SOOTHILL NETHER URBAN DISTRICT TRAMWAYS ACT, 1904.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of section 34 of the Soothill Nether Urban District Tramways Act, 1904, the Soothill Nether Urban District Council (hereinafter called "the Council") propose, with the consent of the Board of Trade, by lease, to be approved of by the Board of Trade, to demise to the National Electric Construction Company Limited, whose registered office is situate at Queen Anne's-chambers, in the city of Westminster (hereinafter called "the Company"), certain of the tramways authorised by the said Act and the exclusive right of user thereof by the Company, and of demanding and taking the authorised tolls thereon for the period of forty-two years from the date of the opening of the said tramways for public traffic, at the yearly rent during the first thirty years of the said term of £1,744 10s. 0d., during the next following ten years of the said term of £284 5s. 0d., and during each of the remaining years of the said term of £100.

The following is a general description of the covenants on the part of the Company to be contained in the proposed lease:—

(1) To pay the rent and all rates and taxes.

(2) To work the said tramways continuously and efficiently so as to provide a through service between Dewsbury and Ossett through the Wakefield-road cutting, and also between Dewsbury and Soothill Nether.

(3) To fulfil all statutory obligations imposed upon the Council, and to observe and enforce all Bye-laws and Regulations made by the Council, or the Board of Trade, or other authority, and to indemnify the Council in respect thereof, and also to maintain so much of the roads whereon the tramways are laid as the Promoters of the tramways are required by section 28 of the Tramways Act, 1870, to maintain.

(4) To keep all carriages in use upon the tramways in a proper state of repair and fit for use.

(5) To use electrical power only for working the tramways.

(6) To maintain and keep in repair the tramways and the machinery and equipment connected therewith.

(7) To yield up the tramways and other demised premises at the end of the term.

(8) To insure all buildings and tramcars against fire.

(9) To permit the Council to enter upon the tramways and other demised premises to inspect the state of repair thereof.

(10) To indemnify the Council against accidents and injuries to persons or property caused by the working of the tramways, or happening through the act or default of the Company, or any person in their employ.

And the proposed lease will also contain provisions of which the following is a general description:—

(1) That the Council will provide any additional capital required in connection with the tramways or their equipment if required by the Company.

(2) That the Company will pay an increased rent, sufficient to pay for principal and interest in respect of any such additional capital expenditure.

(3) That the Company shall not assign, underlet or part with the possession of the demised premises without the consent of the Council, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld.

(4) That the Company shall if required by the Council take from the Council the electrical energy required for working the tramways, and until so required such energy may be taken from the Yorkshire Electric Power Company or some other company or local authority authorized to supply the same.

(5) That in case the rent shall be in arrear for 21 days, the Council may enter upon the premises and distrain for the same.

(6) That if the rent is in arrear for 40 days, or there shall be any breach of the covenants and conditions of the lease on the part of the Company, or if the working of the tramways shall be discontinued for the space of one month, or the Company shall be wound up, the Council may enter upon and take possession of the tramways and other demised premises.

(7) That the Company paying the rent and other sums reserved, and performing the covenants and conditions, may peaceably hold the premises demised without interruption by the Council or any person lawfully claiming under them.

(8) That any difference between the parties shall be settled by arbitration.

And notice is hereby given that a copy of the proposed lease has been deposited at the offices of the Council at Earlsheaton, near Dewsbury, for public inspection there during ordinary office hours.

Dated this 17th day of March, 1909.

SCHOLEFIELD and SON, Dewsbury, Solicitors for the Soothill Nether Urban District Council;

DEACON, GIBSON, METCALF and MARRIOTT, 27, Great George-street, Westminster, Solicitors for the National Electric Construction Company Limited.
