TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1908.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1908.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Bobbing, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bobbing is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Henry George Hilton, of Osmington House, Hernes-road, Oxford, in the county of Oxford, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“And whereas the said Henry George Hilton is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bobbing now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, now Archbishop of Canterbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Bobbing which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of the funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Bobbing.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry George Hilton (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bobbing now vested in him, the said Henry George Hilton, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Foleshill, of the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and of the said parish of Exhall should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Longford as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Huiyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Robert Threshie, Baron Loreburn, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron as well of the vicarage of the said parish of Foleshill as of the vicarage of the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Jane, Dowager Countess of Aylesford, of Offchurch Bury, Leamington Spa, in the said county of Warwick, as the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Exhall (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Foleshill, the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and the said parish of Exhall, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Longford as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Longford.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect; and such Order being registered in the registry of the diocese, which the registrar is hereby required to do, shall be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever including the Incumbent or Incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected thereby, if he shall have consented thereto in writing under his or their hands, but if such Incumbent or Incumbents shall not have so consented thereto the Order shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the Incumbent objecting to the alteration, or by the surviving Incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the Order shall forthwith, after such avoidance, become binding on all persons whatsoever."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Finance Act, 1908, it is enacted that as from a date to be fixed by Order in Council under section six of that Act the power to levy the duties on Local Taxation licences to which that section applies shall be transferred in England and Wales to County Councils:

And whereas the licences to which that section applies are the following namely, licences to deal in game; and licences for dogs, killing game, guns, carriages (including duties charged under sub-section (1) of section eight of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896), armorial bearings and male servants:

And whereas it is further enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council fix the date of the transfer under that section, and make any such further provisions as it appears necessary or expedient to make in order to give full effect to the transfer and may make provision for the furnishing by County Councils of returns to the Local Government Board as to the amounts levied under the power transferred by that section:

And whereas it is further enacted that the transfer under that section shall not affect any equitable adjustment respecting the distribution of the proceeds of the Local Taxation licences made under the Local Government Act, 1888, or otherwise, but that provision may be made by Order in Council under that section for any alteration which it appears necessary or expedient to make in consequence of the transfer in the procedure for making any payments, or otherwise giving effect to any such adjustment:

And whereas it is further enacted that sub-sections (3) (4) and (5) of section twenty of the Local Government Act, 1888, and any other provisions of that Act relating to the levy of the duties on local taxation licences by County Councils, shall, as respects the duties to which the said section six applies, have effect as if the power to levy those duties had been transferred under sub-section (3) of section twenty of that Act:

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (3) of section twenty of the Local Government Act, 1888, subject to certain limitations mentioned in sub-section (4) of that section, that His Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (hereinafter referred to as "the Treasury") transfer to County Councils as from the date specified in the Order the power to levy the duties on all or any of the local taxation licences specified in the First Schedule to that Act, and that after such date every County Council and their officers shall (subject nevertheless to any exceptions and modifications contained in the Order) have within their county for the purpose of levying the duties transferred the same powers, duties and liabilities as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and their officers have with respect to the duties transferred, and to the issue and cancellation of licences on which the duties are imposed, and other matters under the Acts relating to those duties and licences, and all enactments relating to those duties and licences and to punishments and penalties connected therewith shall apply accordingly.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in him by the said recited enactments, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the transfer specified in sub-section (1) of section six of the Finance Act, 1908, shall take place as from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and that the transfer shall be subject to the exceptions and modifications hereinafter contained.

And His Majesty in further exercise of the powers vested in him by the said recited enactments, and in order to give effect to the transfer under the said section, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to make the provisions hereinafter specified.

I. Subject to the exceptions and modifications hereinafter stated, every County Council shall have within its County all powers and duties now vested in the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for carrying into execution every enactment relating to the duties on the licences to which section six of the Finance Act, 1908, applies, and shall not in the exercise of their powers and duties under this Order be subject to the authority, direction or control of the Treasury.

II. The forms of licence now provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in connexion with the duties on the licences to which section six of the Finance Act, 1908, applies, and the forms of certificate of exemption from duty in respect of dogs, and also the forms of declaration and notice required under the Revenue Act, 1869, shall, with the adaptations necessary to be made to meet the altered circumstances, continue to be used, unless and until the Treasury shall prescribe some other form of licence, certificate of exemption, declaration or notice, and thereafter the forms so prescribed shall be used.

III. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall print and provide the forms of licences and also the forms of certificate of exemption from duty in respect of dogs and of any declaration, notice and book of account required by law in relation to any of such licences or certificates.

IV. No such licences shall be issued in England and Wales except by such Officers of the Post Office as are authorized by the Postmaster-General, who shall have regard to the requirements of sub-section 5 (a) of section twenty of the Local Government Act, 1888.

V. The Postmaster-General shall pay to the Council of each County the amount of the duties received by him in respect of the licences issued at Post Offices within the County at such convenient times as may be arranged by him with the Local Government Board, and shall from time to time certify to that Board the total amount of the duties collected in respect of each description of licence, and the amounts due to and paid by him to each County Council in respect of such licence duties. The Postmaster-General may, if he thinks fit, vary such certificate, but unless so varied his certificate shall be conclusive.

VI. The duty on any licence in respect of which an allowance and repayment is required to be made under the proviso to section twenty-three of the Revenue Act, 1869, shall be allowed and repaid by the Council of the County in which the further duty therein referred to is paid.

VII. Every County Council shall in each year make a return to the Local Government Board of the amount of any repayments of licence duty made by them in the preceding financial year and of the penalties (including any sum received where proceedings for recovery of a penalty have been stayed or compounded for) recovered in the preceding financial year in respect of the duties on the licences to which this Order applies; and the return shall be made at such times and in such form, and shall be verified in such manner as may be prescribed by that Board. The Local Government Board shall annually certify the amount of the repayments so made, and also the amount of the penalties received by the several County Councils in the last preceding financial year, which are to be carried to the same account as the duties on the licences, and may, if they think fit, vary such certificate, but unless so varied such certificate shall be conclusive.

VIII. If on the determination, according to any equitable adjustment, of the share of any county in the Estate Duty grant, the proceeds of the Local Taxation Licence Duties, and the sums which in pursuance of the Finance Act, 1907, are paid in lieu of those duties, and the Local Taxation (Customs and Excise) Duties, in respect of any financial year, it shall be found that the sum actually received in respect of that year by any County exceeds the share of that County, the amount of such excess shall be paid by the Council of that County to the Council of the County entitled to receive the same. In case of dispute as to the share of any Council according to any such adjustment in the said grant, duties, and sums, an appeal may be made to the Local Government Board, and the decision of that Board on any such appeal and on any matter or question which is in their judgment incident thereto or consequent thereon shall be final and conclusive.

IX. Every County Council may delegate to such of their Officers as they may select any of the powers and duties now exercised or performed by Officers of Inland Revenue, and any Officer so selected shall be subject to the same liabilities as an Officer of Inland Revenue.

X. Any person who is subject to any liability by reason of the failure to comply with any demand or request which may now be made by an Officer of Inland Revenue or by reason of obstructing, molesting or hindering an Officer of Inland Revenue, shall be subject to the same liability in the case of his failure to comply with a similar demand or request made by any Officer selected by a County Council, or in the case of his obstructing, molesting, or hindering an Officer so selected.

XI. The entry in writing which may be made under section twenty-eight of the Revenue Act, 1869, of premises used by a livery stable keeper or other person therein referred to, shall be delivered to the Clerk to the County Council for the county in which such premises are situated, or to such other Officer as the Council may appoint.

XII. The one half of the penalties imposed by the enactments relating to the duties upon licences for dogs which is, when recovered and enforced upon information of a police constable before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction in England and Wales, now payable to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, shall be paid to the Council of the county in which the penalty is recovered, and shall be dealt with by the County Council as in the case of penalties recovered by the Council in relation to the duties upon the licences to which this Order applies.

XIII. The Clerk to the Justices to whom application is made in England or Wales for a consent to the grant of a certificate of exemption from duty in respect of a dog shall, if the consent is granted, forward the declaration made by the applicant with the consent thereon to the Clerk to the Council of the County in which the applicant resides and it shall be the duty of the Council of that County to cause certificates of exemption to be issued and delivered. The list of applications which the Clerk to the Justices is now required to send to the Supervisor of Inland Revenue shall be sent to the Clerk to the County Council.

