At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and of the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two and of the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices situate within the metropolis, and within the county of Kent and the diocese of Southwark, namely, the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Luke, Charlton, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Paul, Charlton, and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

“Whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Southwark, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals were prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the firstly mentioned Act and were approved by the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Southwark, and were assented to by the patron of the two benefices to be affected thereby, that is to say, by Sir Spencer Pocklington Maryon-Maryon-Wilson, Baronet, of Eastbourne, and the same proposals were also assented to by the vestries of the parishes concerned, that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Luke, Charlton, and by the vestry of the new parish of Saint Paul, Charlton.

“And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter contained should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Southwark, as such Bishop, and the said Spencer Pocklington Maryon-Maryon-Wilson, as the patron of the said two benefices and the vestries of the said parishes respectively are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly, but otherwise is based upon the said proposals.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Spencer Pocklington Maryon-Maryon-Wilson (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and seal) and with the consents of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Luke, Charlton, and of the vestry of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Charlton (in testimony of which consents this scheme is signed in the case of each of the said vestries by the chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned, as follows:—

“PART I.

“As to the proposed union itself, and certain immediate incidents thereof, we recommend and propose:—

“1. That the said benefice of Saint Luke, Charlton, and the said benefice of Saint Paul, Charlton, be united into one benefice under the style of ‘The Rectory of Saint Luke with Saint Paul, Old Charlton,’ which said united benefice is hereinafter called ‘the united benefice.’

“2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said benefices shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect, and if one only shall be then vacant the said union shall also forthwith take effect if the Incumbent of the other of the said benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of his benefice, and the then Incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall be the first Incumbent of the united benefice, and in any case it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the said diocese of Southwark to admit to the united benefice such first Incumbent (if an Incumbent for the time being of either of the said benefices) without any form or fee of or for presentation and he shall thereupon become Incumbent of the united benefice. Until the time of the union taking effect the said two benefices shall remain separate and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof and of the Incumbents of each of them shall remain unaffected.

“PART II.

“As to the parish church of the united benefice and the church of Saint Paul, Charlton, and certain matters connected therewith we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

“1. That upon the union taking effect the church of Saint Luke, Charlton, shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"2. That upon the union taking effect the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united parish.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the register books of baptisms marriages and burials of the parish of Saint Luke, Charlton, and of the new parish of Saint Paul, Charlton, shall be placed in the custody of the Incumbent of the united benefice and shall so continue.

"PART III.

"As to the endowments of the united benefice we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect all the properties, revenues and income constituting the endowments of the rectory of Saint Luke, Charlton, and of the rectory of Saint Paul, Charlton (other than the present parsonage house of the rectory of Saint Luke, Charlton and the grounds appurtenant thereto or heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith) shall be transferred and annexed to the united benefice.

"2. The Incumbent for the time being of the united benefice shall out of the endowments and income so transferred pay a stipend of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum to an assistant curate to be duly licensed by the bishop to perform the office of stipendiary curate in the united parish.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the present parsonage house of the rectory of Saint Paul, Charlton, shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice.

"PART IV.

"Upon the subject of patronage, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose:—

"That the patronage of the united benefice shall be vested in the said Spencer Pocklington Maryon Maryon-Wilson his heirs and assigns.

"PART V.

"As to the present parsonage house of the rectory of Saint Luke, Charlton, and the site and appurtenances thereof, and as to the proceeds of any sale or sales thereof, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose:—

"1. That so soon as conveniently may be after the union has taken effect the present parsonage house of Saint Luke, Charlton, and the site and the appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

"2. That the net proceeds to arise from such sale shall form one aggregate fund and shall be applied as follows, and in the following order, that is to say:—

"(a) That we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall out of such aggregate fund first set apart a capital sum not exceeding two thousand pounds for or towards the acquisition of a suitable site for and the erection of or otherwise for the provision of a parsonage house for a new district to be constituted wholly or in part out of the united parish but until the said capital sum shall be so applied the interest thereon shall be applied towards the payment of the sum of one hundred pounds per annum next hereinafter mentioned if required for that purpose and if not so required shall be added to and applied as the income of the residue of the said aggregate fund.

"(b) That we shall out of such aggregate fund (if it shall suffice) next set apart a capital sum the interest whereon shall amount to one hundred pounds per annum and such interest shall be paid by way of additional income to the Incumbent of the united benefice so long as there shall be payable to the Reverend Charles Swainson, late rector of Saint Luke, Charlton, the pension assigned to him out of the revenues of the said benefice upon his retirement therefrom under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts and when such pension shall cease to be payable the sum so set aside shall fall into and form part of the residue of the said aggregate fund and shall be applied as such residue is hereinafter directed to be applied.

