted by the Council for election at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting in manner provided by the By-laws.

Four Vice-Presidents shall retire from office at each Annual General Meeting, none of whom shall be eligible for election as a Vice-President or an ordinary Member of Council before the Annual General Meeting next ensuing after the said retirement, but a Member appointed Vice-President to fill a casual vacancy shall not, upon the expiration of the term for which he is so appointed, be ineligible as aforesaid.

All Vice-Presidents shall retire in rotation in accordance with the seniority of their respective terms of office, and if in ascertaining which four of them shall retire as aforesaid it shall appear that there is equality of term of office in the case of more than four of them of the highest degree of seniority, or in the case of two or more of them of a lower degree of seniority required to make up four retiring Vice-Presidents, the Council shall decide which of them having such respective equality of term shall retire.

A Vice-President nominated as President in accordance with the last preceding By-law shall, upon election as President, vacate the office of Vice-President, and the vacancy thereby created shall be deemed to be a casual vacancy.

22. Ordinary Members of Council shall be nominated from amongst the Members by the Council, and such Members so nominated shall be submitted by the Council for election at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting in manner prescribed by the By-laws.

Four Ordinary Members of Council shall retire from office at each Annual General Meeting, none of whom shall be eligible for election as an Ordinary Member of Council before the Annual General Meeting next ensuing after the said retirement, but an Ordinary Member of Council appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall not, upon the expiration of the term of office for which he is so appointed, be ineligible as aforesaid.

All Ordinary Members of Council shall retire in rotation, in accordance with the seniority of their respective terms of office, and if in ascertaining which four of them shall retire as aforesaid it shall appear that there is equality of term of office in the case of more than four of them of the highest degree of seniority, or in the case of two or more of them of a lower degree of seniority required to make up the four retiring Ordinary Members of Council, the Council shall decide which of them having such respective equality of term shall retire.

An Ordinary Member of Council nominated either as President or a Vice-President in accordance with the last two preceding By-laws respectively shall, upon election as President or Vice-President, as the case may be, vacate the office of Ordinary Member of Council, and the vacancy thereby created shall be deemed to be a casual vacancy.

23. An Ordinary Member of Council shall be nominated by ten or more Members upon Form (B) in the Schedule, a copy of which form shall be furnished by the Secretary upon the written or verbal request of any Member, but a Member shall not be eligible to sign more than one such nomination form, and the Member nominated shall sign the declaration set forth on the form. A nomination shall be declared invalid by the Council if:—

(a) The Member thereon nominated is disqualified for election, or ineligible to be elected, as provided by the By-laws.

(b) The nomination is not made on the authorised printed form, or substantially not in the manner directed thereon.

(c) The nomination form is signed by less than ten Members not disqualified, or not ineligible to nominate as provided by the By-laws.

(d) The nomination form is not received before or upon the day appointed therefor.

(e) The Member nominated has not signed the declaration printed upon the form.

A Member whose nomination aforesaid is declared to be invalid shall receive notice thereof from the Secretary and shall not be submitted for election.

24. In every year the Council shall cause a list to be prepared setting forth the names of all Members of the Council, showing which of them are due to retire at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting, and which (if any) of them are eligible for re-election, and such list shall be approved by the Council at any meeting thereof, not less than two months prior to the Annual General Meeting aforesaid, and the Council shall at the same meeting nominate the Members to be submitted to such meeting for election as President and Vice-Presidents respectively, and shall also appoint Members as Treasurer and Foreign Secretary respectively to take the places of the Treasurer and Foreign Secretary who will retire at the said General Meeting. The said list, together with the names of the Members nominated and appointed as aforesaid, shall be printed as a notice to Members, which notice shall contain a statement inviting Members to nominate the ordinary Members of Council to be elected at the said General Meeting, and appointing a day before or upon which such nominations shall be received by the Secretary according to Form (B) in the Schedule, and the said notice, as approved, shall be sent to all the Members with, or in, the next issue of the Journal.

25. All nomination forms of Ordinary Members of Council received by the Secretary shall be considered by the Council at the meeting thereof next ensuing after the date appointed for their delivery, and the Members whose nominations are not then declared to be invalid, together with the Members nominated by the Council, as President and Vice-Presidents respectively, shall be submitted for election at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting. But if the number of Members nominated or not nominated validly shall be less than the number of vacancies, the Council shall thereupon nominate such Members as are requisite to make up the number required, and in that event, and also whenever the nominations considered and not declared to be invalid by the Council are equal to the number of vacancies, although the names of Members nominated in either case shall be submitted to the General Meeting, no ballot shall be taken thereon.

26. The elections of all elected Members of Council, in whatever capacity, shall, except as provided by the By-laws, be by ballot taken upon the first day of each Annual General Meeting, and shall be conducted in manner and otherwise subject to such Regulations relating thereto as the Council may make, but a Member may record his votes either by delivering his ballot list personally or by post at the said General Meeting in accordance with the Regulations.

The Council in every year shall cause to be prepared, and shall send to all the Members not less than twenty-one days before the Annual General Meeting, a ballot list of the Council, showing the names of all Members thereof in their several capacities, and which of them are to retire, and setting forth separately thereon the names of Members in each class or capacity of elected Members submitted for election, and also the names of the Treasurer and Foreign Secretary appointed by the Council to succeed the retiring Treasurer and Foreign Secretary, and the name of the retiring Auditor respectively. The ballot list shall be according to such form as the Council may from time to time authorize.

27. One Ordinary Meeting of the Council at the least shall be held every month to transact such business relating to the affairs of the Society as may be necessary, except that if the Council so decide an Ordinary Meeting of the Council need not be held during the months of August and September, but a Special Meeting of the Council may be convened by the President at any time and shall be convened by the Secretary whenever he shall receive a notice signed by not less than seven Members of Council calling upon him to convene such meeting, and stating the matter to be considered thereat, and notice thereof shall be given to all Members of the Council as and in the manner provided by the Standing Orders of the Council, and no other business shall be considered at such Special Meeting of Council. Except where otherwise provided by the Charter, or the By-laws, any seven Members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

28. Subject to any of the provisions of the Charter or the By-laws, the Council may for the due and proper regulation of its own proceedings make Standing Orders, and subject to any provisions therein contained, and relating thereto, may at any time add to, alter, amend, or rescind such Standing Orders.

29. Subject to the provisions of the Charter and the By-laws, the Council may appoint Committees from amongst themselves, and may delegate any of their powers to such Committees, and in furtherance of other the objects of the Society, may also appoint Committees composed wholly of Members of the Council, or of Members of the Society, or partly of Members of the Council and partly of Members of the Society, and may fix the quorum and make rules for regulating the proceedings of any of the Committees aforesaid. The President shall be a Member of all Committees, and the Secretary, unless the Council shall otherwise decide, shall act as Secretary to each Committee appointed as aforesaid.

30. Any Member of the Council may resign his office by notice in writing to the Secretary of such his desire, and upon the acceptance thereof by the Council he shall cease to hold his said office, but not until then.

31. The office of any Member of the Council, whether elected or ex-officio, shall be deemed to be vacated for any of the following reasons:—

(a) If any such Member ceases to be a Member of the Society, or his Membership thereof becomes suspended for any period, or determined as provided by the By-laws.

(b) If any such Member becomes bankrupt, or suspends payment, or compounds with, or makes an assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors.

(c) If any such Member becomes a lunatic or is declared of unsound mind.

32. Any vacancy in the elected Members of Council, from whatever cause occurring, between any two Annual General Meetings, shall be filled by the Council at a Council Meeting, at which not less than twelve Members of Council are present and vote. The Member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall retire at the time when the person in whose stead he is appointed would in due course have retired if the office held by him had not become vacant, but the Member appointed shall be eligible for re-election unless it be otherwise provided in the By-laws.

33. The Council shall appoint a Member as Honorary Treasurer of the Society, who shall, subject to the direction and control of the Council, receive and give receipts, and account for all subscriptions, fees, and other payments payable or due to or by the Society, and shall cause to be made, and shall, as occasion may require, submit to the Council a statement of the income and of current payments or expenditure which are, or ought to be, made by the Council, and shall prepare or cause to be prepared, in sufficient time to be submitted to the Annual General Meeting, a balance sheet showing the income and expenditure, and all liabilities and assets and investments of the Society for the year ending the thirty-first day of December prior to the said General Meeting, and as far as possible a general statement of the financial affairs of the Society for the year then current.

