TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1909.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for annexing to the episcopal residence of the Bishop of Worcester at Hartlebury certain lands which are necessary for the enjoyment of such residence.

“Whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted that upon the first avoidance of the See of any Archbishop or Bishop happening after the passing thereof all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments of or belonging to such See (except all rights of patronage or presentation and the residences of the Archbishop or Bishop and such lands necessary for the enjoyment of such residences as shall be attached thereto by any scheme sanctioned by Order in Council) shall become vested absolutely in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the Bishoprick of Worcester has become vacant since the passing of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, but certain lands which are necessary for the enjoyment of the episcopal residence at Hartlebury have not been attached thereto by any scheme prepared by us and sanctioned by Order of Her said late Majesty or of Your Majesty in Council.

“And whereas it appears to us that the lands specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme are necessary for the enjoyment of the episcopal residence at Hartlebury and are such as it is contemplated by the said Act should be attached to the residence and should be held by the Bishop exclusively of and in addition to the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which, in accordance with the provisions of the same Act, have been assigned as the endowment of his See for the purpose of securing the statutory income named for such Bishop.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon the publishing in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any legal conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the land specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme and shown within the red verge line on the plan therein referred to shall become and be attached to and form part of the residence of the Bishop of Worcester, and shall be held and enjoyed by the said Bishop and his successors in the See of Worcester irrespectively of and in addition to the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which have been or may hereafter be from time to time assigned to the said Bishop or his successors as the permanent endowment of the See for the purpose of securing the statutory income of the Bishoprick.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in compliance with the said recited Act or any other Acts of Parliament.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission, dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Norwich and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868, and by virtue of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Act bearing date the twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirty-first day of the same month certain property which then belonged to the said Dean and Chapter of Norwich and which is more particularly described in the schedule to the aforesaid Order marked A was transferred to and became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the property aforesaid is not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but some portions thereof are, on account of their character or situation, unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the said property or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said property or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty's reign all or any part of the said property heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Norwich and so transferred to and vested in us as aforesaid with its appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sales from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Lord Haversham.

Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the two archdeacons of Rochester and Tonbridge, in the diocese of Rochester, and to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeacons.

“Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, the said archdeaconry of Tonbridge was constituted and the rural deaneries or some of them in the said archdeaconry of Tonbridge and in the said archdeaconry of Rochester were rearranged.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said archdeacons of Rochester and Tonbridge and with respect to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeacons are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, firstly, the two rural deaneries of East Dartford and West Dartford in the said archdeaconry of Rochester shall be abolished and four new rural deaneries shall be formed within the same archdeaconry and shall be named ‘The Rural Deanery of Dartford,’ ‘The Rural Deanery of Beckenham,’ ‘The Rural Deanery of Bromley,’ and ‘The Rural Deanery of Cliffe at Hoo,’ secondly, a new rural deanery shall be formed within the said archdeaconry of Tonbridge and shall be named ‘The Rural Deanery of Sevenoaks,’ and thirdly, the said archdeacons of Rochester and Tonbridge shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries the names of which are set down in order under its name, and are numbered consecutively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in such schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church, the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any rural deanery in the first column of the said schedule shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery and archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the rural deanery, and of the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry under which it is so set down as aforesaid, and shall not belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery or archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or Archdeacon.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of East Molesey, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

simple without incumbrances in the Provost of the King's College of Blessed Mary and Saint Nicholas of Cambridge and the scholars of the same college (hereinafter called the present patrons).

"And whereas the present patrons are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of East Molesey now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, now Bishop of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of East Molesey which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of East Molesey aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the present patrons (in testimony whereof their common or corporate seal has been affixed to this scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of East Molesey now vested in the present patrons as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, the new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, and the new parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, all in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the following month, a certain part of the parish of Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, and at that time in the diocese of Winchester, but now in the said diocese of Southwark, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Emmanuel, situate at Streatham Common, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Emmanuel, Streatham.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Instrument bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and being under our Common Seal and under the hand and seal of the late Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Winchester, a particular district was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, Streatham, and the said particular district was named 'The Particular District of Saint Peter, Streatham.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the following month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Lower Streatham, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Emmanuel, Streatham, the said particular district of Saint Peter, Streatham, and the said district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, and the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, and the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, shall be altered so that (firstly) all those portions of the said parish of Streatham and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, which are described in the first schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, and (secondly) all those portions of the said new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, which are described in the second schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Streatham, and (thirdly) all that portion of the said new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, which is described in the third schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured blue, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of King's Norton in the county of Worcester now vested in us.

And whereas the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnot, Lord Bishop of Manchester, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Lord Archbishop of York, as follows:—

“We, the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnot, by Divine permission Lord Bishop of Manchester, do hereby represent to your Grace, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled ‘An Act to abridge the holding of Benefices in plurality and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy’; and also a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the same reign intituled ‘An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches and chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes.’

