1908. J. 0101.

In the Matter of the JUNIOR ARMY AND NAVY STORES Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 11th day of November, 1908, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, by the above named Company, to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 15th day of October, 1908, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 5th day of November, 1908, and which resolution runs as follows:—

That the objects set forth in clause 3 of the Society's Memorandum of Association be altered so as to read as follows:—

3rd. The objects for which the Society is established are—

(1) To carry on the business of General Dealers for the purpose of supplying its shareholders, subscribers, ticket-holders, and their friends, and if thought desirable and approved by the shareholders in General Meeting the public generally with goods of all kinds, and rendering them services of all kinds, and to carry on the business of a general supply or universal providing concern, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in goods of all kinds, both wholesale and retail, and to transact every kind of agency business, and to make arrangements with persons engaged in any trade, business or profession for the concession to the Society's members, subscribers, ticket-holders and other persons dealing with the Society of any special rights, privileges and advantages, and in particular in regard to the supply of goods.

(2) To receive money on deposit from shareholders, subscribers, ticket-holders, and other persons dealing with the Society.

(3) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Society is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Society.

(4) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Society is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Society, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares, stock, or securities.

(5) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, any rights or privileges which the Society may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Society's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licenses, patents, machinery, ships, barges, rolling stock, plant and stock-in-trade.

(6) To sell the undertaking of the Society, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Society may think fit, and in particular for shares or debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Society.

(7) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of its or their acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Society or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Society.

(8) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Society not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(9) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Society, and to give any guarantee or indemnity as may seem expedient.

(10) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Society both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem, purchase, or pay off any such securities.

(11) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place any shares in the Society's capital, or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Society, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Society, or the conduct of its business, and to pay or allow any bonus or rebate out of profits to persons dealing largely with the Society.

(12) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise.

(13) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, enfranchise, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Society.

(14) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Society" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

2. That the draft new regulations submitted to this Meeting, and entitled "Articles of Association," and the modification of voting rights therein contained, be and the same are hereby approved, and that such regulations be and they are hereby adopted as the regulations of the Society to the exclusion of and in substitution for all the existing regulations thereof.

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Neville, on Saturday, the 12th day of December, 1908; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, shareholder, or debenture holder or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for the purpose. And a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same, by the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Hollams, Sons, Coward, and Hawksley, of No. 30, Mincing-lane, London, E.C., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.
