TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1909.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of March, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day Alexander Ure, Esquire, K.C., M.P. (Lord Advocate), was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

Privy Council Office, March 2, 1909.

The following Statutes made by the University of Cambridge have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTES to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877. 40 and 41 Vict., cap. 48," in relation to the University of Cambridge, which amending Statutes are now submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

We the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in pursuance of the power given to us by the 53rd Section of the said Act, do hereby alter the Statutes framed by the said Commissioners in relation to our said University in manner following:—

By repealing Section 5 of Chapter IV of Statute A and substituting therefor the following amended Section:—

Section 5. Election of Orator, Registrary and Esquire Bedell.

The nominations and elections of persons to fill the offices of Orator, Registrary, and Esquire Bedell shall be conducted in the same manner as the nomination and election of the Vice-Chancellor, except that the Chancellor shall stand in scrutiny with the two Proctors. The election shall be made in every case within fourteen days (exclusive of any vacation) from the vacancy being known.

By adding the following Section to form Section 5 A of Chapter IV of the said Statute A:—

Section 5 A. Election of Librarian.

1. The election to the office of Librarian shall be made by a Board consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and ten persons elected by the Senate, five of such persons being nominated by the Council of the Senate and five by the Library Syndicate. One of the electors nominated by the Council of the Senate and one of those nominated by the Library Syndicate shall be when elected persons who are not resident in the University nor officially connected with it and of the remaining eight electors the four nominated by the Library Syndicate shall be when elected members of that Syndicate.

2. The first election of the Board shall take place as soon as conveniently may be after the
