FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1908.

Whitehall, November 26, 1908.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Eton on Wednesday, the 18th November, for the opening of the Building erected in memory of Etonians who fell in the late South African War:—

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' humble and loyal subjects, the Provost and Fellows and Masters of this Royal College, beg leave to approach Your Majesties with the expression of our deep sense of Your gracious condescension in honouring us, on this occasion with Your Royal presence, and to tender to Your Majesties a most respectful and cordial welcome.

We recognise with special gratitude Your Majesties' kindness in extending Your Royal favour to the ceremony of opening this Building, erected by the liberality of Old Etonians in loving memory of schoolfellows, known or unknown, who have given their lives in the service of their Sovereign and their Country in the late African War.

It is a matter of much congratulation that the opening of a Building so conspicuous and so important, alike from a view of School needs, and from association with solemn and touching memories, should be marked by the special Act of Royal favour, which Your Majesty has so graciously undertaken, and which we have now the honour to invite Your Majesty to perform.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you most heartily on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal address of welcome. My lifelong interest in your famous foundation is well known to you. I am glad to think that three of My nephews have been educated in this great school, which is so close to Windsor Castle. I have noted every change and improvement in the school, and have watched with constant interest the great work which is carried on within its walls. It is a pleasure to meet you on whom rests the responsibility for the success or failure of that work. I can well understand your justifiable pride in the noble deeds of Old Etonians, and can share both the pride which you must feel in the contemplation of this beautiful memorial building, and the personal sorrows and regrets which it awakes. The brave men in whose memory it is erected will not be forgotten, and their noble example will serve to inspire their successors in the school, and incite them to emulate the courage and devotion which have rendered their names famous.

"The admirable arrangements of the interior of the building, with its great hall, capable of containing a whole school, its library, and its museum, will render it a valuable and beautiful addition to the college, and of permanent utility to future students."

May it please Your Majesties,

We, present Etonians, beg to offer Your Majesties our sincere and humble thanks for Your gracious kindness in being present to-day. Your Majesties' visit to Eton on this occasion, will fix in the memories of the youngest of us a ceremony which must be to all Etonians of deep and lasting interest. To us who are still members of the School, this group of buildings will serve as a memorial, not so much of friends whom we ourselves have lost, as of the gallant deeds of former Etonians in the hour of their country's need. We wish therefore to express on behalf of the boys our deep sense of Your Majesties' favour, and of this fresh proof which You have afforded of interest in the welfare of the School.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"The Queen and I are most gratified by your loyal and dutiful address.

"We have always felt a special interest in successive generations of Etonians and deep concern for their welfare while at school and for their success and credit in after-life. Of those whom I now see before Me some will, I have no doubt, aim at high positions in the State and attain distinction equal to that of their most honoured predecessors; others will serve their country with vigour and reputation in Our Forces or in the professions of Art and Learning. Your success and the repute which you enjoy in the mouths of men, and—what is still more important—in your own mind and conscience, depend upon the use which you make of the means which are now placed generously at your disposal for the cultivation of your minds and bodies and the development of your character. Whatever may be your subsequent careers, you all have the opportunity of leaving Eton trained in the knowledge and accomplishments of English gentlemen, and disciplined to the self-restraint, the consideration for others, and the loyal acceptance of private and public duties which are the ideals of our race. I exhort you to value, and to make the most of, that training and discipline.

"You can have no better example than that of the brave men of whom this splendid building is a loyal and lasting memorial. They sacrificed themselves with devotion for the great cause which we have all at heart, the cause of our country; and freely laid down their lives for her sake. In their lives and by their deaths they maintained the traditions which have made Eton renowned in our history: those traditions are now in your keeping: be worthy of them.

"I pray earnestly that the blessing of God may attend the career of every one of you."

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by section eight of the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion,

"be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Randall Thomas Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Frederic Henry Lord Bishop of Ely as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the vicarage of Saint Mary the Great in the town of Cambridge and the vicarage of Saint Michael in the same town having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed fifteen hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice, we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Master Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College Cambridge being the Patrons or persons entitled to present to the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Great and also to the said vicarage of Saint Michael (if both or either of the same were now vacant) have consented to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Ely, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the said Master

Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College Cambridge as Patrons of the said benefices and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"Randall Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Saint Mary the Great, situate in the town of Cambridge and diocese of Ely, and the vicarage of Saint Michael, situate in the same town and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

WHEREAS Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, being satisfied that by the law as set forth in the Successions Duty Act, 1895, of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope no duty was leviable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom when passing on death, was pleased by an Order in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, to apply the twentieth section of the Finance Act, 1894, to the said Colony:

And whereas by the said section it is, amongst other things, enacted that His Majesty in Council may revoke any such Order when it appears that the law of the British possession has been so altered that it would not authorize the making of an Order under that section:

And whereas the law of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope has been so altered as aforesaid, and by an Act shortly entitled the Successions Duty Amendment Act, 1908, provision has been made that from and after a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by Proclamation published in the Gazette the Successions Duty Act, 1895, shall be repealed:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council from and after the said date so to be appointed and notified as aforesaid:

Now therefore His Majesty by virtue and in exercise of the power by the Finance Act, 1894, in His Majesty vested is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:

I. The Order of the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, is hereby revoked.

II. This Order shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and notified by Proclamation published in the Cape of Good Hope Government Gazette:

"And whereas by Orders in Council of Her late Majesty bearing date the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred, and also by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three, the rank of Engineer Captain may be granted at our discretion to Engineer Commanders on retirement, provided they have had thirty years' meritorious service:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the age for compulsory retirement will be gradually reduced from fifty-five to fifty years, so that the number of officers having thirty years' full pay service on retirement will diminish, and when retirement becomes compulsory at the age of fifty, few, if any, will be eligible for a step in rank:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that the period of service on full pay required to qualify an Engineer Commander for the rank of Engineer Captain on retirement should be reduced:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the reduction of the qualifying period from thirty to twenty-seven years.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and six, to authorize the issue of an allowance of one shilling and sixpence a day to the First Lieutenant of a separate establishment when located at the Naval Barracks at any of the Home Ports:

"And whereas the duties assigned to the First Lieutenant at the Royal Naval Depot, Sheerness, are in all respects similar to those in regard to which the above-mentioned allowance is paid, notwithstanding that the said depot is now administered as a branch of the Royal Naval Depot at Chatham:
