PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of

Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Ampney Crucis, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ampney Crucis is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for Frederick William Beresford Cripps, of Coxwell House, Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, during his life, and the said Frederick William Beresford Cripps is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Frederick William Beresford Cripps is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ampney Crucis should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edgar Charles Sumner, now Bishop of Gloucester, and his successors in the same Bishopric.

"And whereas the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Ampney Crucis, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Ampney Crucis.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Frederick William Beresford Cripps, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ampney Crucis, shall be transferred to the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall
