By The KING.
A PROCLAMATION
FOR A BANK HOLIDAY.

EDWARD, R. & L.

We, considering that it is desirable that Monday, the twenty-fifth day of October instant, should be observed as a Bank Holiday in the City and County of Norwich, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bank Holidays Act, 1871," do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Act aforesaid, appoint Monday, the twenty-fifth day of October instant, as a special day to be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout the City and County of Norwich, under and in accordance with the said Act, and We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, command the said day to be so observed, and all Our loving subjects to order themselves accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day Sir Hudson Ewanke Kearley, Baronet, M.P., and James Stuart, Esquire, LL.D., M.P., were, by His Majesty's command, respectively sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Graham-street, Pimlico, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west by the united parish of the Holy Trinity with Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Pimlico, upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Michael, Chester-square, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Chester-square, from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, at the junction of Eaton-terrace with King's-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of King's-road for a distance of six chains and a quarter or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, from the said united parish of the Holy Trinity with Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Mattingley, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mattingley is vested in the Warden and Fellows of Saint Mary's College of Winchester, commonly called New College, in Oxford (hereinafter called the present patrons).

"And whereas the said present patrons are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mattingley now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Vicar or Incumbent of the benefice of Heckfield, in the said county and diocese, and his successors.

"And whereas the Reverend George James Thomas, now Vicar of Heckfield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness has signed and sealed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, now Bishop of Winchester, is consenting to such transfer, and has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Mattingley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Mattingley.

"Now therefore with the consent of the present patrons (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this scheme) and with the consent of the said George James Thomas, now Vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Heckfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mattingley now vested in them the present patrons as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said George James Thomas, Vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Heckfield, and his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the same benefice, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George James Thomas, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Heckfield, and by his successors in the same benefice for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Mary, Thetford, in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Thetford, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain Trustees upon trust for sale and to stand possessed of the proceeds of any such sale as to one moiety for the Reverend John Lucius Smith-Dampier, of Number 49, Southgate-street, Winchester, Clerk in Holy Orders, and as to the other moiety to pay the income thereof to Eleanor Mary Smith-Dampier, of 28, Elsworthy-road, Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, during her life, and the said John Lucius Smith-Dampier and Eleanor Mary Smith-Dampier are therefore the Patrons or persons who, if the said benefice were now vacant, would be entitled to nominate thereto.

"And whereas the said John Lucius Smith-Dampier and Eleanor Mary Smith-Dampier are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Thetford, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said John, Bishop of Norwich, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary he, the said John, Bishop of Norwich, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Thetford, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Mary, Thetford.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Lucius Smith-Dampier and of the said Eleanor Mary Smith-Dampier, being the persons whose consent as Patrons is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Thetford, shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Michael, Kington, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Bristol.

"Whereas by an Indenture made the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, between Henry Samuel Adrian, of Number 1, Coronation - villas, Oakland - road, Dovercourt, in the county of Essex, Gentleman, of the one part, and the Right Reverend George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, of the other part, after reciting that the said Henry Samuel Adrian was seised in fee simple of the advowson of the said benefice of Saint Michael, Kington, it was witnessed that the said Henry Samuel Adrian did for the considerations therein mentioned thereby convey unto the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael, Kington, to hold the same unto and to the use of the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, and his successors in fee simple.

"And whereas the said conveyance was made with the intention of vesting the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage or presentation in the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, in right of his See, and the parties thereto are desirous that anything which by way of further assurance or otherwise may be required effectually to carry out that intention may be done, and have applied to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that a scheme under the Acts hereinbefore mentioned may be prepared for the said purpose and submitted to Your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas the said Henry Samuel Adrian and the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, are consenting to this scheme, the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, so consenting both as party to the said Indenture of the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, and as Bishop of Bristol, the diocese wherein the said benefice of Saint Michael, Kington, is situate, approving of and accepting the transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage or presentation as required by the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or some or one of them.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael, Kington, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinbefore recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Michael, Kington.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Samuel Adrian (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael, Kingston, shall be transferred to the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, and his successors in the same bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bristol.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Halsetown, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Halsetown is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Frederick Harrison Hichens, of Barton Fields, Canterbury, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and Honorary Canon in the Cathedral Church of Canterbury.

"And whereas the said Frederick Harrison Hichens is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Halsetown now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Mary in Truro (hereinafter called the said Dean and Chapter) and their successors.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such their willingness have executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles William, now Bishop of Truro, as Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefice is situate, is consenting to this scheme and in token of such his consent required by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Halsetown which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Halsetown.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Frederick Harrison Hichens (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular seal to be affixed to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Halsetown now vested in him the said Frederick Harrison Hichens as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and

His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Willington, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Willington is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in the Reverend Edward Dymoke Stead, of Richmond Lodge, Lewes, in the county of Sussex, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Edward Dymoke Stead is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Willington should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Willington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Willington.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Dymoke Stead (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of John Henry Buxton, of Hunsdon Bury, Ware, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, Edward Hildred Carlile, of Ponsbourne Manor House, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, the Reverend James Hardy Honeyburne, of Number 23, Duke-street, Southport, in the county of Lancaster, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the cathedral church of Liverpool, the Reverend Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, of Number 25, Onslow-gardens, in the county of London, Clerk in Holy Orders and Prebendary of the cathedral church of Saint Paul's, in the city of London, the Reverend Robert Charles Joynt, of the Vicarage, Number 1, Highland-road, Gipsy Hill, in the county of London, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, of Number 6, Albany-terrace, Marylebone-road, in the county of London, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Richard Gooch Fowell, of York Villa, Number 63, Park-road, Hastings, in the county of Sussex, Clerk in Holy Orders (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Willington, now vested in the said Edward Dymoke Stead as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said John Henry Buxton, Edward Hildred Carlile, James Hardy Honeyburne, Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, Robert Charles Joynt, Edward Grose Hodge, and Richard Gooch Fowell, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Henry Buxton, Edward Hildred Carlile, James Hardy Honeyburne, Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, Robert Charles Joynt, Edward Grose Hodge, and Richard Gooch Fowell, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the two archdeaconries of Southwark and Kingston-upon-Thames, in the diocese of Southwark, and to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconries.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said archdeaconries of Southwark and Kingston-upon-Thames and with respect to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconries are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, firstly, a new rural deanery shall be formed out of the rural deanery of Southwark, within the said archdeaconry of Southwark, and shall be named 'The Rural Deanery of Bermondsey,' secondly, a new rural deanery shall be formed out of the rural deaneries of Barnes and Beddington, within the said archdeaconry of Kingston-upon-Thames, and shall be named 'The Rural Deanery of Wimbledon,' and thirdly, the said rural deaneries of Bermondsey and Southwark, in the said archdeaconry of Southwark, and the said rural deaneries of Barnes, Beddington, and Wimbledon, in the said archdeaconry of Kingston-upon-Thames, shall respectively comprise and consist of the parishes, cures, and churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the names of such rural deaneries respectively in the first column of the schedule to this scheme annexed, and each of the said parishes, or cures, or churches shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery and archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the rural deanery and of the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry under which it is so set down as aforesaid and shall not belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery or archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or Archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, and the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, both within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month a part of the said parish of Manchester was annexed as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Kersall Moor, within the limits of such parish, and the said district was named 'the District of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the first day of the following month, a certain part of the said parish of Manchester was annexed as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Cheetham Hill, within the limits of the said parish, and the said district was named 'the District of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill.'

