STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS, 1909.

No. 1369.

TRADE BOARDS.

Regulations, dated November 25, 1909, made by the Board of Trade, establishing a Trade Board under s. 11 of the Trade Boards Act, 1909 (9 Edw. 7, c. 22), for the Hammered and Dollied or Tommied Chain Trade.

The Board of Trade, in pursuance of their powers under the Trade Boards Act, 1909, hereby make the following Regulations with regard to the Hammered and Dollied or Tommied Chain-making Trade:—

Regulations.

1. A Trade Board shall be established for the hammered and dollied or tommied section of the chain trade.

2. The Board shall consist of not less than fifteen and not more than seventeen persons, viz., three appointed members, and either six or seven members representing employers, and six or seven members representing workers.

3. The chairman shall be such one of the appointed members as may be nominated by the Board of Trade.

4. Six members representing employers shall be chosen at meetings of employers in the above trade, conducted under the supervision of the Board of Trade. The votes shall be either by show of hands or by ballot, as the Chairman may decide. Separate meetings shall be held of factory occupiers, not being outworkers, and of other employers, and five of the six members shall be elected by the factory occupiers, not being outworkers, and one by the other employers.

5. Six members representing workers shall be chosen at meetings of workers in the above trade, conducted under the supervision of the Board of Trade. Of these, two members shall be chosen at a meeting of women and four at a meeting of men. The votes shall be either by show of hands or by ballot, as the Chairman may decide.

6. The Board of Trade may, if they think it necessary in order to secure the due representation of the various classes of employers or workers, nominate two additional representative members on the Trade Board, one on each side.

7. At least seven days' notice shall be given of meetings held under these Regulations by posters, placards, and advertisements in newspapers, or in such other manner as may appear to the Board of Trade to be best adapted in the circumstances to bring the matter of which notice is to be given to the knowledge of all persons affected so far as may be practicable.

8. The term of office of the first Trade Board shall be three years, and each succeeding Trade Board shall have a similar term unless otherwise provided.

9. Any representative of employers who ceases to be an employer and becomes a worker at the trade shall vacate his seat, but shall be eligible for re-election.

Any representative of workers who becomes an employer in the trade shall also vacate his seat, but shall be eligible for re-election.

10. A casual vacancy among representative members shall be filled in the same manner as in the original election or nomination.

11. Voting on Trade Boards shall be so conducted that the members representing employers and workers shall always have equal voting power notwithstanding the absence of any member, and it is left to the Trade Board to regulate the proceedings for carrying this into effect.

12. Any question arising on these Regulations shall be determined by the Chairman.

Signed by Order of the Board of Trade, this 25th day of November, 1909.

G. R. Askwith,
Assistant Secretary, Board of Trade.
