So much of the road leading from Puckeridge to Barkway as extends for a distance of 50 yards from its junction with High-street; and

So much of the road leading from Puckeridge to Standon as extends for a distance of 160 yards from its junction with High-street.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-fourth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

John Burns,
President.

H. C. Monro, Assistant-Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of Hertford.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Hertford have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising so much of the main road (Watling-street) from Park-street to Colney-street, within the parish of St. Stephen, as extends from Park-street Station to Parkbury Lodge, Colney-street.

Notice is hereby further given that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board, at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the sixteenth day of June, 1909.

A copy of any such objections should be sent at the same time by the objector to the County

Council, addressed to the Clerk to the County Council of Hertford, Hertford.

Dated this twenty-sixth day of May, 1909.

H. C. Monro, Assistant-Secretary,
Local Government Board.