"And whereas the said district of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, and the said district of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, have, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, and the said new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, and of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, in the said county and diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mary, Crumpsall, in the said county and diocese, upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, upon the south by the new parish of Saint John, Broughton, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Broughton, from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, at the junction of Tetlow-lane with Leicester-road, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of Leicester-road for a distance of thirty-one chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the junction of Leicester-road with Cheetham Hill-road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Kersall Moor, from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Crumpsall."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, Colney, situate within the parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), of the parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans), and of the parish of Shenley, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), of the said parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans), and of the said parish of Shenley should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, Colney, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), with the consent of the Reverend William Dudley Waddell Dudley, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans), and with the consent of Mary Louisa Theophila Gotto, wife of the Reverend Donald Gotto, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Shenley Rectory, in the said county of Hertford, as the Patron of the rectory of the said parish of Shenley (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), of the said parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans), and of the said parish of Shenley, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, Colney, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Colney.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Colney, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon part of the north and upon the north-east by a detached portion of the parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans), upon the south-east by the parish of Shenley, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west, upon the north-west, and upon the remaining part of the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Shenley from the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans) and which follows the middle of the river Colne crosses Green-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Green-lane for a distance of forty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with King's-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of King's-road for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road leading from London to Saint Albans, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of three chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of a footpath connecting such high road with the road leading to Cell Barns, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of three chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with the said road leading to Cell Barns, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the private road leading to Highfield Hall, and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said private road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans) from the said detached portion of the parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans).

"II. Also all that detached portion of the said parish of Saint Stephen (Saint Albans) which is bounded upon all sides as follows, viz.:—Upon the west by the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), upon the north and upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mark, Colney Heath, and upon the south-east by the parish of Ridge, both in the said county and diocese.

"III. And also all that portion of the said parish of Shenley which is bounded upon the north by the said parish of Ridge, upon the north-west by the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans), and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter (Saint Albans) from the said parish of Shenley and which follows the middle of the river Colne crosses the middle of Green-lane as aforesaid, and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of Green-lane for a distance of thirty-two chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Bell-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Bell-lane for a distance of seventy-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road leading from Saint Albans to London, and with the road leading to Colney Heath, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Shenley from the said parish of Ridge."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Bush Hill Park, in the parish of Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Bush Hill Park as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Edmonton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Bush Hill Park as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Bush Hill Park.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Bush Hill Park, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Bush Hill Park, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west and upon the north-west by the new parish of Winchmore Hill, upon the north by the parish of Enfield, upon the north-east by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Bush Hill Park, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Bush Hill Park, from the said parish of Edmonton at a point in the middle of the Enfield branch line of the Great Eastern Railway opposite to the middle of Edenbridge-road and extending thence westward in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains and a half or thereabouts to the junction of Edenbridge-road with Amberley-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Amberley-road and of the proposed extension of that road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with a proposed new road known as Porlock-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Porlock-road for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the proposed new road known as Delhi-road and extending thence southward along the middle of Delhi-road for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Bury-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Bury-street for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-east corner of the house known as number one, Oak-terrace, and extending thence southward first to and along the eastern wall of the said house and then in a straight line in precisely the same direction for a distance in all of fourteen chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Salmon Brook, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Salmon Brook for a distance of sixty-nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the road called Green Lanes across Salmon Brook upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Edmonton from the said new parish of Winchmore Hill."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, situate in the parish of Berkhamstead Saint Mary, otherwise Northchurch, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Berkhamstead Saint Mary, otherwise Northchurch, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, being:—

"All that detached portion of the parish of Berkhamstead Saint Mary, otherwise Northchurch, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, viz.:—Upon the north-west by the parish of Berkhamstead Saint Peter, otherwise Great Berkhamstead, upon the north by the parish of the Holy Trinity, Potten End, upon the north-east by the parish of Great Gaddesden, upon the east partly by the parish of Hemel Hempstead and partly by the new parish of Boxmoor, upon the south-east by the parish of Bovingdon, all in the said county and diocese, upon the south partly by the last named parish and partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Ashley Green, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, and upon the south-west by the last named new parish."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the dominions of the Emperor of China and the Emperor of Corea:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1909," and shall be read as one with "The China and Corea Order in Council, 1904," hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order."

2. In place of that contained in Article 5 of "The China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1907," the following Article shall take effect instead of Article 75 of the Principal Order:—

(1.) Every person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the Court who prints, publishes, or offers for sale any printed or written newspaper or other publication containing seditious matter shall be guilty of a grave offence against the Principal Order, and may, in addition to, or in lieu of, any other punishment, be ordered either to give security for good behaviour or to be deported.