"(c) That we shall apply the residue of the said aggregate fund for the endowment or augmentation of the income of the minister or Incumbent of the new district for the provision of a parsonage house for which the sum of two thousand pounds is to be set aside as aforesaid."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an order of the High Court of Chancery, dated the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, confirming a scheme for the future application of the income of the trust property of the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield, in the said county of York, and of an order of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, dated the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in partial variation of the scheme established by the said first mentioned order, the said Burgesses and Commonalty have proposed to appropriate the sum of two hundred pounds per annum out of that part of the income of their trust property which is applicable to ecclesiastical purposes in and towards the endowment of the district herein proposed to be constituted.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have signified by a writing bearing date the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, under our common seal our approval of and consent to the proposed endowment of the said proposed district.

"And whereas the said endowment of two hundred pounds per annum has been so appropriated as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned to the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of Sheffield aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Timothy, Crookes.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be vested in and shall be exercised by the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield and their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Timothy, Crookes, being all that part of the particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which is bounded upon a small part of the south by the consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Ranmoor, upon the west by the new parish of Christ Church, Fulwood, upon the north-west by the new parish of Stannington, upon the north and upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mary, Walkley, upon the east by the new parish of Saint Philip, Sheffield, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining part of the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Sheffield, from the said particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, at the junction of Heavy Gate-road with Springvale-road, and extending thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of Springvale-road for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Crookes, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road called Crookes for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Toftwood-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Toftwood-road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bole Hill-lane, and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of Bole Hill-lane for a distance of twenty chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Bole Hill-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Bole Hill-road for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Hagg-lane, and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the middle of Hagg-lane for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Ranmoor."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act been transmitted to the three Patrons and to the Incumbent of the particular district of Saint Thomas, Crookes, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and one of the said Patrons and the Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the second of the said Patrons has offered certain objections to the same scheme and the remaining Patron has not signified his assent thereto.

And whereas one calendar month has expired since the date of the transmission of such drafts as aforesaid.

And whereas, notwithstanding these objections, the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-one of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "that when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a "separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons."

And whereas by section twenty-three of the aforesaid Act it is further enacted "that whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act, whether the Order for disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to, or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to His Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, hath represented in a writing dated the eleventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, do hereby represent to your Grace that the disunion of the united rectory of Anmer and vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham, in the county of Norfolk and my diocese of Norwich, by the separation of the said rectory of Anmer from the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham may be made with advantage to the interests of religion."

And whereas on the twenty-third day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the said Archbishop inquired into the circumstances of the case.

And whereas on the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the said Archbishop certified to His Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Norwich, as Bishop of the diocese in which is situate the united benefice consisting of the rectory of Anmer and the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Anmer from the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might usefully be dissolved, and that Your Most Gracious Majesty being the Patron or person entitled as part of Your private estates to present and nominate to the rectory of Anmer with the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham, the same being now vacant, consents to the proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer doors of each of the parish churches of Anmer and Flitcham, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent in writing of Your Majesty, and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Anmer from the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham, so as to constitute each of them a separate benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and in accordance with the statement of circumstances above referred to we recommend that each benefice shall retain its own endowments and emoluments.

"Randall Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice, consisting of the rectory of Anmer and the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham, situate in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Anmer from the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Flitcham.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, with the consent in writing of His Most Gracious Majesty as Patron of the said benefices, to assign and attach to each of such benefices respectively its own original endowments and emoluments, and to direct that each benefice shall bear its own charges and outgoings.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by section eight of the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by

"the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Right Honourable Robert Threshie Baron Loreburn, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, being the Patron or person entitled on behalf of the Crown to present to the said benefice (being a vicarage) of Aston Blank, alias Cold Aston, if the same were now vacant, and being also the Patron or person entitled on behalf of the Crown to present to the said benefice (being a rectory) of Notgrove, the same being now vacant, have consented to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no sufficient cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Gloucester, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the Patron and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"Randall Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Aston Blank, alias Cold Aston, situate in the county and diocese of Gloucester, and the rectory of Notgrove, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

System of Typhoon Signals Established.

Subject.—A system of typhoon warning signals has been established in Japan, as undermentioned.

Signals.—By day, the signals are made from a mast with yard by means of shapes, coloured red, used as symbols, having numbers corresponding to them as follows:—

The lowest shows the probable progress of the storm centre, see Table II, given below.
- 2 shapes at the other yardarm, placed vertically. { The upper one indicates the velocity with which the storm centre is moving; the lower one, the barometric pressure of the depression for the time being, according to the values given in Table II.
- 1 shape at the masthead .. { Indicates the time for which the position of the storm centre is given.
