Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of North Hinksey, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas one undivided moiety of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, of Nuneham Park, in the county of Oxford, a Member of Your Majesty's Privy Council, during his life, and the said Lewis Harcourt is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant and such turn of presentation fell to the owner of such moiety of the advowson, and the remaining moiety of the said advowson is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Honourable Osbert William Craven, of No. 110, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, in the city of Westminster.

"And whereas the said Lewis Harcourt as to the one moiety and the said Osbert William Craven as to the other moiety are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of North Hinksey, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of North Hinksey.

"Now therefore with the consent as to the one moiety of the said advowson of the said Lewis Harcourt, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and with the consent as to the other moiety of the said advowson of the said Osbert William Craven (in testimony of which consents the said Lewis Harcourt and the said Osbert William Craven have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Francis,

Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before

Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of South Hinksey, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"And whereas the said Osbert William Craven is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of South Hinksey now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of South Hinksey which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of South Hinksey.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Osbert William Craven (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of South Hinksey now vested in him, the said Osbert William Craven as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Helme, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

"And whereas the whole estate and interest of the said William Brook in the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helme is now vested in Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook, of Kettering, in the county of Northampton, Esquire.

be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Wakefield.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Rodney, now Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Helme, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Helme.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and of the said Charles Dixon Hoste, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Almondbury, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helme, now vested as aforesaid in the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and the said Charles Dixon Hoste, as such Vicar and Incumbent of the said vicarage of Almondbury as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and the said Charles Dixon Hoste to the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And whereas the said John Henry Gurney is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Overstrand should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Norwich, in token that the proposed transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Overstrand which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Overstrand.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Henry Gurney, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom, together with the said John Henry Gurney, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of Gerard Hudson Gurney, of Keswick Hall, in the county of Norfolk, Esquire, son of the said John Henry Gurney; Sarah Evelyn Gurney, of Northrepps Hall, in the county of Norfolk, Widow; Samuel John Gurney Hoare, of Sidestrand Hall, in the county of Norfolk, Esquire; and the Venerable Sidney Pelham, of Chapel Field, Norwich, in the county of Norfolk, Archdeacon of Norwich (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Overstrand shall be transferred to the said John Henry Gurney, Gerard Hudson Gurney, Sarah Evelyn Gurney, Samuel John Gurney Hoare, and Sidney Pelham, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Henry Gurney, Gerard Hudson Gurney, Sarah Evelyn Gurney, Samuel John Gurney Hoare, and Sidney Pelham, their heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of two undivided one-third shares of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Roade, in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough.

“And whereas the transfer of such estate and interest as aforesaid in the said two undivided one-third shares of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Roade which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Roade.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Duke of Grafton being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order all the estate and interest now vested in the said Duke of Grafton and all the estate and interest in remainder of any person claiming through or under the said Duke of Grafton or any of his predecessors in title by virtue of the settlement hereinbefore referred to in the said two undivided one-third shares of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Roade shall be transferred to the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and the right of patronage so transferred shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, which Acts are known as "The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts" duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, which Acts are known as 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,' have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the vicarage and parochial chapelry of Littleborough, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas the annual value of the benefice of Littleborough, that is to say, of the vicarage of the parochial chapelry of Littleborough aforesaid (hereinafter called the said benefice), has been improved by means of certain leases and a sale of the glebe lands of the said benefice, which leases and sale were carried out under the authority of the said Acts by former vicars or Incumbents, and by the present vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Littleborough.

"And whereas the purchase money received in respect of the said sale and made payable to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, has been invested in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Acts, and of such investment there remains standing in the name of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, a sum of one hundred and sixty-three pounds seventeen shillings and fivepence Metropolitan Consolidated three pounds per centum stock, which said sum of stock is now held by us in trust to pay the vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice the annual interest or dividends from time to time arising or accruing therefrom or thereupon, but subject nevertheless to the provisions contained in the said Acts with respect to making a certain portion of the improved value arising to the said benefice from the said leases and sale payable to us for the benefit of our common fund to be applied as in the said Acts mentioned.

