TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1908.

*Scottish Office, Whitehall,
September 30, 1908.*

The following Addresses were presented to the King on the occasion of His Majesty's visit to Dunblane on the 28th instant, by the Subscribers to the Queen Victoria School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers, and the Town Council of Dunblane, and His Majesty was pleased to reply to the Authorities presenting the Addresses in the terms set forth below in each case:—

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE QUEEN VICTORIA SCHOOL.

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Subscribers to the Queen Victoria School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your loyal and devoted subjects here assembled, desire to congratulate Your Majesty upon Your return from abroad in renewed health.

We thank Your Majesty for Your gracious presence here to-day. We ask You graciously to receive at our hands, in order that they may be taken over by the authorities constituted by Your Royal Warrant, the buildings of the School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers. These buildings have been erected by public subscription in memory of the conspicuously prosperous and glorious reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria whose affection for Scotland and for the Scottish people was whole-hearted and sincere, and was manifested on many occasions and in many ways during Her long and illustrious life.

We further invite Your Majesty to lay the foundation stone of a Chapel in connection with the School erected in memory of the Scottish Sailors and Soldiers who fell in action or died from wounds received in the late South African War. The Naval and Military Forces of the Empire are ever a matter of interest and concern to Your Majesty, and we feel that Your presence on this occasion will serve to mark all the appreciation which this National Tribute is designed to show for the great deeds done and noble services rendered by our fallen Countrymen.

For and in name of the Subscribers,

Rosebery,

President of the Council.

P. D. Trotter,

Chairman of the Executive Committee.

R. Addison Smith,

Honorary Treasurer and Secretary.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily for your loyal and dutiful Address of welcome.

The object of My visit cannot but excite My deep interest. You could not better have honoured the memory of the dead who lived worthily, than in founding this Institution, of which the purpose is to prepare succeeding generations for the duties and proper conduct of life. I rejoice in the association of this School with the name of Queen Victoria, My beloved and ever-lamented Mother.

I rejoice also that you have chosen to found an Institution with the especial object of providing for the sons of My Scottish sailors and soldiers for whose interests I have ever been warmly concerned. As their fathers served the State, so also I pray that the children may grow up under the shelter of these buildings to be useful in their station and calling.

In laying the foundation stone of the chapel of this School I am glad to be able to honour once more the memory of those who died in the late South African war.

You may feel assured of My constant interest in the work of this Institution.

BURGH OF DUNBLANE.

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Burgh of Dunblane in our corporate capacity and in name of the community we represent, beg respectfully to bid Your Majesty a most hearty welcome to our Ancient City, and to assure You of the loyalty and devotion of the community to Your Majesty's Crown and Person.

It is with deep thankfulness and pride that Your subjects observe the readiness which Your Majesty ever evinces to advance every object tending to promote their best interests, and especially the gracious solicitude manifested for the comfort and happiness of those suffering from misfortune.

When Your Majesty signified Your gracious intention to open the Queen Victoria Memorial School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers at Dunblane, it was hailed with the liveliest satisfaction by the whole community. We recognise and most highly appreciate Your Majesty's condescension in so readily agreeing to undertake a long and fatiguing journey in connection therewith.

We pray that Your Majesty may be spared for many years to reign over a loyal and contented people.

Signed in our name and by our authority and sealed with the corporate seal of the Burgh this twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

*John Murray, Provost.
D. T. Reid, Town Clerk.*

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives Me great pleasure to be here to-day and to receive your loyal Address of welcome to your Ancient Town.

I am glad to observe the enthusiasm which you manifest towards the object of My visit. The affection entertained by Queen Victoria, My revered Mother, for the Scottish people was deep and sincere and the School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers which I am opening to-day in Her Memory, is a fitting memorial of Her affection.

I wish every prosperity to the community of which you are the chosen representatives.

The following Address was also presented to the King by the Town Councils of Blairgowrie and Rattray on the same occasion:—

BURGHS OF BLAIRGOWRIE AND RATTRAY.

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Provosts, Magistrates and Councillors of the Burghs of Blairgowrie and Rattray, representing the inhabitants of these Burghs, humbly approach Your Majesty on the occasion of Your passing through to-day to express our loyalty to Your Person and to the Throne.

We congratulate Your Majesty on Your devotion to the welfare of Your subjects and on the ardent love and affection in which You are regarded by them.