XIV. The registers of persons licensed to keep dogs or to carry guns, and the list of persons licensed to deal in game now required to be kept by the Officer of Inland Revenue who grants the licences shall be kept by the Clerk to the Council of the County in which the licences are issued.

XV. The power to recover the duties upon licences for armorial bearings, carriages, and male servants, by the issue of a levy warrant, and a warrant of commitment, shall not be exercised by a County Council or any of their Officers, and any person who, after delivery of a declaration relating to such duties and licences, shall not within the time prescribed in that behalf pay the duties appearing by such declaration to be payable by him shall be subject to the same liability as if he had not delivered a declaration.

XVI.—The notices to the public which the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are required by section seven of the Dog Licences Act, 1867, and by section twenty of the Revenue Act, 1869, to cause to be placed and kept affixed upon or near to the door of every church in Great Britain, may in any County in England or Wales be placed and kept affixed in such other places ordinarily made use of for posting public or parochial notices as the Council of the County may think desirable for the purpose of giving notice to all persons interested.

XVII. The expressions "County," "County Council," and "Clerk to the County Council," in this Order respectively include a County Borough, the Council of a County Borough, and the Town Clerk of a County Borough.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 393 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is (amongst other things) enacted that a boy under the age of sixteen years shall not be taken to sea for the purpose of serving in any capacity connected with the sea fishing service unless he is bound by an Indenture of Apprenticeship or Agreement made in conformity with Part IV of the said Act.

And whereas by section 395 of the same Act it is (amongst other things) enacted that Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea fishing service and agreements with boys under the age of sixteen years with respect to that service shall be in such form and contain such covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates as are prescribed by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade and that any directions given in the forms so prescribed shall be complied with.

And whereas by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, it was, among other things, prescribed that on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five, the Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea fishing service should be in the form set forth in the schedule thereto and should contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements and certificates therein mentioned with respect to the said indentures.

And whereas the Board of Trade have recommended that any such Indentures of Apprenticeship as may be made before a Superintendent at the Port of Grimsby should be either in the said form in the schedule to the said Order in Council set forth as aforesaid, or in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto; and it is expedient to add to the said Order in Council by prescribing the use of the last mentioned form in the said cases as an alternative to the first mentioned form accordingly.

Now therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Him by the said recited Act, and of all other powers in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order and prescribe that on and after the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight, any Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea fishing service made before the Superintendent at the Port of Grimsby shall either be in the form set forth in the schedule to the said Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety four, and contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates in the said schedule mentioned with respect to Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea fishing service or be in the form set forth in the schedule hereto and contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein mentioned.

(1) The Apprentice binds himself Apprentice to the Master for the term of _____ years from the date hereof, subject to a Probationary period of two months as hereinafter more particularly mentioned.

(2) During such time the Apprentice will faithfully serve his Master and obey his lawful commands and keep his secrets and when requisite give to his Master true accounts of his goods and money which may in any way come into the hands of the Apprentice. The Apprentice will not during the said term do any damage to his Master nor will he consent to any such damage being done by others but will if possible prevent the same and give warning thereof and will not embezzle waste or otherwise wrongfully deal with the goods of his Master, nor frequent Taverns or Alehouses nor absent himself from his Master's service without leave.

(3) The Master will during the said term of Apprenticeship use all proper means to teach the Apprentice or cause him to be taught the business of a Seaman and Fisherman and will provide the Apprentice with sufficient meat, drink, lodging, washing, medicine and medical and surgical assistance, sea bedding, wearing apparel and necessaries.

(4) All wearing apparel provided by the Master for the use of the Apprentice shall during the said term remain the property of the Master, the Apprentice having full right to the use thereof at all times for his own sole use and wear, but he shall not acquire any right or title thereto for the purpose of selling, pledging or otherwise disposing of such apparel until the expiration of the apprenticeship when such apparel shall become the Apprentice's property.

