By The KING.
A PROCLAMATION
FOR A BANK HOLIDAY.

EDWARD R. & I.

We, considering that it is desirable that Wednesday, the seventh day of July next, should be observed as a Bank Holiday in the City of Birmingham, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bank Holidays Act, 1871," do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Act aforesaid, appoint Wednesday, the seventh day of July next, as a special day to be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout the City of Birmingham, under and in accordance with the said Act, and We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, command the said day to be so observed, and all Our loving subjects to order themselves accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable Albert Henry George, Earl Grey, G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., and the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Matthew Darley, G.C.M.G., having been appointed Members of

His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 1st day of August, 1908, and the 20th day of November, 1905, respectively, were, by His Majesty's command, sworn, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day Charles Edward Henry Hobhouse, Esquire, M.P., and Russell Rea, Esquire, M.P., were, by His Majesty's command, respectively sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two) chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain improvements at the episcopal house of residence belonging to the See of Chester, which is known as The Palace, Chester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Francis John, now Bishop of Chester, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said episcopal house of residence, and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said improvements a sum of five hundred pounds (being a sum which together with the amount of the outstanding balance of the sum already borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Chester.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis John, Bishop of Chester (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding five hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of twenty years or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following: that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one fifteenth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Francis John, now Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Offley, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Offley is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, of Offley Place, Hitchin, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, during his life, and the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Offley should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of Saint Albans, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinafter mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Offley, which is hereinafter mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Offley.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of Henrietta Louise Hughes, wife of the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, Guy Salusbury Hughes and John Salusbury Hughes, sons of the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, and Walter John Mansfield Hughes, brother of the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Offley shall be transferred to the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, Henrietta Louise Hughes, Guy Salusbury Hughes, John Salusbury Hughes, and Walter John Mansfield Hughes, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert George Salusbury Hughes, Henrietta Louise Hughes, Guy Salusbury Hughes, John Salusbury Hughes, and Walter John Mansfield Hughes their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Combe Down, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Combe Down is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Carr Glyn Acworth, of Moreton House, Westerham, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Carr Glyn Acworth is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Combe Down now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul in Bath, commonly called the rectory of Bath Abbey, and his successors.

"And whereas the Reverend Sydney Adolphus Boyd, Clerk in Holy Orders, now Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of Bath Abbey, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Wyndham, now Bishop of Bath and Wells, has to the same transfer given that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, and in token of the same consent has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Combe Down which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Combe Down.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Carr Glyn Acworth (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Sydney Adolphus Boyd, Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of Bath Abbey, acting as such Rector or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells, (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Combe Down now vested in him the said Carr Glyn Acworth as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Sydney Adolphus Boyd, and to his successors, Rectors or Incumbents of the said rectory of Bath Abbey, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Sydney Adolphus Boyd and by his successors, Rectors or Incumbents of the said rectory of Bath Abbey, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Fleckney, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Fleckney is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Mary Caroline, Dowager Countess of Lovelace (hereinafter called the Dowager Countess of Lovelace) as trustee upon trust in the first place for herself during her life and she, the said Dowager Countess of Lovelace, is therefore the patron r person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Dowager Countess of Lovelace is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Fleckney should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Peterborough.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Carr, now Bishop of Peterborough, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Fleckney which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Fleckney.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Dowager Countess of Lovelace being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Fleckney shall be transferred to the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime district) of Darnall, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Darnall is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Darnall which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of divine worship.

"And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an Order of the High Court of Chancery dated the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four confirming a scheme for the future application of the income of the trust property of the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield, in the said county of York, and of an Order of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, dated the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four in partial variation of the scheme established by the said first mentioned Order, the said Burgesses and Commonalty have proposed to appropriate the sum of two hundred pounds per annum out of that part of the income of their trust property which is applicable to ecclesiastical purposes in and towards the endowment of the district herein proposed to be constituted.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have signified by a writing bearing date the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, under our common seal our approval of and consent to the proposed endowment of the said proposed district."