"And whereas the improvement in the annual value of the said benefice arising from or by means of the said leases and sale exceeds the annual sum of five hundred pounds and after the appropriation hereinafter recommended to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of our common fund of the sum of one hundred pounds of stock, being part of the sum of stock hereinbefore mentioned, and of the whole of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereinafter described, the average annual income of the said benefice will not be left at a less sum than six hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that the sum of one hundred pounds of stock hereinbefore mentioned and all those the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunder written, subject to all leases, tenancies, or agreements affecting the same, and with the benefits of the rents thereby reserved and the covenants and conditions therein contained, shall be transferred to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall become and be absolutely vested in us for the benefit of our common fund to be applied as in the said Acts mentioned, and that in the event of the said benefice of Littleborough being avoided by the present vicar or Incumbent thereof by retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, and a pension under those Acts being awarded to him, the said transfer shall take effect upon the cessation of such pension, and in the event of the said benefice of Littleborough being avoided by the present Incumbent without the grant of any pension to him under the said Resignation Acts, then the said transfer shall take effect upon such avoidance.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All those messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments with the yards, gardens, and appurtenances to the same belonging, situate in the new parish of Crompton, otherwise called or known as Shaw, in the county of Lancaster, mentioned in the table hereunder written and now demised by or held on the terms of the several leases, the short particulars of which are contained in the second, third, fourth and fifth columns of the same table.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Packington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Snibston as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Snibston.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Snibston as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Snibston, being:—

"All that detached part of the parish of Packington, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, namely: upon the north-east by the particular district of Christ Church, Coalville, upon the east and upon the south-east by the parish of Hugglescote with Donington, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the south, upon the west, and upon the north-west by the parish of Ravenstone, partly in the said county of Leicester and partly in the county of Derby and wholly in the diocese of Southwell."

And whereas the said representation] has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by several Orders in Council, dated respectively 21st May, 1855, 26th April, 1862, 5th February, 1870, 4th June, 1870, 19th August, 1871 (of which date there are two such Orders), 9th August, 1872, 17th March, 1875, 10th December, 1875, 12th February, 1876, 27th June, 1876, 9th December, 1876, 22nd March, 1879, 28th June, 1880, 15th July, 1881, 29th November, 1884, 8th March, 1886, 15th September, 1887, 17th November, 1888, 28th May, 1889, 21st March, 1890 (of which date there are two such Orders), 1st May, 1890, 15th August, 1890, 18th August, 1892, 29th November, 1898, 15th September, 1902, 29th May, 1905, 12th August, 1907 (the Order of that date relating to the Office of Secretary to the Civil Service Commission), 21st December, 1907, 19th March, 1908, and 28th June, 1909, provision has been made for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments and the conditions of service therein.

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force should be consolidated, with certain amendments, into one Order in Council.

1. Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order and it is hereby ordered, that, as from the date of this Order, so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force shall be repealed, and that the provisions following shall have effect in substitution for them:—

Provided that such repeal or substitution shall not affect the validity of anything done under or by virtue of such Orders or any of them.

Provided also that nothing in this Order shall affect any right, privilege, or exemption enjoyed by any person in His Majesty's Civil Establishments under Regulations in force at the date of the passing of this Order.

PART I.

2. Such persons as His Majesty in Council shall have approved shall be His Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners (hereinafter called the Commissioners) for testing the qualifications of the persons proposed to be appointed to any situation or employment in His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for testing, in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by the Army Council, the literary qualifications of candidates for admission by means of competitive examinations to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (hereinafter called the Treasury), to appoint from time to time such assistant examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties herein assigned to them.

Provided that any Commissioner appointed for the purposes aforesaid may, subject to the approval of the Treasury previously obtained, by writing under his hand, authorize the Secretary for the time being to the Civil Service Commission to act as Commissioner at any time during the absence of any of the Commissioners, or during any vacancy among the Commissioners, or for such period during such absence or vacancy as may be fixed by such authorization.

The Secretary, when acting in pursuance of such authorization, shall have all powers, duties and authorities assigned by this or any future Order in Council to the Commissioners for the time being appointed for the purposes aforesaid.

