TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1909.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860 and 1898, that is to say the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860 and 1898, that is to say, the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a union of two contiguous benefices situate within the Metropolis, and within the diocese of London, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Pancras, and the benefice (being a vicarage) of All Saints, Gordon-square, and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting a union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals were prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the firstly mentioned Act, and were approved by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and were assented to by the patrons of the two benefices to be affected thereby, that is to say, by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, as the patrons of the said benefice and vicarage of Saint Pancras, and by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as the patron of the said benefice and vicarage of All Saints, Gordon-square, and the same proposals were also assented to, subject to certain modifications, by the vestries of the parishes concerned, that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Pancras and by the vestry of the parish of All Saints, Gordon-square.

“And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter contained should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said benefice of Saint Pancras is now full, the Reverend Edmund Lionel Metcalfe, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent thereof, and the said benefice of All Saints, Gordon-square, is also now full, the Reverend John Arthur Garton, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent thereof.

“And whereas the said Edmund Lionel Metcalfe has consented to become the first Incumbent of the united benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect.

“And whereas the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and as such patron of the said benefice of All Saints,

Gordon-square, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London as the patrons of the said benefice of Saint Pancras, and the vestries of the said parishes respectively, are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly, but otherwise is based upon the said proposals.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London (in testimony whereof they have affixed their capitular seal to this scheme), and with the consents of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Pancras, and of the vestry of the said parish of All Saints, Gordon-square (in testimony of which consents this scheme is signed in the case of each of the said vestries by the chairman of a meeting of the said vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned as follows:—

" PART I.

"As to the proposed union itself and certain immediate incidents thereof, we recommend and propose:—

"1. That the said benefice of Saint Pancras, and the said benefice of All Saints, Gordon-square, be united into one benefice under the style of 'The Benefice of Saint Pancras,' which said united benefice is hereinafter called the United Benefice.

"2. That, if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, the benefice of All Saints, Gordon-square, shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect, and the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Pancras shall be the first Incumbent of the united benefice, but, if both of the said present benefices shall be full, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said benefice of All Saints, Gordon-square, and the then Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Pancras shall be the first Incumbent of the united benefice, and it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the said diocese of London to admit to the united benefice such first Incumbent without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the Incumbent of the united benefice. Until the time of the union taking effect the said two benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof and of the Incumbents of each of them shall remain unaffected.

" PART II.

"As to the parish church of the united benefice and the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, and certain officers of the same and certain matters connected therewith, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect the church of Saint Pancras shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"2. That upon the union taking effect the font, communion table, sacramental plate, furniture and fittings of the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, or such of them as the vestry of the church of the united benefice shall select, shall be transferred to the church of the united benefice; but such of these articles as shall not be claimed by the said vestry for the church of the united benefice shall be transferred to the church of the proposed new benefice hereinafter mentioned, or to such other church or chapel within the diocese of London as the Bishop may select. Provided always, that any articles that shall not be appropriated in any of the above ways, except the font, communion table and sacramental plate, may be sold and the proceeds shall be added to the aggregate fund which is contemplated by clause three of Part V of this scheme.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united parishes.

"4. That upon the final closing of the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, the register books of baptisms, marriages and burials of the parish of All Saints, Gordon-square, and any monuments in All Saints' Church which may not be claimed by those who, under the said Union of Benefices Act, 1860, have a right to claim them, shall be transferred to the church of the united benefice.

"5. That upon the union taking effect any of the church servants of the church of Saint Pancras and of the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, whose services shall in consequence of the union be no longer required, shall be entitled to no compensation for the loss of his, her or their offices except such gratuity or gratuities (if any) as we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the said diocese of London may assign to them out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinafter recommended and proposed.

" PART III.

"As to the endowments of the united benefice we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect all the properties, revenues and income constituting the endowments (present and future) of the vicarage of Saint Pancras, and of the vicarage of All Saints, Gordon-square, shall be transferred and annexed to the united benefice.

"2. That upon the union taking effect the present parsonage house of the vicarage of Saint Pancras shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice, and the present parsonage house of the vicarage of All Saints, Gordon-square, shall be put into repair and purchased by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as a parsonage house for the benefice of Christ Church, Woburn-square, in the said diocese of London, out of the moneys held by us for or towards providing a parsonage house for the said benefice of Christ Church, Woburn-square, and the consideration money paid for such purchase shall be applied for or towards the provision of a parsonage house within the limits of the proposed new district hereinafter mentioned.