"And whereas the said endowment of two hundred pounds per annum has been so appropriated as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned to the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of Sheffield aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Darnall which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Alban, Darnall.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be vested in and shall be exercised by the said Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield and their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district) of Darnall, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which is bounded upon the east by the parochial chapelry of Tinsley, upon the north by the new parish of Saint Bartholomew, Carbrook, upon the north-west partly by the last named new parish and partly by the new parish of Attercliffe, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the aqueduct which carries the Sheffield and Tinsley Canal across Darnall-road where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Attercliffe from the said new parish of Darnall diverges from the middle of the said aqueduct, and extending thence along the middle of the said aqueduct for a distance of half a chain or thereabouts to the point where such aqueduct crosses the middle of Darnall-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Darnall-road for a distance of thirty-two chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Basford-street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Basford-street for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Copster-road, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of Copster-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of Car Brook, and continuing thence south-eastward in the last mentioned direction and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the said brook upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Darnall from the said parochial chapelry of Tinsley."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Sydenham, situate in the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bell Green, Lower Sydenham, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, Sydenham, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bell Green, Lower Sydenham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, Sydenham, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Sydenham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints, Sydenham, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bell Green, Lower Sydenham, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon the north-west by the district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, upon the west by the district parish of Saint Bartholomew, Sydenham, upon the south by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Penge-lane, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at a point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Penge-lane, from the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bell Green, Lower Sydenham, crosses the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises on the eastern side of the road called Fairlawn Park, and extending thence northward along the said wall or fence for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point where the said wall or fence forms the western boundary of the Home Park Recreation Ground, and extending thence first north-westward, then south-westward, then again north-westward, and then north-eastward along the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the said recreation ground for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such wall or fence meets the south-eastern side of Sydenham-road, and extending thence first north-westward to and then south-westward along the middle of Sydenham-road, for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Highclere-street, and extending thence first north-westward, then westward, and then northward along the middle of Highclere-street for a distance of fifteen chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Burghill-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Burghill-road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Champion-crescent, and extending thence first northward, and then north-eastward, along the middle of Champion-crescent for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the wall forming the western boundary of the premises belonging to the Saint Michael and All Angels Infants' School, and extending thence first north-westward to and then northward along the said wall for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Adamsrill-road, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line diagonally across Adamsrill-road for a distance of fifteen yards or thereabouts to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Numbers 55 and 57, Adamsrill-road, and extending thence northward along such wall or fence for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its northern end, and extending thence northward in a straight line for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the junction of the passage running along the backs of the houses and premises on the southern side of Queenswood-road with the passage running between the houses known as Number 46 and Number 44, Queenswood-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned passage for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to the point where it meets the southern side of Queenswood-road, and extending thence in a straight line diagonally across Queenswood-road for a distance of fourteen yards or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the southern end of the roadway running between the houses known as Number 41 and Number 35, Queenswood-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of such roadway for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway running along the backs of the houses and premises on the northern side of Queenswood-road, and extending thence northward in a straight line for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the south-western corner of the westernmost of the houses known as Shaw's Cottages and extending thence northward along the western side of the said house for a distance of half a chain or thereabouts to its north-western corner, and extending thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of half a chain or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the footpath on the northern side of Shaw's Cottages upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bell Green, Lower Sydenham, from the said district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Brislington, in the parish of Brislington, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Brislington as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Brislington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Brislington as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Brislington.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Brislington as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Brislington, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Brislington, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which is bounded upon the east, and upon the north by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Bristol, upon the north-west partly by the new parish of Saint George, partly by the new parish of Saint Luke, Barton Hill, and partly by the new parish of Saint Silas, Bristol, all in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Bristol, upon the south-west and upon part of the south by the new parish of the Holy Nativity, Knowle, in the said county of Somerset and in the said diocese of Bristol, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Nativity, Knowle, from the said parish of Brislington crosses the middle of Bath-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Bath-road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sandy Park-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Sandy Park-road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sandhurst-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Sandhurst-road for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Sandown-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Sandown-road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with Upper Sandhurst-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Upper Sandhurst-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sandwich-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Sandwich-road for a distance of six chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Sandringham-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Sandringham-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Upper Sandhurst-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Upper Sandhurst-road for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Wick-road upon the boundary of the county borough of Bristol, and extending thence first north-eastward and then in various directions along the said boundary (thereby following in part the middle of Wick-road, the middle of First-avenue and the middle of Saint Anne's Park-road) for a distance of one mile or thereabouts to the point where such boundary turns south-westward along the northern bank of the River Avon, and extending thence south-eastward in a straight line for a distance of fifteen yards or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the River Avon where the boundaries of the said parish of Brislington, the parish of Hanham, in the said county of Gloucester and in the said diocese of Bristol, and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Bristol, all meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Military Manœuvres Act, 1897, it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, authorize the execution of military manœuvres within specified limits during a specified period not exceeding three months.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by virtue of the power for this purpose given to His Majesty by the said Act, and of every other power hereunto enabling, His Majesty doth hereby authorize the execution of military manœuvres within the limits specified in the Schedule to this Order during the period of three calendar months commencing from the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