“That, by Order in Council dated the sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, a district was annexed to the church of Saint Mary and All Saints, Goodshaw, therein called All Saints, Goodshaw, within the diocese of Manchester and county of Lancaster, and the said parish contains, according to the last census, taken in one thousand nine hundred and one, a population of two thousand five hundred and ninety-two, and that adjoining the said parish there are certain extra-parochial districts commonly known by the name of the old township of Dunnockshaw.

“That the parishes immediately adjoining the aforesaid parish of Saint Mary and All Saints, Goodshaw, are the parishes of Saint Leonard, Padiham, and Saint Matthew the Apostle, Habergham Eaves, both also situate within the diocese of Manchester and county of Lancaster.

“That the present parish church of Saint Mary and All Saints, Goodshaw, contains six hundred and forty sittings, which it is considered is sufficient seating accommodation for the present parishioners of the parish, as well as for the parishioners of the proposed additional district.

“That the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Mary and All Saints, Goodshaw, has a good and sufficient house, together with an annual income of two hundred and fifty-eight pounds derived from endowment, glebe land and fees, and that the patronage of his said benefice belongs to the trustees of the estates devised by the late William Hulme, Esquire.

“That the patronage of the benefice of Saint Leonard, Padiham, aforesaid, belongs to E. A. Le Gendre Starkie, of Hantroyd, in the county of Lancaster aforesaid, Esquire, and the patronage of the benefice of Saint Matthew the Apostle, Habergham Eaves, is vested in the Rector of Burnley and his successors.

“That it appears to us that the old township of Dunnockshaw, hatched pink on the plan annexed hereto, together with the portions of the parish of Saint Leonard, Padiham aforesaid, coloured blue on the plan annexed hereto, containing five hundred and eighty acres or thereabouts, and the portion of the parish of Saint Matthew the Apostle, Habergham Eaves aforesaid, coloured brown on the plan annexed hereto, containing about five hundred and fifty acres, as shown on the plan annexed hereto (the new boundary practically following the line of the watershed), should, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament, 1 and 2 Vict., cap. 106, and 2 and 3 Vict., cap. 49, be advantageously separated from the said parishes of Saint Leonard, Padiham, and Saint Matthew the Apostle, Habergham Eaves, and, together with the extra-parochial township of Dunnockshaw, hatched pink, be annexed to and form part of the said parish of Saint Mary and All Saints, Goodshaw.”

And whereas the said Bishop hath drawn up a scheme in the words and figures following:—

“SCHEME.

“1. The territory to be dissevered from the parish of Saint Leonard Padiham in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, and to be annexed to the parish of Saint Mary and All Saints Goodshaw in the same county and diocese, being:—

A. W. FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order in Council refers.

BYE-LAWS made by the New Ross Harbour Commissioners acting as the Pilotage Authority of the Port of New Ross under and by virtue of The New Ross Port and Harbour Amendment Act, 1861, and The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

1. The following Bye-Laws shall come into force on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine, as from which date all previous Bye-Laws relating to Pilotage at New Ross shall be and are hereby repealed.

2. The New Ross Pilotage District shall be worked from two Stations, namely:—The Pilotage House at Snow Hill and New Ross. An efficient staff of qualified Pilots shall be maintained at each station.

3. 5. All complaints, petitions, memorials, etc., from the Pilots shall be sent to the Pilot Master, who will forward them to the Commissioners.

6. The Pilots shall receive monthly three-fourths of the amount of Pilotage rates paid by the vessels piloted, and the same shall be divided equally among the Pilots on Duty. The remainder of the Pilotage receipts shall be devoted to a fund to be called the "Pilotage Pension Fund," to defray pensions, superannuations, and sick money.

7. The Pilotage Pension Fund shall be invested at the discretion of the Harbour Commissioners, and the interest thereon credited to that Fund.

Every person to whom such certificate, or similar certificate from the Board of Trade has been, or shall be granted, shall attend the meetings of the Commissioners upon being required to do so by notice in writing under the hand of the Pilot Master, or the Secretary to the Commissioners to answer any complaint or charge which may be made against him, or to give any information that may be required.

18. Every person who may hereafter receive from the Commissioners a pilotage certificate under the 599th section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, shall pay a sum of two guineas for same, and one pound for each annual renewal thereof. Each candidate for such certificate shall prepay the examination fee of two guineas, and in case of failure to pass at first examination he shall be entitled to be re-examined free of charge within twelve months.

19. Every Pilot shall be superannuated on reaching the age of sixty-five. This bye-law shall not be taken to prevent the Commissioners

(a) From superannuating a Pilot by resolution at any time.

(b) From deciding by resolution to retain a Pilot in the Pilot service after that age, on condition that any Pilot so retained shall be deemed to be so retained from month to month only.

20. 21. All applications for reduction or refund of pilotage rates shall be made within a fortnight of the date of the service in respect of which it is claimed, otherwise such application shall not be entertained unless under special circumstances.