We trust You and Your Royal Consort may be long spared to reign over a united people and Empire and that Your Majesty may continue to promote, as You have done in the past, the peace of the nations.

Signed in name and by authority of the Provosts, Magistrates and Councillors of the Burghs of Blairgowrie and Rattray, this 28th day of September, 1908.

*John Smith, Provost of Blairgowrie.
Jno. B. Miller, Town Clerk.
Allan Proctor, Provost of Rattray.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am much gratified by the warm expression of your affectionate loyalty to Our Throne and Person.

The following Address was also presented to the King by the Town Council of Coupar Angus, on the same occasion:—

BURGH OF COUPAR ANGUS.

The Humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Coupar Angus.

Unto The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Coupar Angus, and for and on behalf of our Constituents, embrace the opportunity of Your passing here to cordially assure Your Majesty of the affection and loyal allegiance entertained towards Your Majesty's Person, Throne, and Government.

In common with all Your Majesty's subjects we rejoice at the unceasing interest which Your Majesty always manifests in all matters that concern the welfare of the Nation both in society and in Government matters.

We gratefully recognise the powerful influence exercised by Your Majesty in the maintenance of peace and goodwill among the Nations, and in the promotion and furthering of every good and worthy cause.

We humbly pray that Your Majesty and Your Illustrious Consort may long be spared in health, happiness, and prosperity to reign over a loyal, affectionate, and contented people.

Signed in name and on behalf of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Coupar Angus, and sealed with the Common Seal of the Burgh, this twenty-eighth day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

*James Dron, Provost.
R. Watson, Town Clerk.*

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I have much satisfaction in receiving the dutiful Address which you present to Me on behalf of the inhabitants of the Burgh of Coupar Angus, and I thank you most heartily for your valued expressions of good will towards the Queen and Myself.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of September, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries within the archdeaconries of Surrey and Winchester in the diocese of Winchester.

“Whereas there are within the said diocese of Winchester three archdeaconries, to wit, the said archdeaconry of Surrey, the said archdeaconry of Winchester, and the archdeaconry of the Isle of Wight.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has represented to us that it is desirable to make certain new arrangements (being the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed) with respect to some of the rural deaneries within the said archdeaconries of Surrey and Winchester.

“And whereas the existing area of the said archdeaconry of Surrey, and of the rural deaneries therein, was set forth in the schedule annexed to an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eighteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight and published in the London Gazette on the seventh day of the following month.

“And whereas the existing area of the said archdeaconry of Winchester was set forth in the schedule annexed to an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of August in the year one thousand nine hundred and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month.

“And whereas we are of opinion that the new arrangements now proposed by the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, may properly be carried into effect.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he hath to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order a new rural deanery to be named ‘The Rural Deanery of Ringwood’ shall be constituted in the said archdeaconry of Winchester, that each of the said archdeaconries of Surrey and Winchester shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries, the names of which are set down in order under its name and are numbered consecutively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, that the name which in such schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any rural deanery in the first column of the said schedule shall belong to and be a part of the rural deanery and of the archdeaconry under the name of which it so appears as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean and Archdeacon thereof and shall not any longer belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery or of any other archdeaconry or be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Rural Dean or of any other Archdeacon.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a share or portion of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure of Dedham (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice is vested in Your Majesty in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster.

"And whereas in the parish church of the said benefice there is an endowed office of Lecturer held under the charity called the Dedham Lectureship in the said parish of Dedham, a charity regulated by schemes of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales dated the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the twenty-first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and the twenty-ninth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and the present holder of the said office of Lecturer is the Reverend Hamilton Ashwin.