And the Right Honourable the Principal Secretary of State for the War Department is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Honourable Herbert Louis Samuel, the Oath of Office as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster was accordingly this day taken by him.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, June 28, 1909.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Magdalen College, Oxford, on the 1st day of February, and the 26th day of May, 1909, amending certain of the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE to amend the existing Statutes of Magdalen College in the University of Oxford, duly made at General Meetings of the President and Fellows especially summoned for this purpose on the first day of February and the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine respectively, and passed at such meetings by the votes of two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Statute for Magdalen College made by the College under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

Preliminary.

This Statute is supplementary to the existing Statutes of the College, that is to say, the Statutes dated the 16th day of June, 1881, made for the College by the University of Oxford Commissioners (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1881), as altered by the Statutes dated the 10th day of August, 1888, the Statutes dated the 7th day of March, 1899 (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1899), the Statutes dated the 15th day of September, 1902, and the Statutes dated the 10th day of May, 1905, made by the College under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

Chapel Services.

So much of the clause numbered 3 of the Statutes of 1881 as to Chapel Services as relates to the right of Chaplains to occupy rooms in College rent free is hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not affect such right of any Chaplain appointed before the date of the approval of this Statute by His Majesty in Council. The President and Fellows may if they so think fit assign rooms rent free to any Chaplain.

Pensions.

Every Tutor appointed after the date of the approval of this Statute by His Majesty in Council shall vacate his Tutorship on attaining the age of 60 or, if he shall not then have completed fifteen years of service, so soon thereafter as he shall have completed that term, and shall thereupon be entitled to a pension on the scale authorised by the Statute as to Pensions in the Statutes of 1899, provided that such pension shall in no case be less than one half the maximum amount therein authorised.

The Common Seal of the President and Scholars of the College of St. Mary Magdalen, in the University of Oxford, was hereunto affixed in the presence of

G. E. Baker,
Bursar.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has appointed The Right Honourable Herbert Louis Samuel to be Steward and Bailiff of the Three Hundreds of Chiltern.

Whitehall, June 22, 1909.

The following Rules have been signed by the Lord Chancellor :—

THE SUMMARY JURISDICTION (CHILDREN ACT) RULES, 1909, DATED 27TH MAY, 1909.

I. The security which a Court of Summary Jurisdiction may, under section 99 (2) of the Children Act, 1908, require a parent or guardian to give for the good behaviour of a child or young person shall be given by way of recognizance; and the forms relating to recognizances prescribed by the Summary Jurisdiction Rules, 1886, or forms to like effect, shall be applicable thereto with such variations as circumstances may require. Security for good behaviour of child or young person.

II. When an order is made by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for a contribution to the maintenance of a child under section 75 of the Children Act, 1908, the Clerk of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction shall within three days from the date of the order send by post to the Chief Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools a copy of the order. Copy of order on parent to contribute to be sent to Chief Inspector.

III. An order made under section 75 of the Children Act, 1908, on a parent or other person liable to maintain a child or young person, may be served by any Constable or School Attendance Officer or Agent of the Chief Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools by delivering a copy of such order to the person on whom it is made, or by leaving the same at such person's last known place of abode with some other person for him. Service on parent of order to contribute.

IV. The time within which an application may be made to the Court against an order made under section 75 of the Children Act, 1908, on a parent or other person liable to maintain a child or young person shall be one month after service of a copy of the order. Time within which application may be made against order to contribute.

V. Where a child or young person is arrested or charged with any offence, or where an application is made to a petty sessional court for an order to send him to a certified industrial school, a summons or warrant may be issued by a court of summary jurisdiction to enforce the attendance of a parent or guardian for the purposes mentioned in Section 98 (3) of the Children Act, 1908, in the same manner as if an information were laid or complaint made upon which a summons, or warrant, could be issued against a defendant under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts or the Indictable Offences Act, 1848; and a summons to the child or young person may include a summons to the parent or guardian to enforce his attendance for the said purpose. Summons to enforce attendance of parent or guardian.

