

of Surfleet is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Venerable John Bond, of the Precentory, in the city of Lincoln, Clerk in Holy Orders and Archdeacon of Stow, in the county and diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas the said John Bond is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Surfleet, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Surfleet, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Surfleet.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Bond (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Surfleet, now vested in him the said John Bond as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.