" PART IV.

"Upon the subject of patronage, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"That the patronage of the united benefice shall be vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London and their successors for ever, and that the patronage of the new church and benefice, which are referred to in Part VI of this scheme, shall be vested in the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors for ever.

“PART V.

“As to the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, and the site and appurtenances thereof and as to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture or fittings of the same church, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose:—

“1. That, as soon as conveniently may be, after the union has taken effect the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, be taken down.

“2. That subject to the provisions contained in clause two of Part II of this scheme the furniture or fittings, and the materials and site of the said church together with any ground annexed thereto, and necessary for the use or enjoyment thereof shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, such sale or disposal being made in all respects subject to the provisions contained in the seventeenth section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1860.

“3. That the net proceeds to arise from the sale or sales to be made by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as aforesaid, of the site and materials and furniture or fittings of the said church, shall form one aggregate fund and shall be applied as follows, and in the following order, that is to say:—

“(a) That we shall out of the said proceeds first make provision for the payment of the gratuity or gratuities which are contemplated by clause five of Part II of this scheme.

“(b) That we shall, out of such moneys, next set apart such sum as shall appear to us and to the Bishop of London to be adequate for or towards the acquisition of a suitable site for and the erection of a new church for (and within the limits of) the new district constituted or to be constituted as contemplated by Part VI of this scheme.

“(c) That, if after providing the said proposed church for such new district there be any balance of funds remaining unappropriated, such balance shall be added to the fund for or towards the provision of a parsonage house within the limits of the said new district which is contemplated by clause two of Part III of this scheme.

“PART VI.

“As to a certain new district and benefice we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

“1. That an ecclesiastical district within the limits of the metropolis or its vicinity (such district then having been or then being about to be formed or legally constituted under some or one of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England authorising the formation or constitution of such district) shall be selected by the Bishop of London as the district for which a church and (if funds will permit) a parsonage house shall be provided out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“2. That when a church for such district has been built out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinbefore recommended, it shall be consecrated by the name and style of All Saints, unless otherwise determined by the Bishop of London.

“Provided always that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval, which by the seventeenth section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1860, are made requisite to the sale or letting or appropriation under the powers conferred by that Act of the site of any church, shall be obtained to the sale and appropriation hereby proposed of the church of All Saints, Gordon-square, and of the site thereof together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Pencarreg, in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint David's.

“Whereas under or by virtue of an Indenture of Settlement, dated the eighteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and made between Sir Pryse Pryse, Baronet, since deceased, of the first part, Pryse Pryse, since deceased, of the second part, and John Lewes and Isaac Williams of the third part, and in the events which have happened Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse, of Gogerddan, in the county of Cardigan, Baronet, is now tenant for life in possession of certain hereditaments and premises in the counties of Pembroke, Cardigan, Montgomery, and Merioneth, or elsewhere, and known as the Gogerddan Estates, of which the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pencarreg forms part, subject to three several mortgages in favour of Charles Kenneth Murchison, Maurice Tweedie, Harry Mitton Crookenden and Francis Henry Launclot Errington (hereinafter called the said mortgagees) and the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse is therefore the Patron or person entitled to nominate or present to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pencarreg should be transferred in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Saint David's, in token that the same transfer has the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Pencarreg which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Pencarreg.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and by the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and with the consent of the said mortgagees (in testimony of which consent he, the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse, and the said mortgagees have signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consents of the persons to whom together with the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson and perpetual right of patronage should be transferred, that is to say, with the consents of Dame Nina Katherine Angharad Webley-Parry-Pryse, wife of the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse, the Venerable David Williams, now Archdeacon of Cardigan, and George Rice Pryse, of Peithyll, Bow-street, in the said county of Cardigan, Esquire (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pencarreg shall be transferred to the said

Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse, Dame Nina Katherine Angharad Webley-Parry-Pryse, David Williams, and George Rice Pryse, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Sir Edward John Webley-Parry-Pryse, Dame Nina Katherine Angharad Webley-Parry-Pryse, David Williams, and George Rice Pryse, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint David's.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Staplegrove, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Staplegrove is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Helen Jane "And whereas the said Helen Jane Margaret Alleyne is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Staplegrove, now vested in her as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Wyndham, now Bishop of Bath and Wells, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Staplegrove, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Staplegrove.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Helen Jane Margaret Alleyne (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Staplegrove, now vested in her, the said Helen Jane Margaret Alleyne as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Wyndham, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850, that is to say, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850, that is to say, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint John, Ashley-lane, Moston, situate within the limits of the parish (sometime a district under the said Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850) of Christ Church, Harpurhey cum Moston, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes comprising a part of the said parish of Christ Church, Harpurhey cum Moston, shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint John, Ashley-lane, Moston, which church was not consecrated under the provisions of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Christ Church, Harpurhey cum Moston, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said parish of Christ Church, Harpurhey cum Moston, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint John, Ashley-lane, Moston, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint John, Ashley-lane, Moston.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint John, Ashley-lane, Moston, being:—