(2.) Where any printed or written newspaper or other publication containing seditious matter is printed, published, or offered for sale within the limits of the Principal Order by a Company registered in the United Kingdom or in a British possession, the Court may, after notice to the Company, and on proof of the facts, require the Company to give security to abstain from such printing, publishing, or offering for sale in future. If the Company fail to give security, or if the Company is shown to have again printed, published, or offered for sale such newspaper or other publication containing seditious matter after giving such security, the Court may make an order prohibiting the Company from carrying on business within the limits of the Order, or may make such other orders as to the Court may seem just. The Court may also declare all the property of the Company within the limits of the Order to be forfeited to His Majesty the King, and shall dispose of it, subject to any general or special directions of the Secretary of State, as it thinks fit.

(3.) Matter calculated to excite tumult or disorder, or to excite enmity between His Majesty's subjects and the Government of China, or the Government of Corea, or the authorities or subjects of any Power in amity with His Majesty, being within the limits of this Order, or between the Government of China and its subjects or the Government of Corea and its subjects, shall be deemed to be seditious matter within the meaning of this Article.

(4.) An offence against this Article shall not be tried except on a charge and by the Supreme Court.

(5.) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Principal Order, the charge may, for reasons to be recorded on the minutes, be heard and determined before a Judge sitting without a jury or assessors.

3.—(1.) The power of His Majesty's Minister in China to make King's Regulations under Article 155 of the Principal Order, or to join with the Ministers of any foreign Powers in amity with His Majesty in making or adopting municipal Regulations under Article 156 of the Principal Order, shall extend to making, or joining in making or adopting, Regulations for the creation, maintenance, discipline, and control of a police force for any foreign Concession or Settlement in China.

(2.) Such Regulations may provide for the dismissal, fine (not exceeding one month's pay), confinement to barracks, reduction in rank, class, or seniority, suspension or removal from special duty, of any member of the force by the person for the time being in command thereof.

(3.) The Minister may also issue to such person a warrant empowering him while in command of the force to inflict summary punishment upon members of the force by imprisonment with hard labour for a period not exceeding fifteen days. Such warrant may be at any time withdrawn.

(4.) Any fine inflicted under this Article shall be paid, after deduction of the costs incurred in the imposition or recovery thereof, to the authority by whom the police force is paid.

4. Article 5 of "The China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1907," is hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not (a) affect the past operation of such Article, or any right, title, obligation, or liability thereunder, or (b) interfere with the institution or prosecution of any legal proceeding thereunder.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1909," and shall be read as one with "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1906" (hereinafter called the principal Order).

2. The following sub-article shall be substituted for Article 21 (1) of the principal Order:

"Where an offender convicted before the Court is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Court, proceeding under section 7 of 'The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890,' authority in that behalf being hereby given to it, considers it expedient that the sentence shall be carried into effect elsewhere than in Zanzibar, the place shall be a place in the East Africa Protectorate, or a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, or in one of His Majesty's Protectorates, provided that the Government thereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this article."

3. Article 21 (1) of the principal Order is hereby repealed.

And the Right Honourable Sir E. Grey, Baronet, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

ORDER of the Local Government Board:
Motor Car Act, 1903: Regulations under Section 9 (1).

COUNTY OF EAST SUSSEX.

Parish of Salehurst.

To the County Council of East Sussex;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of Section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by Us, the Local Government Board, with a view to the safety of the public on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the County Council of East Sussex, having made application to Us to make a Regulation in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising part of a main road situate within the parish of Salehurst, in the county of East Sussex, We directed a Local Inquiry to be held into the matter by one of Our Inspectors, and the Inquiry was held accordingly, and Report has been made to Us thereon:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us in that behalf, We do, by this Our Order, make the following Regulations:—

ARTICLE I.—The provisions of Sub-section (1) of Section 9 of the Act with respect to the driving of a motor car at a speed not exceeding ten miles per hour shall apply and have effect within the limits comprising the parts of the said road within the said parish which are specified in the Schedule hereto.