VI. The forms in Schedule A hereto, or forms to the like effect, may be used with such variations as circumstances may require for the purposes of the Children Act, 1908, and for the purposes of the Elementary Education Act, 1876. Forms.

Forms 3, 5, 6, 7, and 8 may be used, as circumstances require, in substitution for Forms 10, 11, 12, 14, and 15 in the Schedule to the Summary Jurisdiction Rules, 1886.

Where a young person is committed to prison on remand or commitment for trial (under section 97 of the Children Act, 1908) or upon conviction of an offence or in default of payment of a fine, damages, or costs (under section 102 of the Children Act, 1908), the Court shall certify, in using Forms 10, 11, 12, or 15 in the Schedule to the Summary Jurisdiction Rules, 1886, either that "the young person is of so unruly a character that he cannot be detained in a place of detention," or that "he is of so depraved a character that he is not a fit person to be detained in a place of detention."

VII. These Rules may be cited as the Summary Jurisdiction (Children Act) Rules 1909; and are in substitution for the Rules made and declared urgent on the 23rd March, 1909, and gazetted on the 26th March following, which latter Rules are hereby annulled. Title and repeals.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 28th June, 1909.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient, in consequence of the inclusion in the Union of Southampton, as constituted by Local Government Board Order No. 51727, dated 24th January, 1908, and which took effect from and after 25th March, 1908, of the civil parishes of Portwood and Shirley, which had previously formed part of the Union of South Stoneham, that (a) Portwood Civil Parish should be transferred from South Stoneham Sub-district of South Stoneham Registration District to Southampton Eastern Sub-district of Southampton Registration District; and (b) that Shirley Civil Parish should be transferred from Millbrook Sub-district of South Stoneham

Registration District to Southampton Western Sub-district of Southampton Registration District.

2. Now, therefore, I, Sir William Cospatrick Dunbar, Bart., C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on 1st day of July, nineteen hundred and nine.

Witness my hand this 28th day of June, nineteen hundred and nine.

Wm. C. Dunbar, Registrar-General.

General Register Office,
Somerset House, London.

APPROVAL OF DIVISION OF SOUTHAMPTON UNION INTO REGISTRARS' SUB-DISTRICTS.

In pursuance of the Act of Parliament, 6 and 7 William IV, c. 86, as amended by the Act, 37 and 38 Vict., c. 88, and 1 Edward VII, c. 26, wherein it is enacted that the Guardians shall divide the Union or the parish or place of which they are the Guardians into such and so many sub-districts as they, subject to the approval of the Registrar-General, shall think fit, I, Sir William Cospatrick Dunbar, Bart., C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in England, hereby declare that I approve of the plan or statement hereinafter specified, as made and submitted to me for approval, according to the provisions of the aforesaid Act, by the Guardians of Southampton Union as constituted by the Local Government Board Order No. 51727, dated 24th January, 1908, namely:—

That the Southampton Union shall be divided into two Registrars' Sub-districts, to be called—Southampton Eastern Sub-district, and Southampton Western Sub-district.

That the boundary between the two Sub-districts shall be, as set forth by the Guardians, the centre of the principal thoroughfare extending from the Town Quay in a northerly direction through the Union, and named successively High-street, Above Bar, and The Avenue, and continued thence across the Common to the northern boundary of the Union.

And I direct that such division shall take effect on and after the first day of July, 1909.

And whereas it is enacted, in the aforesaid Act of Parliament, that every such division, when made, shall be published by the Guardians in such manner as the said Registrar-General shall direct.

I hereby direct the Guardians of Southampton Union to publish such division so approved by me, as aforesaid, by causing this division to be inserted as an advertisement in one or more newspapers circulating in the Union and by affixing on the principal door of every church and chapel within the said Union of which they are the Guardians, or in such other place as is ordinarily made use of for affixing notices of parochial business, a copy of this Order in writing, and also to give notice in such other mode as may usually have been adopted.

Witness my hand this 28th day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

Wm. C. Dunbar, Registrar-General.