3. Subject to the provisions of Clause 7 of this Order and to the exceptions specified in the schedule marked B, appended hereto, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the said Commissioners; and no person (save as excepted in the said Schedule B) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a Certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them—

1st. That he is within the limits of age prescribed for the situation or employment to which he desires to be admitted;

2nd. That he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties;

3rd. That his character is such as to qualify him for such situation or employment; and

4th. That he possesses the requisite knowledge and ability to enter on the discharge of his duties.

4. The rules applicable to each Establishment (hereinafter called Department), under each of the above heads, shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Treasury, by the Commissioners and the Head of the Department.

5. Save as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make to any of the situations in the Departments included in Schedule A appended hereto, or any other situations included or to be included in that Schedule, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to regulations framed or to be from time to time framed by the Commissioners, and approved by the Treasury, open to all persons (of the requisite age, health, character, and other qualifications prescribed in the said regulations) who may be desirous of attending the same, subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed under this Order, or may have already been prescribed under the Orders of 4th June, 1870, and of 22nd March, 1879, now repealed. Such examinations shall be held at such periods, and for such situations or groups of situations, as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, shall have from time to time determined, and shall have reference, as the Commissioners, after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of the Treasury, may deem expedient, either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examination, or to the number of vacancies which may be estimated as likely to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examination, or to such vacancies occurring within any period not exceeding six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the examination as the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

6. After the candidate has passed his examination and his certificate of qualification has been issued by the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation of one year or such extended period not exceeding two years in all as may be prescribed by the Head of his Department. During this time his conduct and capacity shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Head of his Department, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless and until his probation shall have furnished to the Head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness.

7. In case the Head of a Department to which a situation belongs and the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the Head of the Department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the Head of the Department and the Treasury shall consider that it would be for the public interest that the prescribed examination and the rules in regard to age should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with such examination, wholly or partially, and with such rules in regard to age, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person is fully qualified in respect of age, health, character, and knowledge and ability.

8. When a person has been selected for appointment to an office in any Department, and the state of business in that Department makes it necessary that he should enter upon his duties before the issue in his favour of a certificate by the Commissioners, the Treasury may, if they think proper, direct that his salary shall be payable from the date on which he commences the discharge of his duties, provided that they are satisfied that the delay in the issue of the certificate is owing wholly to causes beyond his control. If such person is on a scale of salary, the first incremental period of such scale shall be reckoned from the date on which his salary became payable, provided that a certificate shall in the meanwhile have been issued by the Commissioners.

9. Fees shall be paid of such amount, in such manner, and at such times, by persons attending examinations held by the Commissioners, or certificated by them under Clause 7 of this Order, as they, with the approval of the Treasury, have prescribed, or shall from time to time prescribe, by notice published by them in the London Gazette.

The Commissioners may, with the like approval, exempt from the payment of fees such classes of persons as they may think fit to exempt. Every such exemption shall be published in the London Gazette.

The Commissioners, with the like approval, may, by notice in the London Gazette, cancel any preceding notice therein, or any part thereof, and may, by such or by any further notice, vary the amount of the fees to be paid by persons attending examinations held by them, or the manner, or the time, of paying such fees, or the classes of persons required to pay them, or exempted from paying them.

10. All appointments and promotions with respect to which certificates have been issued by the Commissioners and all assignments and transfers of Second Division Clerks shall be published by the Commissioners in the London Gazette.

11. The situations included in the Schedule marked B, hereto appended, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Part of this Order.

Provided that the Head of any Department, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time, by notice in the London Gazette, add situations to either of the said Schedules, marked A and B respectively, or withdraw situations therefrom.

PART II.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PERMANENT OFFICERS IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL ESTABLISHMENTS.

12. It shall be competent for the Treasury to direct, should they see cause, that inquiry be made at intervals of not less than five years into the pay and numbers of officers employed by any Department of State.

13. Attendance books shall be kept in every Department for the purpose of recording the times of arrival and departure of persons employed therein.

