

And such juvenile courts shall not be held in the court room in which the ordinary sittings of the police court are held, but in the second court room (if any), or in some other room suitable for the purpose in the police court building.

And His Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the said juvenile courts shall be held on Tuesday and Friday in each week, and that one of the magistrates appointed for the Metropolitan police courts shall attend the said juvenile courts on the said days, at two of the clock in the afternoon, or such other hour as may be approved by a Secretary of State for that purpose: Provided that a juvenile court which would in pursuance of the foregoing provision have been held on Christmas Day, Good Friday, or a day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, may be held on the preceding day.

Almeric FitzRoy.