The Master shall pay into the hands of the Apprentice himself the daily or weekly sums specified on the back hereof under the letter "B." All further remuneration to which the Apprentice shall become entitled whether as spending money perquisites or share of salvage shall be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be forthwith paid by him into the Seamen's Savings Bank to the account of the Apprentice. Provided that if the Superintendent shall be of opinion that on account of misconduct or the state of the fund or for other sufficient reasons the Apprentice ought not to receive into his own hands any sums whatsoever, or that the sum ought to be reduced and shall in writing so inform the Master, the payments to the Apprentice or such part thereof as the Superintendent shall specify shall thereupon be discontinued for such period as the Superintendent may determine and the spending money or the balance if any remaining after paying the reduced amount to the Apprentice shall be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be placed to the credit of the Account aforesaid. Subject to all necessary withdrawals by the Superintendent from the said Account in the Seamen's Savings Bank for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned and for the payment of any sum in the nature of a fine imposed upon the Apprentice by a Court of competent jurisdiction and for other special purposes which the Superintendent shall in his discretion think proper to allow, the amount standing to the credit of the said account shall there remain until the expiration or other sooner determination of the said term of apprenticeship, whereupon the balance standing to the credit of the said account after providing for all payments and deductions then proper to be made shall be paid or transferred to or to the credit of the Apprentice.

(7) The Apprentice shall not be required to serve in any fishing boat in which the Master is not during the continuance of such service himself serving as Skipper, Second hand or Seaman, or in which the Master if not so serving does not during the continuance of the Apprentice's service in such Fishing Boat possess an interest therein of at least Eight Sixty-fourths Shares. Provided that if, in the opinion of the Superintendent, it is desirable and the Apprentice consents it shall be lawful for such Apprentice to serve in some other Fishing Boat approved by the Superintendent for a period not exceeding two months.

(8) The Master will attend with the Apprentice before the Superintendent within twenty-eight days after the expiration of the Probationary period hereinbefore referred to or if they or either of them are or is at sea during that time then immediately on return to port. And if this Indenture is not then cancelled as hereinafter provided the Master or his Representative shall also attend with the Apprentice once at least in every year during the continuance of this Indenture before the Superintendent with a view to the investigation by him of questions affecting the remuneration or earnings and service of the Apprentice, and will give a full, true, and faithful account and report of such remuneration or earnings and of the character, conduct, and efficiency of the Apprentice. And in the event of any change of abode or of any gross misconduct on the part of the Apprentice or of any serious accident happening to him the Master will forthwith as soon as practicable give notice thereof to the Superintendent.

(9) The Master will allow the Apprentice twenty-eight days ashore in each year during the continuance of the said term of apprenticeship at such time or times as the Master may determine and to the satisfaction of the Superintendent seven days whereof at least shall be holiday for the purpose of visiting his relations or friends, unless in the opinion of the Superintendent the Apprentice is not entitled to such holiday in any year by reason of misconduct.

"And whereas we are of opinion that, owing to the circumstances of the appointment of the Flag Officer on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief of Your Majesty's Home Fleet, he should be granted an allowance in lieu of the servants to which he would otherwise be entitled :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment of an allowance in lieu of servants at the rate of two hundred pounds a year to the Flag Officer holding the appointment in question, as from the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Orders in Council of the seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four, and the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six, Your Majesty was pleased to approve of certain regulations for the purpose of encouraging the study of Foreign Languages by Officers of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines :

"And whereas under those regulations the maximum period for which Officers are allowed to study in Japan on full pay, with a view to qualifying as Interpreters in the Japanese language, is twelve months :

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable to extend this period in certain cases to enable Officers to acquire a more thorough knowledge of the language :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us, at our discretion, to allow any Officer who is likely to profit by a longer period of study to remain in Japan on full pay for two years, subject to the condition that there shall not be more than three Officers at any one time studying the language, and that they shall be included in the total number of twenty now allowed to be abroad at the same time for the study of modern languages.

"And whereas we have had under our consideration the method of remunerating the Officers employed at certain Naval Ports in the correction of charts :

"And whereas we are of opinion that the present system under which extra pay of three shillings a day is granted to these Officers for the days on which they are actually employed on the correction of charts should be replaced by a continuous allowance as being more appropriate to the service rendered :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment of continuous allowances, varying at our discretion from one shilling to one shilling and sixpence a day, at ports where, in our opinion, the care and correction of charts form such an appreciable addition to an Officer's ordinary duty as to justify a special payment ; the change to take effect as from the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, but in the cases of the Officers performing the duties in question at Portsmouth, Sheerness and Malta, payment to continue under the present system until they are superseded.