14. Officers are required to attend not less than seven hours a day, but they shall be allowed a half-holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Head of their Department is satisfied that the progress of public business will not be prejudiced thereby.

15. It shall be competent for the Head of any Department to call upon any officer of such Department to retire at any time after reaching the age of sixty on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases the Treasury may, at the instance of the Head of a Department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, not exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

16. Any officer seeking a seat in the House of Commons shall resign his office so soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

17. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, industrial, or financial firm or company which would require the attendance of such officer at any time between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

18. An annual increment of salary shall not be allowed to any officer at the date at which it would in ordinary course become due without a certificate from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such person as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that the service of such officer during the year preceding the date of such certificate has been approved.

Provided that, if, at the date when the increment would in ordinary course become due, the certificate cannot be given, the Head of the Department may specify a period from the expiration of which, if the officer's service in the meanwhile has been approved, the increment may be allowed, and may from time to time extend the period so fixed. If the officer's service after the grant of the deferred increment shall continue satisfactory, the Head of the Department may, if and when he thinks fit, increase the salary to an amount not exceeding that at which it would have stood if no increment had been withheld or deferred. Every such increase shall be reported to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

19. Sick leave may be granted to any officer by the Head of his Department subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

(1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be furnished stating the cause of such absence.

(2.) If the number of days during which any officer is absent in any year without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full pay shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave on half-pay for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave, no officer shall receive any salary, except with the consent of the Treasury, who may, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary to an officer during any further period of sick leave at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the officer would have been qualified.

(4.) When the sick leave granted to any officer shall have amounted in the aggregate to twelve months during any period of four years or less, and it is desired to grant to him any further sick leave during such period, the case shall be reported to the Treasury, who shall decide what payment (if any) shall be made to him in respect of salary during such further sick leave.

PART III.

RULES APPLICABLE TO PERMANENT OFFICERS IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE DRAWING SALARIES OR PLACED ON SCALES OF SALARY IN EXCESS OF THOSE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.

20. Promotion of officers to whom Part III of this Order applies from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) That there is a vacancy in the higher class which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Treasury, it is competent for the Head of the Department to fill;

(2.) That the work of the Department requires such vacancy to be filled;

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion has been reported by the Head of his Department or Branch as fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

21. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to officers to whom Part III of this Order applies shall not exceed thirty-six week-days during each of their first ten years of service and forty-eight week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays: Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing officers who, under the regulations in force before the 15th day of August, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

PART IV.

CHAPTER I.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE SECOND DIVISION OF HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE.

22. The Second Division of the Civil Service, as hitherto constituted, shall continue and shall consist of Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the Civil Service to which they may from time to time be appointed or transferred.

23. No Department of the Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh without provision being made that such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by Clerks of the Second Division or other officers of a rank below that Division.

24. No vacancies shall be filled nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing Clerks of the Second Division, or other officers of a rank below that Division, until the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of officers serving in such Department with salaries higher than those of the Second Division will not be excessive.

CHAPTER II.

RULES APPLICABLE ONLY TO CLERKS OF THE SECOND DIVISION WHO HAVE NOT BEEN PLACED ON THE SCALE OF SALARY PRESCRIBED BY CLAUSE 28 OF THIS ORDER.

25. The salaries of Clerks of the Second Division to whom this Chapter applies shall commence at seventy pounds per annum, and shall rise by annual increments, as follows, viz:—

From seventy pounds to one hundred pounds, by annual increments of five pounds.

From one hundred pounds to one hundred and ninety pounds, by annual increments of seven pounds ten shillings.

From one hundred and ninety pounds to two hundred and fifty pounds, by annual increments of ten pounds.

The Higher Grade of the Second Division, with salaries commencing at two hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of ten pounds to three hundred and fifty pounds, shall continue only for Clerks to whom this Chapter applies.

26. When the salary of any Clerk to whom this Chapter applies reaches one hundred pounds, a special report, to be officially recorded in writing, on his competence, character, and diligence shall be required from the Head of the room and from the Head of the Branch in which the Clerk is serving or has served; and until this report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory the Clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any Clerk to whom this chapter applies reaches one hundred and ninety pounds, he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtains a report, to be officially recorded in writing, from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior character.