34. The Council shall appoint a Member as Honorary Foreign Secretary of the Society, who shall, subject to the direction and control of the Council, have the management of such correspondence of the Society with Departments of State or Corporate Bodies, Societies, or persons of or in foreign countries as occasion may require, and he shall report to the Council on all matters connected therewith or relating thereto.

35. The Treasurer and Foreign Secretary shall be appointed annually at the meeting of the Council at which the President and Vice-Presidents are nominated, and except when appointed to fill a casual vacancy, shall remain in office from the next ensuing Annual General Meeting after their respective appointments, until the Annual General Meeting next following, and during such period shall be ex-officio Members of the Council. Any casual vacancy in either of the said offices shall be filled by the Council as soon as may be after the occurrence of the vacancy, but the Member appointed to fill such casual vacancy shall retire at the next ensuing Annual General Meeting after his appointment, and either of the said offices shall be deemed to be vacated for any of the reasons provided by the By-laws for the vacation of office of Member of Council.

36. The Council shall appoint an officer who shall be "the Secretary of the Society of Chemical Industry" at such remuneration and subject to such terms and conditions as they may from time to time decide, and may in their discretion determine the appointment of any such Secretary, and appoint another Secretary.

37. The Council shall appoint an officer who shall be "the Editor of the Journal," at such remuneration as they may from time to time decide, and may in their discretion determine the appointment of any such Editor and appoint another Editor. The Editor appointed need not be a Member, but shall be responsible to the Council, and subject thereto, and to the directions of any Committees delegated by the Council to manage or conduct the preparation or publication of the Journal, shall have the conduct of the literary management and the preparation of all matter, the editing, and the printing and publication of the Journal, and the organisation, control, and direction of such literary or other staff as may be engaged on the Journal for the time being.

38. The Council may, except as otherwise provided by the Charter, make Regulations for carrying into effect the Charter and the By-laws, and for the general management of the affairs of the Society, but a regulation shall not become operative until confirmed by a resolution passed by a majority of the Members present at a General Meeting at which such regulation has been submitted for consideration, and notice of such intended submission shall be given in the notice for such General Meeting, and any regulations so confirmed may be altered, amended, or repealed after notice given as aforesaid at an ensuing General Meeting summoned for that purpose in manner provided by the By-laws.

39. Subject to other provisions of the By-laws relating thereto, all meetings of the Council, or of any committees appointed by them, whether as regards the time and place of meeting, notices thereof, the order, mode, or manner of conducting the business thereat, or any other matter or thing relating to such meetings, shall be respectively regulated in accordance with the Standing Orders for the time being of the Council or rules made applicable to the said committees, which Standing Orders and rules respectively the Council in their discretion from time to time are hereby empowered to make, alter, or vary.

PART IV.—LOCAL SECTIONS.

40. A Local Section may be formed by the Council, subject to the provisions in that behalf in the Charter, whenever thirty or more Members residing in or otherwise identified in interest with a place, locality, or district, whether situate within or without Great Britain or Ireland, make application in writing to the Council, signed by such Members, to cause a Local Register to be made for that purpose, and represent to the Council that the establishment of such Local Section will further more efficiently the objects of the Society. If the Council, upon consideration of such application consider that it would be expedient to form such Local Section, they may require the signatories to form a provisional committee, and to submit draft rules under which the business of the Local Section is intended to be managed and conducted, and may provisionally approve such draft rules with any modifications thereof which to the Council may seem requisite or desirable, and upon such provisional approval, to elect a committee and officers as hereinafter provided. Upon notice to the Council that such committee and officers have been elected at a meeting of any of the signatories and any other Members numbering in the whole not less than thirty, and that the draft rules approved by the Council as aforesaid have been adopted at such meeting, the Council shall allow the adopted rules as the rules of the said Local Section, and from the date of such allowance the said Local Section shall be deemed to be constituted in accordance with the Charter and By-laws.

41. Every Local Section to the formation of which the Council of the Society of 1881 or the Council had consented prior to and which remains in existence at the commencement of the By-laws, shall be deemed to be duly constituted, and may so remain and be continued subject to the By-laws, and as if it had come into existence thereunder.