WHEREAS by virtue of the Judicial Committee Act, 1844, it is competent to His Majesty, by an Order or Orders to be from time to time for that purpose made with the advice of His Privy Council, to provide for the admission of any Appeal or Appeals to His Majesty in Council, from any judgments, sentences, decrees, or orders of any Court of Justice within any British Colony or possession abroad, although such Court shall not be a Court of Error or a Court of Appeal within such Colony or possession, and it is also competent to His Majesty, by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, to make all such provisions as to His Majesty in Council shall seem meet, for the instituting and prosecuting any such appeals, and for carrying into effect any such decisions or sentences as His Majesty in Council shall pronounce thereon.

And whereas by an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, dated the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, a Court of Appeal called the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, was erected and established for and in relation to the Colonies of Barbados, Grenada, St. Vincent, Tobago, and St. Lucia; and it was ordered that it should and it might be lawful for any person or persons to appeal to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors in Her or their Privy Council from any final Judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Court of Appeal, in such manner within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations and limitations as were thereafter mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient, with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which His Majesty's subjects in the British Dominions beyond the Seas shall have a right of appeal to His Majesty in Council, and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such Appeals, that provision should be made for the instituting and prosecuting of Appeals from the determinations of the Chief Justice of Barbados in the exercise of his legal, equitable, or ecclesiastical jurisdiction, to His Majesty in Council, and for carrying into effect such decisions or sentences as His Majesty in Council shall pronounce thereon, and that the rules and regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, concerning the manner in which the time within which and the limitations subject to which Appeals shall be made to His Majesty in Council from the said Court of Appeal sitting in Barbados should be revoked, and new provisions made for such last mentioned Appeals.

His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the said Order in Council of the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, so far as it contains any rules or regulations concerning the manner in which the time within which, and the limitations subject to which, Appeals shall be made to His Majesty in Council from the said Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, sitting in Barbados, be and the same is hereby revoked, and that all Appeals from the said Court of Appeal, and from the determinations of the said Chief Justice in the exercise of his said legal, equitable, or ecclesiastical jurisdiction, be made in accordance with the several Rules here unto annexed.

And it is hereby further ordered that this Order in Council shall take effect in the Colony of Barbados, on such day as shall be named for that purpose by any proclamation issued by the Officer administering the Government of that Colony.

Rules regulating the practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council, from the Superior Courts of Barbados and from the Windward Islands' Court of Appeal.

RULES.

1. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means Appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence, or decision;

"Court" means either the Court of Appeal established under the Barbados Windward Islands' Court of Appeal Act, 1857 (1857-1), or the Chief Justice of Barbados, in the exercise of his legal, equitable, or ecclesiastical jurisdiction;

"Record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal;

"Registrar" means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the Records in the Court appealed from;

"Month" means calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

2. Subject to the provisions of these Rules, an Appeal shall lie—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the Court, where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of three hundred pounds sterling or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or the value of three hundred pounds sterling or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the Appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges of the Court of Appeal, the final judgment may be entered pro forma, on the application of any party to such action, or other proceeding, according to the opinion of the Chief Justice or, in his absence, of the next Judge of the said Court of Appeal, in order of precedence, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within twenty-one days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the Applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

5. Leave to appeal under Rule 2 shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance—

(a) upon condition of the Appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding five hundred pounds, for the due prosecution of the Appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the Respondent in the event of the Appellant's not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the Appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the Appellant to pay the Respondent's costs of the Appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the Appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the Record and the dispatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

6. Where the judgment appealed from requires the Appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the Appeal, as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

7. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

9. Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether in Barbados or in England) shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of, and incidental to, such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

10. The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto. It may be so printed either in Barbados or in England.

11. Where the Record is printed in Barbados, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council forty copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal of the Court.

12. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

13. Where part of the Record is printed in Barbados and part is to be printed in England, Rules eleven and twelve shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in Barbados, and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by the judge, or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated, and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may, at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

17. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

19. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The Case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Barbados or in England and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer in taxing the costs of the Appeal shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Barbados, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. In the case of an Appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, sitting in Barbados, all or any of the functions or authorities, by these Rules conferred on such Court may, when the said Court of Appeal is not sitting in Barbados, be exercised by the Chief Justice.

29. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

A. W. FitzRoy.

WHEREAS by virtue of the Judicial Committee Act, 1844, it is competent to His Majesty by any Order or Orders to be from time to time for that purpose made with the advice of His Privy Council to provide for the admission of any Appeal or Appeals to His Majesty in Council from any judgments, sentences, decrees or orders of any Court of Justice within any British colony or possession abroad although such Court shall not be a Court of Error or a Court of Appeal within such colony or possession, and it is also competent to His Majesty by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid to make all such provisions as to His Majesty in Council shall seem meet for the instituting and prosecuting any such Appeals and for carrying into effect any such decisions or sentences as His Majesty in Council shall pronounce thereon :

And whereas in pursuance of the provisions of "An Act to authorize the establishment of Courts of Appeal for certain of Her (late) Majesty's West Indian Colonies" (13 and 14 Vic. c. 15), an Act was passed by the legislature of the colony of Grenada on the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and subsequently confirmed by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, providing for the establishment of a Court of Appeal in the said colony but enacting (inter alia) that nothing in such Act contained should prevent parties from appealing to Her Majesty in Council from the then established Courts in the said colony, under such regulations and upon such terms and conditions as Her late Majesty in Council should be pleased to establish :

And whereas the Supreme Court of Judicature in the said colony of Grenada, established at the date of the enactment in Grenada aforesaid, still continues to exist, but no rules or regulations have been made specially applicable in respect to the institution or prosecution of Appeals from such Court to His Majesty in Council :

And whereas, by an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council dated the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (made in further pursuance of the above named Act, 13 and 14 Vic. c. 15) a Court of Appeal called the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands was erected and established for and in relation to the colonies of Barbados, Grenada, Saint Vincent, Tobago and Saint Lucia, and it was ordered that it should and might be lawful for any person or persons to appeal to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council, from any final judgment, decree, order or sentence of the said Court of Appeal, in such manner, within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations and limitations, as were thereinafter mentioned :

And whereas, with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which His Majesty's subjects in the British Dominions beyond the Seas shall have a right to appeal to His Majesty in Council and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such Appeals, it is expedient that the said Order in Council of the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, should be amended by revoking all such portions thereof as consist of and provide rules and regulations concerning the manner, time, and limitations, in, within, under and subject to, which Appeals to His Majesty in Council can thereunder be made from the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, sitting in Grenada, and that the rules hereinafter mentioned should forthwith be made for the purpose of regulating the practice and procedure in all Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the colony of Grenada, whether coming from the said Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, sitting in Grenada, or from the said Supreme Court of Judicature :

His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby order that all such portions of the said Order in Council of the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, as contain or provide any rules or regulations concerning the manner in which, the time within which, and the limitations under and subject to which, Appeals should thereunder be made to His Majesty in Council from the said Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands, so far as such portions, contents or provisions concern the said Court, sitting in Grenada, shall be, and the same are hereby revoked :

16. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises, as in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

17. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

19. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where at the time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

22. Where the Record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

23. The Case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in the colony of Grenada or in England and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

24. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reason of Appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

25. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in the colony of Grenada, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

26. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

27. In the case of an Appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands sitting in the said colony of Grenada, all or any of the functions and authorities by these Rules conferred on such Court may, when the said Court of Appeal is not sitting in the said colony, be exercised by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Grenada.

28. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the Judges of the Court of Appeal, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding, according to the opinion of the Chief Justice, or, in his absence, of the next Judge of the said Court of Appeal in order of precedence, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an Appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within twenty-one days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the Applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

7. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Records all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

12. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

13. Where part of the Record is printed in the Colony of Saint Vincent and part is to be printed in England, Rules ten and eleven shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in the Colony of Saint Vincent and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by the judge or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the Record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

17. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

19. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

24. The Case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in the Colony of Saint Vincent or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively, and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in the Colony of Saint Vincent, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with and execute any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. In the absence of the Court of Appeal for the Windward Islands from the Colony of Saint Vincent, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature of the said Colony may exercise all or any of the functions and authorities by these Rules conferred on the said Court of Appeal.

29. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His

Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The Case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Western Australia or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively, and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of Appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Western Australia, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with and execute any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.
