*Civil Service Commission,
December 11, 1908.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Female Learner in London in the Department of the Postmaster-General.

(To come into force on the 1st January, 1909.)

These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 15 and 18. If an examination begins in one of the first four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the 1st day of January in that year. If an examination begins in one of the second four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of May in that year. If an examination begins in one of the last four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the 1st day of September in that year.

2. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

- (a.) That they are unmarried or widows.
- (b.) That they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.
- (c.) That they are natural-born or naturalized British subjects.

3. At each Examination the number of Candidates to be selected will be such as the Postmaster-General may from time to time fix.

4. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

- 1. English Composition (including Writing and Spelling).
- 2. Arithmetic (first four rules, Simple and Compound, including English and Metrical Weights and Measures, Reduction, Vulgar Fractions and Decimals, excluding Recurring Decimals).
- 3. Geography.

Candidates who fail to obtain such an aggregate number of marks as may indicate in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners a competent amount of general proficiency will not be regarded as qualified.

5. No Candidate will be admitted to Examination who does not, at such time as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, produce an undertaking, signed by her parent or guardian, that she will, if successful, reside either with her parents or guardians, or with relations or friends approved by such parents or guardians.

6. Candidates must be at least 5 feet in height.

7. Persons who may have accepted a situation as Learner in any London office will not be eligible to compete. Other persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the written permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the Examination, before the commencement of the competition.

8. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

9. A fee of four shillings will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Female Learner in London in the Department of the Postmaster-General will be held in London, under the foregoing Regulations on the 25th February, 1909.

Appointments will be offered to not fewer than 40 of the Candidates highest on the list, provided they obtain the necessary aggregate of marks and are duly qualified in other respects.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 3rd February, an application on the prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

*Civil Service Commission,

LEYTON URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

NOTICE is hereby given that upon the application of the Leyton Urban District Council pursuant to section 3 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, an Order, copy of which is printed hereunder, has been made by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, Home Department, declaring certain sections of the said Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, to be in force within the urban district of Leyton.

COPY ORDER.

In pursuance of the power conferred on me by section 3 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, I hereby declare section 85 (Registries for servants) and section 86 (As to dealers in old metal and marine stores) of Part VII, and Part VIII (Fire Brigade) of the said Act to be in force in the urban district of Leyton.

And I direct that the Urban District Council shall, within three weeks from this date, cause a copy of this Order to be published in one or more newspapers circulating in the district.

H. J. GLADSTONE,
One of His Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,

17th November, 1908,

and as to sections 85 and 86, notice is hereby further given, pursuant to sub-section 6 of the said 85th section, and sub-section 5 of the said 86th section of the provisions of the said sections, viz. :—

Section 85.—Registries for Servants.

(1.) Every person who shall carry on for the purpose of private gain the trade or business of keeper of a female domestic servants' registry shall register his name and place of abode, and also the premises in which such trade or business is carried on, in a book to be kept at the offices of the Local Authority for the purpose.

(2.) The Local Authority may make By-laws prescribing the books to be kept and the entries to be made therein, and any other matter which the Local Authority may deem necessary for the prevention of fraud or immorality in the conduct of such trade or business, and for regulating any premises used for the purposes of or in connection with such trade or business.

(3.) The person registered shall keep a copy of the Bye-laws made by the Local Authority under this section hung up in a conspicuous place in the registered premises.

(4.) Any officer of the Local Authority or other person duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Local Authority, and if so required exhibiting his authority, shall at all reasonable times be afforded by the person registered full and free power of entry into the registered premises for the purpose of inspecting the registered premises and the books required to be kept by such person.

(5.) Any person carrying on such trade or business as aforesaid, whose name, place of abode, and premises in which such trade or business is carried on have not been registered in accordance with sub-section one of this section or whose registration has been cancelled or suspended as hereinafter provided, or acting in contravention of any of the provisions of this section, or of any bye-law made thereunder, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and the Court may (in lieu of or in addition to imposing a penalty) order the suspension or cancellation of the registration.

(6.) The Local Authority shall give public notice of the provisions of this section by advertisement in two newspapers circulating in the district, and by handbills and otherwise in such manner as they think sufficient.

Section 86.—As to Dealers in Old Metal and Marine Stores.

(1.) Every person who shall carry on business as a dealer in old metal, or as a marine store dealer, shall register his name and place of abode and every place of business, warehouse, store, and place of deposit, occupied or used by him for the purpose of such business, in a book to be kept for the purpose at the offices of the Local Authority.

(2.) Every person carrying on business as aforesaid shall correctly enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose the description and price of all articles purchased or otherwise acquired by him, and the name, address, and occupation of the person from whom the same were purchased or otherwise acquired.

(3.) Every person who shall carry on such business without having so registered, or without keeping such book and making such entries as required by this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

(4.) Any officer of the Local Authority or other person duly authorised, in writing, in that behalf by the Local Authority, and if so required exhibiting his authority, shall have free access at all reasonable times to every such place of business, warehouse, store, and place of deposit, to inspect the same, and the books, by this section required to be kept, and every person who shall prevent, hinder, or obstruct any officer or person so authorised in the execution of his duty, under this sub-section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

(5.) The Local Authority shall give public notice of the provisions of this section by advertisement in two newspapers circulating in the district, and by handbills, and otherwise in such manner as they think sufficient.

Persons desirous of registering pursuant to the provisions of the above sections may do so on personal application at the Clerk's Office, Town Hall, Leyton, between the hours of 10 and 4 (Saturdays 10 and 12).

THE BRIDGEND URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

WHEREAS the Urban District Council for Bridgend have applied to the Local Government Board to declare certain parts and certain sections of the said Act to be in force in the urban district of Bridgend.