42. The rules of every Local Section shall contain the following provisions :—

(i) That the business of the Local Section shall be conducted by a Committee chosen from Members on the Register of the Local Section, consisting of a Chairman, Honorary Secretary, and Ordinary Members of Committee as provided by Rules.

(ii) That any Member of the Society, whether resident at or otherwise interested in the place or locality where the Local Section is constituted, shall, upon application to the Honorary Secretary, be entitled to have his name entered upon the Register, and to become and remain a Member thereof upon payment of the annual sectional subscription, if any, for that and each succeeding year during which he remains a Member of the Local Section, without any entrance fee and without being elected.

For defraying the expenses of a Local Section, the Council may require that all Members thereof shall pay an annual sectional subscription not exceeding ten shillings, or the nearest monetary equivalent thereof when not payable in British coinage.

43. Amendments in, or alterations of, or additions to, the rules of a Local Section shall be submitted to the Council, and shall not become operative or of any effect unless and until they have been allowed by the Council, and notice of such allowance has been given by the Secretary.

44. The expenses of a Local Section shall be defrayed out of the annual sectional subscriptions of the Members of such Section, but the Council in its discretion may defray the whole or may make a grant in aid thereof out of the General Funds of the Society, and a Local Section shall not pay, or incur, any expenses except reasonable sums for the printing, stationery, advertising, reporting, and postage required for conducting the business, and the hire of rooms for meetings thereof without the previous sanction in writing of the Council, and an account of all expenses paid or incurred by a Local Section during the year preceding the thirtieth day of June, shall on or before the fifteenth day of November in each year be sent to the Council.

45. The Committee of a Local Section, in furtherance of the objects of the Society, may invite or receive communications from any person, whether a Member of the Society or not, upon any subject coming within the scope of the said objects, and such communications may be made by the reading of an essay or paper, or the delivery of a lecture at a meeting of the Members of the Local Section, and every such communication shall, before or after such meeting, as the circumstances may require, be sent to the Council for their consideration, and the Council may in their discretion, subject to any condition or to any by-law or rule relating thereto, cause the same, with or without any discussion thereon, or any condensed abstract thereof, to be published in the Journal.

46. The Chairman and Honorary Secretary of every Local Section, duly constituted, shall become, and remain, during their respective terms of office ex-officio Members of the Council.

47. Neither the Committee of a Local Section nor any meeting thereof shall cause to be published, or authorize or countenance the publication of any notice or other communication, whether printed or otherwise, upon any matter or subject whatsoever, either in the name of the Society or in the name of the said Committee or Section, to the general public, but all such notices or communications necessary or desirable to be made, and all correspondence and communications between a local Section and any corporate or public body or other Society, except it relate wholly to the ordinary business of such Local Section, shall be conducted through or shall be subject to the express sanction of the Council.

48. The Council may, at a special meeting called for that purpose, declare by resolution that a Local Section shall be suspended in operation, or shall be dissolved :—

(a) If it shall appear that the further continuance of the Section is not in accord with or conducive to the interests of the Society, or the furtherance of its objects.

(b) Whenever three-fourths of the Members of the Local Section vote in favour of a resolution, proposed at a meeting called for the express purpose, that it is desirable such Section shall be suspended or dissolved.

PART V.—THE JOURNAL.

49. The Journal shall be under the sole conduct and management in all respects of the Council, but they may at any time, subject to any rules and regulations made by them in reference thereto, appoint from amongst the Members any Committees which seem to them desirable to assist in such conduct or management, and subject as aforesaid, shall be at liberty to delegate any of their duties or functions as regards the Journal to any such Committee. The Council may also, in addition to the Editor, appoint upon and subject to such terms, and at such reasonable remuneration as they may decide, any contributors, sub-editors, abstractors, or other person to assist in the compilation, preparation, and publication of the Journal, any of whom may or may not be Members.

50. It shall be a condition of acceptance of every communication made to any meeting of the Society, or of a Local Section, or submitted to the Council for publication in the Journal, whether made by a Member or not, that, unless there shall have been a previous agreement to the contrary, the Society shall thereby become entitled to a prior right of publication thereof, in whatever form the Council decide to make such publication in the Journal, for three months after its acceptance, and if the person by whom the communication is intended to be made is not a Member, he shall be informed of this condition by notice in writing from the Secretary, or the Honorary Secretary of the Local Section.

