FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1909.

Whitehall, February 25, 1909.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Commission under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R. & I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our right trusty and well-beloved Counsellor Richard Burdon Haldane, Our Principal Secretary of State for War;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Counsellor Alfred, Viscount Milner, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Counsellor Sir Robert Romer, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath; and

Our trusty and well-beloved:—

Sir Robert Laurie Morant, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Permanent Secretary to the Board of Education for England and Wales;

Laurence Currie, Esquire, Master of Arts of Trinity College in Our University of Cambridge;

William Symington M'Cormick, Esquire, Master of Arts, Doctor of Laws;

Edmund Beale Sargant, Esquire, Master of Arts of Trinity College in Our University of Cambridge;

Louisa Creighton, Widow of the late Right Reverend Father in God Mandell Creighton, Bishop of London;

Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into the working of the present organisation of the University of London, and into other facilities for advanced education (general, professional, and technical) existing in London for persons of either sex above secondary school age; to consider what provision should exist in the Metropolis for University teaching and research; to make recommendations as to the relations which should in consequence subsist between the University of London, its incorporated Colleges, the Imperial College of Science and Technology, the other Schools of the University and the various public institutions and bodies concerned; and further to recommend as to any changes of constitution and organisation which appear desirable; regard being had to the facilities for education and research which the Metropolis should afford for specialist and advanced students in connection with the provision existing in other parts of the United Kingdom and of Our Dominions beyond the Seas:

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you, the said Richard Burdon Haldane (Chairman); Alfred, Viscount Milner; Sir Robert Romer; Sir Robert Laurie Morant; Laurence Currie; William Symington M'Cormick, Edmund Beale Sargant; and Louisa Creighton, to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry:

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents
