Whitehall, July 14, 1909.

The following Addresses were presented to The King on the occasion of His Majesty's visit to Rugby on Saturday, the 3rd July, to open the new Speech Room at Rugby School:—

Address of the Urban District Council presented on His Majesty's Arrival at Rugby Station:—

To His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Members of the Urban District Council of Rugby, on behalf of our fellow townsmen, respectfully beg to tender to Your Majesty a most loyal and hearty welcome.

Although Rugby has been a market town since 1255, when "that good Lord King Henry III" granted it a Charter, its name till the middle of last century was known to the world at large chiefly in connection with its famous School.

Since that date the extensive works of the London and North Western Railway—its importance as a railway centre—and the establishment of great engineering and other works in its neighbourhood have made Rugby as well known to the commercial as it previously was to the educational world.

Long as its history is, Rugby has seldom had the honour of welcoming a Member of the Royal Family. In modern times there have been only two such opportunities. In 1839 Her Gracious Majesty Queen Adelaide paid a visit to the School under Dr. Arnold's headmastership, and was graciously pleased to witness a football match played under the rules which have made Rugby a household word, not only in Your Majesty's wide dominions but wherever the English language is spoken, as well as in many foreign lands.

Two years ago Her Royal Highness Princess Henry of Battenburg honoured the town with her presence, when she opened the Children's Wing of the Hospital of St. Cross.

But this is the first occasion in the history of Rugby that a reigning Sovereign has visited the town. The day will henceforth be a red-letter one in the annals of Rugby, and we rejoice to have the opportunity on this day of expressing our dutiful allegiance and our fervent hope that Your Majesty may long continue to reign in peace and prosperity over the Empire of which it is our privilege to form part.

Given under the seal of the Council this twenty-second day of June, 1909.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I have received with much gratification your Address of Welcome, and your loyal good wishes.

"It has given Me great pleasure to visit this interesting district and to note the great railway and engineering works which have added to the prosperity of the neighbourhood. Your town is of easy access from all parts of the country, and its position and the enterprise of its inhabitants give most favourable assurance of its future.

"The agricultural importance of the district also contributes to the high position which Rugby holds amongst the towns of the Midlands, while the great School in your midst renders its name well known throughout the English-speaking world.

"It is My earnest wish that the prosperity of your district and the welfare of your townsmen may constantly increase."

Address from the School presented in the new Speech Room:—

To His Most Gracious Majesty King
Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

On behalf of us all, I beg to tender to Your Majesty a hearty welcome to Rugby School.

The honour which Your Majesty has done us in consenting to open our Speech Room, is keenly appreciated by us, inasmuch as we see in it one more proof of the personal interest in the School which Your Majesty has never failed to show. We cannot be too grateful for the annual gift of a gold medal for a historical essay, the institution of which we owe to Your Majesty's Royal Mother, Queen Victoria, of glorious memory; and the continuance of it in recent years to Your Majesty. To the winner of the prize this year it will be a signal additional honour that he will receive the medal from Your Majesty's own hands. But apart from this, we rejoice to be given an opportunity of expressing our loyalty and devotion to our Sovereign and the Royal House of these Realms.

Finally may I venture to remind Your Majesty that it is a kingly prerogative to command an addition to our hard-earned holidays. Should Your Majesty be pleased to exercise it on our behalf, it will be a kindness long to be gratefully remembered by the School.

H. J. B. CLOUGH, Head of the School.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am much gratified by your Address of Welcome, and I am glad to have an opportunity of assuring you of My personal interest in this great and splendid School, made famous wherever English is spoken by the labours and example of Arnold and of Temple, celebrated as the School of Lander, Clough and Matthew Arnold, and of many who have won distinction in literature, in statesmanship, in battle, in law, and in every other field of human activity.

"Rugby is notable not only for its success in scholarship, not only for its men of letters, but even more for its high ideals of honour and manliness and public spirit, and all those qualities that make our public schools the finest places of education in the world. These ideals and these qualities, strenuously taught by her great leaders, and handed on as a cherished tradition from generation to generation of her sons, have left the mark of Rugby deep, not only throughout these islands, but throughout the Empire and in every part of the world.

"Carry with you these traditions when you who now listen to Me are scattered, as scattered you will be in a few years time, far and wide, and wherever your lot may be cast, see that you uphold the great name of your School, and prove yourselves worthy of those who have gone before you.

"Remember that to do this you must take advantage of the wealth of opportunities offered you here, in school and out of school, opportunities of developing both mind and body, such as you will never afterwards have in the same abundance."

"It is with great pleasure that I now declare this new Speech Room to be open.

"I am glad to tell you that My visit will be commemorated later on by an addition of a week's holiday to one of your vacations.

"I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may be upon every one of you, both here at School, and in the wider world hereafter."