51. The Council shall cause the Journal to be published and sent to the Members at least once in every month, upon such dates as they may think fit, and they may sell, or present gratuitously, or exchange copies, or any part thereof to or with any State or public department, or any institution, library, society, corporate body, company, or person whatsoever.

52. Nothing shall be printed or published in the Journal the printing and publication whereof has not been authorised by the Council, or any Committee appointed by them, subject to the By-laws, and acting in such respect for and on behalf of the Council, but the Council or such Committee may authorize the printing and publication of any matter or thing coming within or relating to the objects of the Society, and the proceedings thereof or communications thereto, or of or to any Local Section, in such manner as they may determine, and may also accept and publish for payment any advertisements of which they may not disapprove, and all payments made therefor, or for any copies of the Journal sold as aforesaid, shall be credited to the cost of preparing, editing, printing, publishing, and distributing the Journal.

PART VI.—FINANCIAL.

53. The administration of the Funds, and of all financial matters of or relating to the Society, shall be conducted and managed by the Council, who shall act as a general Committee of Finance but they may delegate any of their duties or functions in respect thereof to Committees composed of Members of and appointed by the Council, subject to the Standing Orders thereof, and such Committees shall act only subject to the control of the Council, and of any rules made by them in that behalf.

54. The Council shall receive and consider and may adopt the Annual Balance Sheet and General Financial Statement submitted by the Treasurer, and the report of the Auditors thereon, as provided by the By-laws, and shall, whether adopted or not, cause the Balance Sheet Statement, and Report aforesaid to be printed and sent to all the Members as a notice under the By-laws, and such notice shall be sent not later than the thirtieth day of June in every year.

55. The Council shall, at each Ordinary Meeting thereof, receive, consider, and determine upon the reports of all committees appointed by them upon all matters whatsoever of or relating to the finances of the Society, and shall receive and consider, and may adopt the statement prepared by the Treasurer, as provided by the By-laws, and shall authorize all payments amounting to five pounds and upwards which are or ought to be made, and the cheques to be drawn therefor, and may or shall do and perform all other acts and things relating to the financial administration of the Society which by the Charter or By-laws they have authority or are required to do at such meeting.

56. All moneys due or payable to the Society shall be paid to and received by the Treasurer, or other person in that behalf appointed by the Council, and a receipt for every such payment shall be given in the name of the Society by the said Treasurer or other person. All moneys received as aforesaid shall be paid forthwith into the account of the Society kept at such bankers as may for the time being be appointed by the Council to be the bankers of the Society, and no sum of money payable on account of the Society amounting to five pounds and upwards shall be paid except by a cheque authorized to be drawn on the said account by the Council, and every such cheque shall be signed by two members of the Council and countersigned by the Secretary.

57. Notwithstanding anything contained in the By-laws, the Council may at any time, in the exercise of their discretion, borrow money temporarily, and may pay interest thereon, and may charge the property, assets, and investments of the Society, so far as they are enabled lawfully so to do, for the repayment and payment of such borrowed money and interest respectively.

58. All entrance fees and life compositions, and all donations, bequests, and endowments, unless given subject to any other condition, or otherwise provided by any Deed of Trust relating thereto, shall, and all funds of the Society not needed immediately for the ordinary purposes thereof may be invested in the name of the Society or in the names of three Members of the Society who shall not be Members of the Council in any securities in which Trustees are from time to time authorized to invest by virtue of the Trustee Act, 1893, or any subsisting statutory modification thereof, with power, upon the authority and by the direction of the Council, from time to time to sell or vary such securities, and the Council may also from time to time place money on deposit with the bankers of the Society.

59. The Members present at the Annual General Meeting shall elect as Auditor of the Society, at such remuneration as the meeting shall determine, an Accountant who shall be a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, or a firm of Accountants the partners whereof are members of the said Institute, and the person or firm so elected shall, on election, become and remain the Auditor of the Society until the next Annual General Meeting, and shall then cease to be Auditor unless re-elected at such General Meeting.