ARTICLE II.—These Regulations shall come into operation on the twenty-fifth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

SCHEDULE.

So much of the main road from Hastings to Tonbridge, through the village of Robertsbridge, as extends from a point 30 yards south of its junction with Bishop's-road to a point in line with the south end of the wing walls of the first or south County Bridge; and

So much of the said road as extends from a point in line with the north end of the wing walls of the seventh or north County Bridge to a point 100 yards north of Salehurst Church-road.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

John Burns,
President.

John Lithiby, Assistant-Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of West Sussex.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the County Council of West Sussex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising so much of Upper Shoreham-road, within the urban district of Southwick, as extends from a point 150 yards west of Windmill Inn to a point 50 yards east of Five Cross-roads;

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 1st day of June, 1909, in the "Sussex Daily News" of the 2nd day of June, 1909, and in the "Hove Gazette" of the 5th day of June, 1909;

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that F. J. Willis, Esquire, Barrister-at-law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Urban District Council Offices, Southwick, on Saturday, the sixth day of November, 1909, at ten-thirty o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this fourteenth day of October, 1909, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

H. C. Monro, Assistant-Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of Essex.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Essex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following parts of roads within the parish of Harlow in the county of Essex, that is to say:—

So much of the road from Epping to Bishop's Stortford as extends from the gateway of Mark Hall Park to a point situate 8 chains to the north of the George Hotel; and

So much of the road from Parndon to Sheering (including parts of Fore-street and High-street) as extends from the Malting of Mr. F. C. Edward to Fire Engine House, Mulberry Green, a distance of 7 furlongs:

Notice is hereby further given that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the fourth day of November, 1909.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the County Council of Essex, Shire Hall, Chelmsford.

Dated this fourteenth day of October, 1909.

J. S. Davy, Assistant-Secretary,
Local Government Board.

No. 00341 of 1909.

In the Matter of the UNIVERSAL GAS METHANE AND BUISSON HELLA COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order, dated the 15th day of October, 1909, Mr. Registrar Hood has directed separate Meetings of (1) the holders of the preference shares in the above named Company, (2) the holders of the ordinary shares in the above named Company, for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving, with or without modification, the Scheme of Arrangement set out in the schedule hereto, to be held on Thursday, the 4th day of November, 1909, at the registered office of the Company, 54, Cheapside, in the city of London, England, as regards the Meeting of the said preference shareholders at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and as regards the Meeting of the said ordinary shareholders at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon, at which place and respective times the said preference and ordinary shareholders are requested to attend.

As regards such of the preference and ordinary shareholders as are represented by warrants to bearer, the holders of the same shall be entitled to attend personally and vote at the said Meetings provided that they shall have deposited the share warrants held by them at the registered office of the Company or at any branch of the Credit Lyonnais, the Société Generale de Paris, the Credit Industriel, the Comptoir National d'Escompte de Paris, the Banque de Paris et des Pays Bas, the Banque de l'Union Parisienne, or any bank (other than the foregoing) whose certificate of deposit shall have been lodged with and approved by the Company forty-eight hours at least before the holding of the meetings and provided that (except where the certificate of deposit has been lodged with the Company as last aforesaid) they shall produce to the Chairman of the Meetings a certificate of deposit issued by any of the above named banks and shall, if required, furnish to the Chairman reasonable evidence of identity.

The Court has appointed Randall H. Pye, the Chairman of the Company, or failing him, Roman Romeu, a Director of the Company, to act as Chairman of the said meetings.

The above mentioned scheme will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.

Dated this 15th day of October, 1909.

SCHEDULE.

Scheme of Arrangement.