And whereas proof having been given to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board of the advertisement required by sub-section (2) of section 3 of the said Act, the Local Government Board in exercise of their powers in that behalf, have made an Order, bearing date the 20th day of November, 1908, whereby they declared, specified and directed:—

That on and after the day on which the said Order comes into operation, Part II of the Act of 1907 shall be in force in the urban district of Bridgend, subject to the conditions and adaptations as in the said Order is contained.

And that the said Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1909.

T. J. HUGHES,
Clerk to the said Council,

Dated December 9th, 1908.

Whereas the benefice of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Dorset and Devon, and diocese of Salisbury (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-sixth day of November last, by the retirement, under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend James Hugh Pearson (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of fifty pounds two shillings and eleven pence (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-sixth day of November, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Winkfield, in the county of Berks and diocese of Oxford (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the third day of December instant, by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend John Daubeney (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of sixty-five pounds, now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said third day of December instant, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Bobbing, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage one yearly sum or stipend of forty pounds such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-seventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Bobbing, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the district and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint John, Great Harwood, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the third day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds hereby granted by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint John, Great Harwood, shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds heretofore payable by us subject to certain conditions respecting the employment of an Assistant Curate for the parish of Great Harwood, in the said county of Lancaster, under the authority of an Instrument sealed by us on the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and published in the London Gazette on the thirteenth day of the same month and year: and provided also that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds hereby granted, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Hedon, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Hedon, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llangadwaladr, in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, one capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Monkwearmouth, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Monkwearmouth, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mary, Sandwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Sandwich, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Saviour, Wilmington, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice of Saint Saviour, Wilmington, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

No. 1939.—CANADA, BRITISH COLUMBIA—CHATHAM SOUND.

Brown Passage—Islets; Shoals; Directions.

Subject.—The undermentioned information with regard to Brown Passage, Chatham Sound, is derived from the results of a recent survey.

1. Tree Nob Group.

Position.—Northern and largest Osborne Islet, lat. $54^{\circ} 17'$ N., long. $130^{\circ} 52'$ W.

Remarks.—The north-western extremity of Tree Knob Group is marked by three small white bare islets, 40 feet high, lying close together and connected at low water, the north-western islet of the three being situated at a distance of $8\frac{1}{2}$ cables, N. 84° W., from the northern Osborne Islet. With the exception of one off-lying rock, which is awash at high water, situated one cable northward from the north-western islet, there are no off-lying dangers to the northward, and these islets are always easily seen. On the northern side of Tree Nob Group, a small islet 40 feet high, not shown on the chart, is situated at a distance of $6\frac{1}{2}$ cables, N. 72° W., from the north-eastern extreme of Lach-hoieta Islet, and $5\frac{1}{2}$ cables, S. 74° E., from the same point is another islet, 25 feet high. At a distance of one cable northward of the former islet is a rock which dries 2 feet.

2. Shoals.

(a) (b) Positions.—Situated at distances of $7\frac{1}{2}$ cables, N. 4° W., and $7\frac{1}{10}$ cables, N. 8° E., respectively, from Stenhouse Shoal; latitude $54^{\circ} 21'$ N., long. $130^{\circ} 56'$ W.

Depths.—4 fathoms and 5 fathoms respectively.

(c) (d) Positions.—Situated at distances of 2 miles, west, and 13 cables, N. 84° W., respectively, from the northern Osborne Islet.

Depths.—7 fathoms and 9 fathoms respectively.

Remarks.—These shoals, which are very small, do not break, and there is no "North breaker" in this locality, as given on the chart and in the Sailing Directions.

(e) (f) Positions.—Situated at distances of 4 cables, S. 1° E., and $7\frac{1}{2}$ cables, N. 15° W., respectively from Beaver Rock; Beaver Rock, lat. $54^{\circ} 20\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $130^{\circ} 42\frac{1}{4}'$ W.

Depths.—5 fathoms and 3 fathoms respectively.

Remarks.—Beaver Rock has a depth of only 6 feet over it.

(g) Position.—Lucy Islands, lat. $54^{\circ} 17\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $130^{\circ} 37'$ W.

Remarks.—A sandbank, about one mile in width, extends southward from these islands to a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Lucy Island Light.

Depth.—From 5 to 10 fathoms.

3. Track recommended.

Directions.—Approaching from seaward, a course of N. 61° E., leads in from a safe position to the northward of Rose Spit; the north-westernmost bare islet of Tree Nob Group should be passed at a distance of three-quarters of a mile, as at this distance the tidal streams are less strong and more regular in duration than closer in. From abreast of the bare islets, a N. 81° E. course should be preserved for a distance of 9 miles, which will lead clear to the southward of the sandbank off the Lucy Islands; course should then be altered to N. 75° E., and the leading beacons, at the entrance to Prince Rupert Harbour, steered for on this bearing.

Note.—A new edition of Chart No. 2453 will shortly be published.

Variation.— 29° E.

Charts affected.—No. 2453, Brown and Edye Passages; No. 1923a, Cape Caution to Port Simpson, northern portion; No. 2430, Queen Charlotte Islands.

Lucy Island Light—Arc of Visibility.

Subject.—The arc of visibility of Lucy Island Light is as undermentioned.

Position.—Lat. $54^{\circ} 18'$ N., long. $130^{\circ} 36\frac{1}{2}'$ W.

Arc of visibility.—From the bearing N. 31° W., through west, south, and east, to N. 67° E.; except over a small arc, between the bearings S. 83° E. and S. 88° E., where it is obscured by trees on the off-lying islets.

Remarks.—Lucy Island Light is at present too weak to be of any use when entering Brown Passage.

Variation.— 29° E.
