Privy Council Office, November 21, 1908.

The following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Cambridge, on the seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight (and sealed on the fourteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight), have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTES to alter and amend the Statutes of Trinity College Cambridge which amending Statutes were duly made at a College Meeting being a meeting of the Governing Body of the College specially summoned for this purpose and held on the 7th day of November 1908, and having been passed at such meeting by the votes of more than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting are now submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

We the Master Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College in the University of Cambridge in exercise of the powers given to us by the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 do hereby alter and amend the existing Statutes of our said College in the manner following:—

By adding to Statute I intituled "Commencement" the following section to form section 3 of such Statute:—

3. The Statutes made the 7th day of November 1908 for the alteration of these Statutes shall take effect on the 29th day of September next after the approval thereof by His Majesty in Council.

By repealing Statute VI intituled "The Foundation of the College" and substituting therefor the following Statute to form an amended Statute VI:—

VI. The Foundation of the College.

The foundation of the College shall consist of the Master, the Fellows (sixty at the least subject however to the provisions hereinafter contained for the temporary suspension of fellowships), the Senior Scholars (eighty at the least), the Entrance Scholars, the Chaplains, the Librarian, and the three Regius Professors of Divinity Hebrew and Greek respectively; but the number of Fellows and the foundation generally may be increased from time to time as hereinafter provided.

By repealing Statute XX intituled "The Senior Scholars" and substituting therefor the following Statute to form an amended Statute XX:—

XX. The Senior Scholars.

1. There shall be at least eighty Senior Scholars exclusive of the Supernumerary Scholars (if any).

The Council may in virtue of new benefactions found additional senior scholarships to be held subject to the provisions herein contained.

2. The election to the senior scholarships shall take place on the Monday after Easter week or on such other day as may be fixed by the Council. All the senior scholarships which either are vacant on the day of election or will be necessarily vacated by lapse of time within six months thereafter shall then be filled up. Provided always that if in the opinion of the Board of Electors hereinafter mentioned the merits of the candidates are not such as to make it desirable to elect persons to fill up all the scholarships so vacant or to be vacated as aforesaid it shall be competent for them to elect only such persons as in their opinion deserve to be elected. Provided also that at the two elections of Senior Scholars which shall take place next after the time when this Statute shall take effect the number of scholarships to be filled up shall be such number whether more or less than or equal to the number actually vacant as the Council shall think fit.

3. The Senior Scholars shall be chosen from the students of the College who have already come into residence and are of such standing as the Council shall from time to time determine. They shall be chosen with special reference to their learning ability and moral character. Their intellectual qualifications shall be tested by examination in such manner as the Council shall from time to time determine; and the Council may at any time if they think fit give a preference in adjudging one or more of such scholarships to excellence in one or more special subject or subjects forming part of the University studies. Provided always that not less than five of the persons elected in each year shall be chosen with special reference to their pecuniary circumstances as well as to the other qualifications hereinbefore mentioned. Provided also that with reference to those students who by the Statutes and Ordinances of the University are enabled to proceed to their first degree after keeping by residence less than nine terms the Council shall make regulations from time to time determining whether and under what conditions they or any of them shall be eligible for scholarships.

4. The election of the Senior Scholars shall be vested in the Master and such of the Fellows or other persons whether members of Council or not as may have been appointed by the Council to be members of the Board of Electors for that occasion. The election shall be conducted in the same manner and shall be governed by the same rules as the election of Fellows under the title (a).

5. The admission of the Senior Scholars shall take place on the day after that of the election or on such other day as the Council may direct, and every such Senior Scholar shall then be admitted unless prevented by illness or other grave cause to be approved by the Council, and shall enjoy the advantages of his scholarship from the date of his admission, or from such time as the Council (having regard to the times at which the vacancies occur) may direct.

6. Every Senior Scholar before his admission shall in the presence of the Council first read aloud and then sign a declaration as follows:

I, N. N., elected Senior Scholar of Trinity College, do hereby promise that I will in all things obey the authorities of the College, and will set an example of order diligence and good conduct to the other students.

7. Every Senior Scholar shall proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, Bachelor of Medicine, or Bachelor of Surgery at