Whitehall, July 14, 1909.

The following Addresses were presented to The King on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Manchester, on Tuesday, the 6th July, to open the new buildings of the Manchester Royal Infirmary:—

Address of the City Council.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King
Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Manchester, in Council assembled, humbly approach Your Gracious Majesty on the occasion of Your Majesty's visit, accompanied by Her Majesty Queen Alexandra, in connection with the opening of the Manchester Royal Infirmary and the review of the Territorial Forces of East Lancashire, and we gratefully recognise Your Majesty's condescension in receiving, amidst the numerous engagements of the day, our expressions of welcome to the City.

We desire to be permitted to offer our loyal and earnest wishes for the long life and happiness of Your Majesty.

Given under the corporate common seal of the City of Manchester this 6th day of July, 1909.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I thank you on behalf of The Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Address of Welcome; and I assure you of the pleasure with which I have watched the progress which has taken place in the prosperity of Manchester, in the splendid industrial achievements of her citizens, and in the development of her Public Institutions.

"I am confident that in energy, in perseverance, and in ability the men of Manchester are to-day in no way behind their fathers.

"The welfare of your City will always be an object of My warmest interest."

Address of the Victoria University of Manchester.

To their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Court of Governors, Professors and Lecturers, Officers, Graduates and Students of the Victoria University of Manchester humbly crave leave to offer to Your Gracious Majesties, the expression of our devoted loyalty and dutiful attachment.

We recall with particular gratitude the foundation of our University by the Charter granted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria who permitted her revered name to be associated with it, and that the independence enjoyed by the University under the new Charter granted by Your Majesty in 1903 has been accompanied by an extension of its size and influence and by an increased support from our City and the surrounding towns and counties.

Our University is closely associated through its Medical School with the Royal Infirmary which Your Majesties are about to visit. We believe that by the co-operation of a University with a great hospital not only will better provision be made for the care of the sick poor, but medical education will be made more thorough and the knowledge of medical science promoted. Those who are occupied with the study of science, the spread of education, or the care of the sick and suffering, will ever gratefully recognise the unflinching interest shown by Your Majesties in the work carried on in hospitals, medical schools, and laboratories, and particularly in the steps which are being taken to ascertain and remove the causes of disease.

We trust that the result of the efforts of our University, in which Your Majesties have shown so kind an interest, and to which You have given such valued encouragement, may be to train up loyal citizens prepared to render service to their country and its Sovereign, and at the same time to make contributions to that advancement of learning and science for which we believe Your Majesty's reign will ever be memorable.

In conclusion, we pray that Your reign may be long and peaceful, and that the blessing of Heaven may rest on Your Majesties and all Your Royal House.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I thank you most heartily on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal Address, and for the good wishes you express for Our welfare.

"It is a great pleasure to Me to visit the University which bears the name of My beloved Mother Queen Victoria—a University whose labours are attended with ever increasing success and appreciation, alike in the City of Manchester and in the whole country.

"I rejoice to learn that the funds you require are supplemented by generous gifts and bequests from persons connected with the University and others who know the value of your work, and I trust there will always be found many to recollect that wealth can be employed in no nobler cause. I am glad that in Manchester the cause of learning and research is united with that of practical benevolence, and I doubt not that this fortunate alliance of a great University with a great Hospital will continue, as heretofore, to confer inestimable benefits alike on those who seek in them the fruits of advancing knowledge and enlightenment, and on those who resort to them for relief from suffering and distress.

"I pray that you may be successful in executing the great trust which has been reposed in you, and that God's blessing may attend you in carrying out the noble work which awaits you in this great city."

Address of the Manchester Royal Infirmary.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Board of Management of the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and the Members of the Honorary Medical Staff, on behalf of the Trustees and Subscribers, humbly approach Your Gracious Majesty gratefully to acknowledge the honour Your Majesty, and Her Majesty Queen Alexandra, have conferred upon us by Your Presence to-day, and to express our thanks for Your Royal recognition of our effort to provide an Infirmary adequate for the needs of the City and District for many years to come.

The Royal Infirmary, of which Your Majesty is the Patron, was founded in 1752; and after more than a century and a half of beneficent work, the growing needs of an ever-increasing population made it necessary to transfer its operations to this more extensive and salubrious site.

The New Infirmary has been erected to accommodate 600 patients, but to meet existing requirements equipment has been provided for 483. The estimated cost, inclusive of a portion of the site, is £500,000, £400,000 of which have been provided by the sale of the Old Infirmary site to the Corporation of the City, the balance of £100,000 being raised by voluntary contributions. We have every reason to believe that the estimated cost will not be exceeded, and it is a great satisfaction to us to be able to announce that our resources are undiminished, and that our sole remaining anxiety is the raising annually of a sufficient income to meet the largely increased expenditure.

