

make (in addition to any rates or charges which the Company may now demand or take), charges for admission to or for the use of any portion of the pier whether as now existing or as proposed to be altered or extended or any pavilions, assembly rooms, concert, lecture, reading, refreshment or other rooms, galleries, saloons, arcades and other buildings as aforesaid, and any conveniences provided by the Company thereat or therein or in connection therewith.

To confer further powers on the Company with reference to the issue or grant of passes and pass tickets and to alter and extend the provisions of the said Order of 1889 with reference to the issue or grant by the Company of passes whether for the life of the holder or any shorter period and without charge or at a reduced rate and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit or as may be prescribed by the Order.

To confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates or charges.

To limit or restrict the purposes for which the pier whether as now existing or as proposed to be altered or extended may be used.

To authorize the Company to make new or additional by-laws for regulating the use of and for protecting the pier as proposed to be altered or extended and any works, buildings and erections thereon or in connection therewith and any property thereon or therein and for securing order on or at and the safety and comfort of persons resorting to the said pier as proposed to be altered or extended or any of the works, buildings or property of the Company and to provide for the enforcement of any such by-laws by penalties or otherwise.

To extend and define the limits within which the powers of the pier master and of the Company may be exercised.

To extend the powers of the Company under their said Order of 1889 for the borrowing of money and to increase the amount which by that Order the Company are authorized to borrow, and to enable the Company to raise money by mortgage, debentures or debenture stock on such security and on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be provided by the intended Order and whether with or without any collateral charge or security upon the lands and property of the Company.

To authorize the Company to mortgage and charge the lands and property of the Company either with or without a collateral charge upon the rates, tolls and charges leviable by them and if thought fit to provide that moneys raised by such mortgage or charge shall not be reckoned in calculating the amount to be borrowed on the security of rates, tolls and charges leviable by the Company.

The Order will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and may confer other rights or privileges and it will incorporate with itself such provisions as may be deemed necessary of the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and the Lands Clauses Acts (so far as those Acts relate to the purchase of lands by agreement).

To alter and amend so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid the provisions or some of the provisions of the Worthing Pier Order, 1889, scheduled to and confirmed by the Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1889.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant a plan and section of the said intended works and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex at his office at Lewes and at the Custom House at the port of Shoreham, in the parish of Kingston-by-Sea, in the county of Sussex, and at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

On and after the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited for public inspection at the Custom House at the port of Shoreham, in the parish of Kingston-by-Sea aforesaid, and will also be deposited and may be obtained at the price of one shilling each by all persons applying for the same at the offices of the Company, 55, Chapel-road, Worthing, and of Messrs. Dyson and Co., 9, Great George-street, Westminster.

Any objections to the Provisional Order which it is intended to urge on the Board of Trade must be received by them on or before the 20th January next. A copy of such objections must also be sent at the same time to the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1909.

Board of Trade.—Session 1910.

CHESHAM ELECTRIC LIGHTING (EXTENSION).

(The Production, Storage and Supply of Electricity by the Chesham Electric Light and Power Company Limited, within the Borough of Hemel Hempstead and part of the Rural District of Hemel Hempstead in the County of Hertford; the Breaking Up and Interference with Streets; the Laying Down and Erection of Electric Lines, Wires, Posts and Apparatus; and Taking and Recovering of Rates and Charges; Incorporation of Acts and other Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chesham Electric Light and Power Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") and whose registered offices are at the Electricity Works, Chesham, in the county of Buckingham, intend to apply to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1899, for all or some of the following, amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the area of the Company for the supply of electricity as defined by the Chesham Electric Lighting Order, 1901 (hereinafter called "the principal Order") and the Chesham Electric Lighting Extension Order, 1909 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1909") so as to include the borough of Hemel Hempstead and the parishes of Bovingdon and Kings Langley in the rural district of Hemel Hempstead, and to enable the Company to exercise within that district, with or without modification, all or some of the powers exercisable by them under the principal Order and the Chesham Electric Lighting Order, 1907, and the Order of 1909, within their existing area of supply as defined in the first Schedule to the principal Order and the first Schedule to the