"And whereas by the last above-mentioned scheme of the said Charity Commissioners being that bearing date the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eight it is provided (subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned) that as from the day upon which the present holder of the said office of Lecturer shall cease to hold such office the said lectureship shall be held by the Vicar for the time being of the said parish of Dedham who shall be entitled to receive for his own use the whole of the income arising from the endowments of the said lectureship upon condition, nevertheless, first that the said Vicar shall, if and when and for so long as the Bishop of the diocese shall so require, provide an Assistant-Curate for the said parish and secondly that the trustees of the said charity shall, as from the same day, have the right of presentation to the said benefice for the next following turn and for every alternate turn thenceforward.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Hartley, Viscount Wolverhampton, now Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, and acting as such Chancellor on behalf of Your Majesty as Patron of the said benefice as aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions of the before-mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, has signified to us his desire with a view to bringing into operation the provisions of the said last-mentioned conditional scheme of the Charity Commissioners that as from the day upon which the present holder of the said office of Lecturer in the parish church of Dedham aforesaid shall cease to hold that office, the right of presentation to the said benefice for the next following turn and for every alternate turn thenceforward for ever (being a share or portion of the advowson of the said benefice now vested as aforesaid in Your Majesty in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster) shall be transferred to and be vested in the trustees of the said charity called the Dedham Lectureship.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of Saint Albans, as Bishop of the diocese wherein the said benefice is situate is consenting to such transfer of the said share or portion of the advowson of the said benefice and in token of such consent has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed of the share or portion above described of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice will in the circumstances above set forth in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district (that is to say, the parish of Dedham aforesaid) in or in respect of which the said right of patronage or advowson arises or exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Hartley, Viscount Wolverhampton, as Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Frank, Bishop of Colchester; Charles Alfred Jones, of Dedham, Clerk in Holy Orders, Frederick George Given-Wilson, of Dedham, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Right Honourable James Round, of Birch, a Member of Your Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, James Dyer Tremlett, of Dedham, Esquire, William Tinning, of Dedham, Gentleman, William Wilkins Hewitt, of Dedham, Gentleman, and William Deason, of Dedham, Gentleman, being the trustees (hereinafter called 'the said trustees') of the said charity called the Dedham Lectureship (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day upon which the Reverend Hamilton Ashwin shall cease to be the holder of the aforesaid office of Lecturer in the parish church of Dedham under the said charity called the Dedham Lectureship and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same the right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice upon the next following vacancy thereof and thenceforward upon every alternate vacancy thereof for ever (being a share or portion of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice now vested in Your Majesty as aforesaid) shall be transferred to the said trustees and their successors trustees of the said charity called the Dedham Lectureship and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said trustees and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Samuel Taylor Chadwick, of Haulfre, Beaumaris, in the county of Anglesey, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Samuel Taylor Chadwick is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Bangor.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Watkin Herbert, now Bishop of Bangor, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Llangoed with the chapelries of Llanfihangel Din Sylwy and Llaniestyn annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Samuel Taylor Chadwick (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llangoed with the chapelries of Llanfihangel Din Sylwy and Llaniestyn annexed now vested in him, the said Samuel Taylor Chadwick, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And whereas the said capital sums amounting in the aggregate to four thousand pounds sterling were so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us expedient) the whole right of patronage of each of the said districts and new parishes and of the nomination or presentation of the Vicar or Incumbent thereto should be assigned to the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors Bishops of Wakefield, in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the assignment of the patronage and right of nomination and presentation of and to each of the said districts and new parishes which has been proposed to us as aforesaid may properly be effected.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of each of the said districts and new parishes and of the nomination or presentation of the Vicar or Incumbent thereto shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and of the new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, both in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three a chapelry district was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate in the parish or parochial chapelry of All Saints, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the said county of Northumberland, and at that time in the diocese of Durham, but now in the said diocese of Newcastle, and the said chapelry district is hereinafter named 'The Chapelry District of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-third day of the same month, a separate district for spiritual purposes was constituted out of the new parish of Byker in the said county of Northumberland and at that time in the said diocese of Durham but now in the said diocese of Newcastle, and such district was named 'The District of Saint Anthony, Byker.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the said district of Saint Anthony, Byker, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the said new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Norman Dumenil John, Bishop of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the said new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dis severed from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dis severed from the new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Anne, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the said county and diocese, being all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Anthony, Byker, which is comprised within the ancient township or civil parish of All Saints, Newcastle-upon-Tyne."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

(a.) Property held by the deceased as trustee for another person under a disposition not made by the deceased.

(b.) Property held by the deceased as trustee for another person under a disposition made by the deceased more than twelve months before his death, where possession and enjoyment of the property was bonâ fide assumed by the beneficiary immediately upon the creation of the trust and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the deceased or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise.

