RULES PUBLICATION ACT, 1893.

ROYAL PARKS AND GARDENS.

Notice is hereby given that it is the intention of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to make rules for the Tower Gardens in connection with the regulations prescribed by the Parks Regulation Act, 1872, and that copies of the draft rules may be obtained by any public body at His Majesty's Office of Works, Storey's Gate, Westminster.

*Foreign Office,
November 6, 1908.*

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs thinks it desirable to call attention to the requirements of the French Conscription Law of June, 1889, under which the sons, born in France, of British subjects born elsewhere than in France, must, in order to obtain exemption from military service, decline French nationality within the year following the attainment of their majority if, at that time, they are deemed to be resident in France. Such persons should communicate with the British Consular Officer residing nearest to their place of birth, who will inform them of the precise formalities required.

RAILWAY AND CANAL COMMISSION.

Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of the 20th section of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, the Railway and Canal Commissioners propose to amend Rule 60 ("Registrar's Office when open") and Rule 65 ("Discretion of the Commissioners in cases not expressly provided for") of the Railway and Canal Commission Rules, 1889, and that as provided by the Rules Publication Act, 1893, copies of the draft amended Rules may be obtained at the Railway and Canal Commission Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.