22. Any Master or person in charge of a vessel outward bound who shall require the services of a Pilot must give notice thereof at the Harbour Office twenty-four hours at least before he is ready to go down the river, must state the hour at which he may want the Pilot, and should he not be ready to proceed within twenty-four hours from that time he shall pay the Pilot five shillings and a like sum for each tide he shall subsequently detain him, or the Pilot is to be withdrawn and another not supplied until a second requisition be furnished. Steam vessels requiring Pilots at shorter notice will be supplied with same whenever practicable.

23. For any infringement of the Pilotage Rules or Regulations or for any neglect of duty a Pilot licensed by the Commissioners and every Master or Mate holding a Pilotage Certificate from the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings or to suspension or annulment of his license or certificate.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid :

And whereas there was this day read at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 5 of the Naval Savings Banks Act, 1866, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Your Majesty in Council from time to time to make, by Order in Council, such Regulations as to Your Majesty in Council seem meet for the management of Naval Savings Banks, and that such Regulations shall be binding on all parties interested in the matters to which they relate as if they were enacted in that Act ;

"And whereas under the said Regulations, which were graciously sanctioned by Your Order in Council bearing date the twenty-second October, one thousand nine hundred and six, it is provided that, on a Depositor being discharged from the Service or ceasing by promotion to be eligible to continue a Depositor, no further interest shall accrue on his deposits ;

"And whereas this intention was not clearly expressed in previous Regulations framed from time to time by Order in Council ;

"And whereas we are of opinion that it would therefore be inequitable to apply this provision to Depositors who, prior to the issue of the present Regulations, ceased to be eligible to continue as such owing to discharge from the Service or promotion ;

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid, Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to direct that actual Depositors discharged or promoted prior to the twenty-sixth October, one thousand nine hundred and six, the date of issue of the present Regulations, may withdraw the amount of their deposits with interest calculated to the last day of the month preceding the date of withdrawal, instead of as provided in the Regulations aforesaid.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, has taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval thereof, and, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission, dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid :

And whereas there was this day read at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twelfth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by an Order in Council of Her late Majesty, bearing date the twenty-second November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, a special allowance of one shilling and sixpence a day was authorized for the Private, Royal Marines (Tailor by trade), employed as Tailor and Storekeeper at the Royal Marine Clothing Depôt, Malta :

"And whereas, in order to maintain the efficiency of the Depôt, it has been found necessary to employ Royal Marines thereat in the capacities of Clerk, Assistant Clerk, Assistant Tailor and Beltfitter, in addition to the one authorized as Tailor :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment, to the men so engaged, on each day of actual employment, of Extra Pay, under the scale laid down in Article 1459, clause 3, class III, of the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service, with retrospective effect as from the sixth March, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, has taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby,

by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval thereof, and, on behalf of His Majesty order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

"And whereas we consider that it would be in the interests of Your Majesty's Naval Service and to the benefit of the Petty Officers, seamen and boys of the Royal Navy and of the Non-commissioned Officers and men of the Royal Marines serving in Your Majesty's ships and establishments at home, when granted leave of absence from duty, if they were paid in advance part of the wages and allowances which would accrue to them during the period of such leave of absence:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment in advance to such seamen and marines of sums not exceeding four-sevenths of the wages and allowances which would accrue to them while on leave, subject to such conditions and limitations as we may from time to time deem desirable.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, has taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy

"And whereas we have had under consideration the Extra Pay and Store Allowances at present paid to Officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable to remove certain anomalies in the payment of Extra Pay which have arisen in consequence of the changed conditions of service in vessels of Your Majesty's Navy out of commission, to award and consolidate the existing scales of Extra Pay, and to give the designation of Hard-lying Money to Extra Pay when paid for living under special conditions:

"And whereas we consider that the duties in connection with the charge of stores (combined in some instances with responsible duties in Repair Ships) are of sufficient importance to warrant the grant of special allowances in ships and establishments in which allowances are not payable under existing regulations:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payments set forth in the following schedules.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

- Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on his Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas there was this day read at the Council held under the Authority of the said Commission, a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the duties devolving upon the Accountant Officers of Depôt Ships for Torpedo Boat Destroyers in home waters are so onerous and responsible as to merit the grant of extra remuneration:

"And whereas the extent of these duties varies with the size of the flotillas, and the flotillas themselves are liable to be reconstituted from time to time to suit the requirements of Your Majesty's Fleet:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize the grant of an allowance to the Senior Accountant Officer of any Depôt Ship for Torpedo Boat Destroyers in the Fleets in home waters according to the following scale:—

2s. 6d. a day when the average numbers borne per Quarter in Depôt Ship and Tenders exceed	1,000 payment to commence as from the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, has taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval thereof, and, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

And whereas there was this day read at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and nine, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the church of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, in the county of Buckingham, and in the churchyard:

And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, by the Local Government Board, that the said Order, so far as it affects the church and churchyard of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the fifteenth February, one thousand nine hundred and nine, as relates to burials in the church of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, in the county of Buckingham, and in the churchyard, be varied by the addition thereto of the following excepting clause:—

LANGLEY MARISH (Saint Thomas, Colnbrook):—
In the said churchyard, in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of Mr. William G. Archer, at his decease, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
