AKBAR NAUTICAL SCHOOL.

Certificate for New Premises at Heswall.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that, in pursuance of the provisions of the Children Act, 1908 (8 Edw. VII, c. 67), he has certified as a Reformatory School, to be known as the "Akbar Nautical School," certain new premises erected at Heswall, near Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, by the Liverpool Juvenile Reformatory Association, Limited.

The new School takes the place of the temporary camp buildings at Heswall, also known as the "Akbar Nautical School," where boys committed to the "Akbar" Reformatory School Ship, which was abandoned in November, 1907, and boys subsequently committed to the School, have been housed for the past two years.

The Certificate, which bears date the 19th April, 1909, authorizes the reception into the School of 210 boys.

Whitehall, 19th April, 1909.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, April 19, 1909.

H. 5243.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated April 10th, from His Majesty's Representative at Copenhagen, which reports that medical inspection on account of cholera has been discontinued on arrivals from Russian and Finnish Baltic ports and the Russian ports on the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov, with the exception of St. Petersburg and Cronstadt. It is still enforced on arrivals from the Red Sea and Egyptian ports and from Tonkin, Cochiu China, and the East Indies, including the Netherlands East Indies.