We trust that Your Majesties will be graciously pleased to give permission for one of the Wards to be called "King Edward The Seventh Ward," and another "Queen Alexandra Ward."

We desire that Your Majesties will be graciously pleased to accept our loyal and earnest wishes for Your long life and happiness, and we humbly pray that Your Majesty will declare the Manchester Royal Infirmary to be open.

We have the honour to be Your Majesties' loyal, dutiful, and obedient servants.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"The Queen and I have much pleasure in receiving the Address of the Board of Management and the Honorary Medical Staff of the Manchester Royal Infirmary.

"I have long been aware of the excellent work which was carried out in your former building in the heart of the City, and I was much gratified when some eight years ago I was able to continue the patronage and the use of the title 'Royal' which had been granted to you by My beloved Mother, Queen Victoria, and by Her Predecessor on the Throne.

"It is with sincere pleasure and with hearty congratulations to you and to the City of Manchester that I now declare the new Manchester Royal Infirmary to be open, and, in compliance with your loyal prayer, I give permission for one of the wards to be called 'King Edward The Seventh Ward' and another 'Queen Alexandra Ward.'

"I trust that the advantages of the new site and of the handsome and well-equipped buildings which have been erected on it will at once make themselves manifest. I am confident that under the present more favourable conditions not only will your patients have the benefit of speedier and more complete restoration to health, but that the anxious duties of your physicians, surgeons, and nurses, and the whole complicated administration of this great Institution will be facilitated by its more convenient and seemly surroundings.

"The esteem and gratitude of the community are due to all of you who take part in the beneficent work which goes on within these walls unceasingly night and day, to all of you who by personal efforts and money contributions have helped to bring this great hospital into being, and to all of you who in the future will, I doubt not, assist in the making of such further provision as the needs of your suffering fellow men may call for.

"I pray that the blessing of God may aid all your efforts."

Later in the day, after the review of the Lancashire Territorial Forces in Worsley Park, Their Majesties left for Knowsley, and on arrival at Warrington the following Address was presented:—

Address of the Town Council.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warrington, humbly desire to offer to Your Majesty and to Her Majesty Queen

Alexandra a grateful and most cordial welcome to our ancient Borough on the occasion of the Review by Your Majesty of the Territorial Forces of West and East Lancashire.

We desire to express our great gratification and appreciation of the high honour conferred upon the town and its inhabitants by Your Majesty's gracious visit.

We avail ourselves of the privilege of offering to Your Majesty our most earnest and loyal wishes that the lives of Your Majesties may be long spared to reign over Your loyal and devoted subjects in continuing peace and happiness.

Given under our corporate seal this sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am much gratified to receive the loyal and dutiful Address from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Warrington.

"In coming among you to-day to review the Territorial Forces of the County, I am reminded that your Town and District have witnessed in times past many conflicts between hostile forces, but I am confident that the patriotic spirit of My people is as strong as ever, and that no effort will be wanting to prepare for any risk, however remote. I trust that, by God's blessing, the warlike scenes of the past will not recur, and that you will be able to pursue without interruption the Arts and Pursuits of Peace, by which your town has become prosperous.

"You may be assured that I shall always take the liveliest interest in your welfare."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas from time to time it is found to be desirable to appoint an Officer of the rank of Commander to the command of a division of special service vessels in lieu of an Officer of the rank ordinarily appointed, viz., a Captain:

"And whereas we consider that all Commanders so appointed should, in view of their duties and responsibilities, be granted the seagoing command money of their rank, viz., three shillings and ninepence a day:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment accordingly as from the first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service it is provided that Continuous Service Men and Boys sent home sick from abroad, who, on arrival home require further Hospital treatment, shall be allowed pay subject to Hospital Stoppages from the date of their entry as patients into Hospital in England:

"And whereas we consider it desirable in the interests of Your Majesty's Naval Service that such Men and Boys should enjoy the same privileges in regard to exemption from Hospital Stoppages as Men and Boys serving at Home:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the grant to Continuous Service Men and Boys sent Home sick from abroad of full pay free of stoppages for thirty days from the date of their entry as patients into Hospital in England, provided they be not invalidated out of the Service or discharged dead within such period.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the churchyard of Saint Peter, Stockport:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order so far as it affects the said churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, as relates to burials in the churchyard of Saint Peter, Stockport, be varied, so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful, subject to the condition hereinafter set forth, to bury the bodies of six persons at their decease in the addition made subsequent to the date of the Order in Council to the vault belonging to the Wright family in the churchyard attached to Saint Peter's Church, Stockport.

Provided that the burials hereby authorized shall be subject to compliance with the requirement that the coffins be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

A. W. FitzRoy.