(c.) Property passing on the death of the deceased by reason only of a bonâ fide purchase from the person under whose disposition the property passes, or the falling into possession of the reversion on any lease for lives, or the determination of any annuity for lives, where such purchase was made, or such lease or annuity granted for full consideration in money or money's worth paid to the vendor or grantor for his own use or benefit, or in the case of a lease, for the use or benefit of any person for whom the grantor was a trustee:

Provided that where any such purchase was made or lease or annuity granted for partial consideration in money or money's worth paid to the vendor or grantor for his own use or benefit, or in the case of a lease for the use or benefit of any person for whom the grantor was a trustee, the property passing shall be included in the affidavit accompanying the application for probate or letters of administration, but the value of the consideration shall be allowed as a deduction from the value of the property.

8. In arriving at the value of the estate, an allowance shall be made for debts and incumbrances due to persons resident within the limits of the principal Order and for reasonable funeral expenses, but an allowance shall not be made—

(a.) For debts incurred by the deceased or incumbrances created by a disposition made by the deceased, unless such debts or incumbrances were incurred or created bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth wholly for the deceased's own use and benefit and take effect out of his interest; nor

(b.) For any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained; nor

(c.) More than once for the same debt or incumbrance charged upon different portions of the estate.

9. In any case where it thinks fit the Court may require any person subject to its jurisdiction to give such information, either by affidavit or otherwise, as may be in his power touching the property of the deceased within its jurisdiction, or may direct such inquiries on the subject as it think fit, and the information or report so received shall be deemed to be a portion of the affidavit of the applicant for probate or letters of administration.

10. The fee or fees to be paid on the issue of a grant of probate or letters of administration after the commencement of this Order shall be determined by Rules of Court made in accordance with the powers contained in the principal Order.

11. If a grant of probate or letters of administration comprises property which is settled or is the subject of or is required to pay a legacy, so much of the fees paid on the issue of the said grant as represents the fees on such settled property or legacy shall (unless the will contains an express provision to the contrary) be payable out of the settled property or legacy.

12. Every grant of probate or letters of administration made after the commencement of this Order shall bear a certificate in writing under the hand of the proper officer of the Court, stating the amount of the fee that has been paid, together with gross value of the estate and the deductions therefrom; and no such grant shall be issued until all the proper fees have been duly paid.

13. Where a further affidavit is sworn under Article 5 (2), and the Court is satisfied either that a larger fee should have been paid on the issue of a grant of probate or letters of administration than was paid, or that the fee paid was in excess of the proper amount, it may direct the applicant to pay such further fee as may be due, or may direct such sum to be repaid to the applicant as may seem just, and the certificate in writing under Article 12 shall be amended accordingly.

14. Where the Court has power to seal a grant of probate or letters of administration or confirmation issued by a Court of Probate in the United Kingdom, or in any British possession to which the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, for the time being extends, this power shall not be exercised unless an application is made to the Court for that purpose, accompanied by a statement similar to the affidavit required by Article 5 (1) of this Order, and the provisions of this Order shall apply, and fees shall be paid on such sealing, as if it were an application for and the issue of a grant of probate.

15. Article 106, Sub-Article 2 of the China and Corea Order in Council, 1904, is hereby repealed.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of September, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS two-thirds of the Council of the county borough of Huddersfield on the fifteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight, agreed to petition, and the Council of the said borough thereupon petitioned His Majesty for an alteration of the number and boundaries of the wards of the said borough;

And whereas His Majesty has been pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council and in pursuance and in exercise of the powers vested in His Majesty by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882," to fix the number of wards into which the county borough of Huddersfield shall be divided, and to order and direct that the said borough shall thenceforth be divided into fifteen wards, which Order was made on the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eight;

And whereas on the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year last aforesaid, the Right Honourable Herbert John Gladstone, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did duly warrant and appoint me, Samuel Pope, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, a Commissioner, to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of such wards and for apportioning the Councillors of the said borough among such wards.

And where in the following descriptions of the ward boundaries (so far as such descriptions do not refer to the borough boundary) a street, road, footpath or fence is given as the boundary of a ward, the boundary is to be taken as the centre of such street, road, footpath or fence, and where any street or road is described as joining another street or road, the point of junction is to be taken as the point at which lines drawn along the centres of the two streets or roads, and continued, would intersect each other, and a point described as being opposite a street or road is to be taken as opposite the centre of the street or road.

And where a river or stream is given as the boundary of a ward, the boundary (except where it refers to the borough boundary) is to be taken as the medium filum of such river or stream.