The creditors of the Company and all fees, dues, duties, costs and expenses, including therein the remuneration of the Liquidators hereinafter named and any costs which the Court may order to be paid out of the assets to be paid and provided for in full out of the assets of the Company other than the participating shares Series A and Series B in the French Company called the Société Industrielle du Gaz Methane and if and so far as the assets shall be insufficient for the purpose, the balance to be provided to the satisfaction of the said Liquidators without any right to recoupment out of the said participating shares. The said participating shares to be divided pro rata among the shareholders as follows, namely: 60,000 participating shares Series A and 30,000 participating shares Series B to be divided among the holders of the 300,000 preference shares so that each holder will receive one participating share Series A for every five preference shares and one participating share Series B for every ten preference shares held by him, and 60,000 participating shares Series A and 120,000 participating shares Series B to be divided among the holders of the 600,000 ordinary shares so that each holder will receive one participating share Series A for every ten ordinary shares and one participating share Series B for every five ordinary shares held by him.

For the purpose of such distribution that the Company be wound up voluntarily, and that Mr. Robertson Lawson, of 34, Old Broad-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, and Mr. G. Lemarquis, one of the Judicial Administrators of the Civil Tribunal of the Seine, be appointed the joint Liquidators.

Any variations may be made in this scheme which the Court may require as a term of giving its sanction thereto under the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTE.—The distribution of the shares Series A and Series B in the above named Société Industrielle du Gaz Methane in accordance with the above scheme and the rights attached to such shares respectively are designed to preserve as far as possible to the holders of the preference and ordinary shares in the above named Universal Gas Methane and Buisson Hella Company Limited the same relative rights as they had in that Company.

Any further information and explanation that may be required may be obtained on application to the Universal Gas Methane and Buisson Hella Company Limited, at 54, Cheapside, London, E.C.

Denny, William Ephraim	20, Radford-road, Lewisham, S.E., employed in Accountant-General's Department, General Post Office	Civil Servant	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	897 of 1909	Oct. 13, 1909	The bankrupt to set aside out of his salary the sum of £4 per month, payable on the last day of each month until 20s. in the pound shall have been paid on all debts provable under the Receiving Order, the first of such payments to be made on the 30th September, 1909. Such monthly sums to be paid to the Official Receiver and applied in payment of all proper fees, costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the bankruptcy proceedings, and this arrangement, and the Order to be made as hereunder mentioned, and in payment of the premiums due on the policy of £200 on bankrupt's life affected with the Royal Insurance Company, and interest on the loan of £28 now charged upon the said policy in favour of the said Company, and in payment of dividends upon all provable debts until 20s. in the pound shall have been paid. All preferential debts and payments to be paid in priority to other debts. The said policy to remain vested in the Official Receiver subject to the said charge, and the same and all moneys payable thereunder to be held by the Official Receiver for the benefit of the creditors until they shall have received 20s. in the pound. The Official Receiver before making any payments to the creditors may apply the sums receivable under this scheme in paying off the said charge. Bankrupt to submit to Order of Court directing the officials of the Post Office to pay to the Official Receiver out of his salary the aforesaid sums during his life or until 20s. in the pound shall have been paid. Receiving Order discharged.
Lawrance, William and Porter, Joseph James (trading in copartnership under the style or firm of E. Lawrance and Sons)	At 14, 15 and 16, Wharf-road, City-road, in the county of London	Builders and Contractors	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	573 of 1909	Oct. 8, 1909	Approval by Court of scheme of arrangement whereby debtors make an assignment of all their property which would be devisable amongst the creditors if they were adjudicated bankrupt, other than the wearing apparel and household furniture of each debtor, to Charles James March, of 23, Queen Victoria-street, Chartered Accountant, the special Manager appointed by the Court as Trustee, such Trustee to administer the aforesaid property in the like manner and with the like provisions, powers and duties, and subject to the like conditions in all respects as though debtors had been adjudged bankrupt, and such Trustee had been appointed Trustee in the bankruptcy, and with power to the Trustee in addition to do certain things mentioned in the scheme. The Trustee to administer the property and proceeds in manner set out in the scheme. That in consideration of this scheme and the approval thereof by the Court the second mortgagees of various parts of debtors' property agree not to take any further steps for enforcing or realizing their securities for a period of seven months from July, 1909, provided the first mortgagees of the said properties do not within the said period take any further steps for enforcing or realizing their securities. Receiving Order discharged.