27. Promotion to the Higher Grade mentioned in Clause 25 of this Order shall be made according to merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said Higher Grade shall be made whenever any Clerk who remains on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 shall reach a salary of two hundred and fifty pounds; if there be a Clerk qualified for and deserving of such promotion; but the Head of a Department may at any time recommend, and the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the Higher Grade of a specially meritorious Clerk remaining on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 who is in receipt of a salary less than two hundred and fifty pounds. When a promotion has been made to the Higher Grade of a Clerk other than the Clerk who reached the salary of two hundred and fifty pounds, the latter may, nevertheless, at the discretion of the Head of his Department, receive promotion to the Higher Grade, at or after the date when the Clerk who was actually promoted would in ordinary course have reached a salary of two hundred and fifty pounds.

CHAPTER III.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL SECOND DIVISION CLERKS OTHER THAN THOSE REFERRED TO IN THE PRECEDING CHAPTER.

28. The scale of salary of Second Division Clerks (except as provided in Chapter II of this Part of this Order) shall commence at seventy pounds per annum, and shall rise by annual increments as follows, viz. :—

From seventy pounds to one hundred and thirty pounds, by annual increments of seven pounds ten shillings.

From one hundred and thirty pounds to two hundred pounds, by annual increments of ten pounds.

From two hundred pounds to three hundred pounds, by annual increments of ten pounds.

29. When the salary of any Clerk of the Second Division shall reach the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds a report in writing on the competence, character and diligence of such Clerk shall be required from the immediate superior under whom the Clerk is serving, and until this report has been countersigned as satisfactory by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, the Clerk shall not receive any further increment of salary.

30. No increment of salary beyond two hundred pounds per annum shall be allowed to a Clerk of the Second Division, without a report in writing from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such Clerk is competent to perform efficiently the highest duties ordinarily assigned to Clerks of the Second Division in the Department in which he is serving.

31. If, on the first day of April of any year, the salary of any Clerk certificated before the first day of April, 1908, but placed on the scale prescribed by Clause 28 of this Order, shall amount to a sum intermediate between one hundred and twenty-two pounds ten shillings and one hundred and thirty pounds the annual increment of salary accruing next thereafter shall be calculated as the sum of—

(a) the portion of an increment at the rate of seven pounds ten shillings per annum proportionate to the period between such first day of April and the date next thereafter upon which (but for his having been placed on the said scale) an increment would have accrued, and

(b) the portion of an increment at the rate of ten pounds per annum proportionate to the period between the last-mentioned date and the first day of April next following.

CHAPTER IV.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE WHOLE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.

32. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to Second Division Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, twenty-one week-days during each of their next ten years of service, and twenty-four week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays.

Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the regulations in force before the 21st day of March, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause 25 and Clause 28 of this Order, the Treasury may, upon the recommendation of the Head of a Department, advance by such amount, not exceeding four annual increments, as they may deem expedient, the salary of any Clerk who, having served for not less than six years in the Second Division, is reported to be exceptionally meritorious.

34. Any Clerk who is or who has been a Second Division Clerk may be appointed, without a further certificate of qualification, to any clerkship in the Department in which he is serving, provided that :—

(a) such clerkship is not one which is ordinarily filled by open competition under the scheme known as "Class I," or under special regulations ;

(c) such clerkship does not lead in the ordinary course of promotion to a clerkship of which the maximum salary exceeds five hundred pounds per annum.

35. Any Clerk of the Second Division appointed to a Minor Staff clerkship the maximum salary of which does not exceed three hundred and fifty pounds per annum shall be, in all respects other than that of salary, subject to the regulations governing the Second Division ; and, if the maximum of the Minor Staff clerkship is less than three hundred and fifty pounds, may, at such time after he has attained the said maximum as the Treasury may decide, be placed upon the scale of the Second Division at the point represented by such maximum, and may proceed by the usual annual increments to a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds if appointed to the Minor Staff clerkship before 21st December, 1907, or of three hundred pounds if appointed to such clerkship after that date.

36. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second Division to any post carrying a maximum salary exceeding five hundred pounds a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds five hundred pounds a year, without a special certificate from the Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury ; and every such promotion shall be published in the London Gazette, with a note of such recommendation, certificate, and approval, and shall have effect from the date of such publication.

37. (i.) Redundant Second Division Clerks may be transferred from one Department to another without reference to their age or the amount of salary of which they are in receipt.

(ii.) Except in the case of redundancy no Clerk of the Second Division shall be so transferred without the consent of the Commissioners.

(iii.) The consent of the Commissioners and the approval of the Treasury shall be required to the making redundant of any Second Division Clerk who has been appointed to that Division on the ground that his retention in a particular Department was necessary.

CHAPTER V.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE SECOND DIVISION AND ASSIGNMENT OF SECOND DIVISION CLERKS.

38. The Commissioners shall at fixed intervals, or whenever they may, with the approval of the Treasury, decide it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for clerkships of the Second Division in such subjects, and under such regulations as they, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe.

39. Lists of the successful competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to the number required, if so many are found by the Commissioners to be qualified for appointment to the Second Division. In ascertaining the order of merit, such allowance may be made as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe in respect of previous service as Registered Boy Clerk.

40. From lists made out as aforesaid, the Commissioners, on the application of Departments, may assign Clerks for permanent or temporary service. Assignment shall, as a general rule, be made by the Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list, an older list taking precedence over a more recent list. Provided that:—

(1) They may assign to any Department any unassigned successful competitor who has shown special qualifications in any particular subject included in the scheme of examination if special application for a Clerk so qualified be made by that Department;

(ii) If a successful competitor has at the date of the commencement of the competition served as a Boy Clerk, or Assistant Clerk ("Abstractor") for not less than six full months in a Department, he may, on the application of the Head of that Department, be specially assigned thereto.

41. Under conditions to be settled by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, successful competitors will be allowed, subject to the requirements of the Public Service, to select the Departments in which they may prefer to serve; but any successful competitor refusing to serve in the Department to which he is assigned may be removed from the list.

42. On a successful competitor being assigned to a Department his name shall be removed from the list. If the assignment has been for temporary service the Clerk's name shall be restored to the list on the termination of such service, if approved; but the Commissioners may assign any Clerk, who is serving temporarily in a Department, to a permanent Clerkship therein.

43. A Second Division Clerk shall be regarded as accepted by a Department to which he has been assigned for permanent service, when he has completed twelve months' continuous service in that Department, unless the Commissioners are informed by the Head of his Department that he has not afforded satisfactory proof of his fitness in accordance with the provisions of Clause 6 of this Order.

A Second Division Clerk shall not, except for grave misconduct, be rejected on probation till he has served for at least three months in the Department to which he has been assigned.

If a Second Division Clerk is rejected on probation by the Department to which he has been assigned, the Head of the Department shall report to the Commissioners the reason for his rejection; and the Commissioners shall decide whether the rejected Clerk shall be finally discharged, or shall be re-assigned for service in another Department.

In the event of a rejected Second Division Clerk being re-assigned as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall decide whether his previous service should be reckoned, with or without conditions, towards increment of salary. If they decide that his service should not be so reckoned, the fact and the conditions, if any, shall be notified by the Commissioners to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

PART V.

RULES APPLICABLE TO SITUATIONS OR EMPLOYMENTS BELOW THE SECOND DIVISION.

44. Below the Second Division persons may be employed for copying, routine work under direct supervision, or other work inferior to that of Clerks of the Second Division, in accordance with regulations framed from time to time by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, and at rates of pay from time to time prescribed by the Treasury.

45. An established Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Commissioners under Clause 7 of this Order. But such certificate shall only be granted exceptionally after not less than six years' established service (towards which not less than one year's and not more than two years' approved service as Registered Boy Clerk may be allowed to reckon), upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the Division at such salary as they shall think fit, not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment; and he shall be entitled to the same amount of annual holiday as if his previous established service had been in the Second Division.

46. A Clerk of the class known as "Assistant Clerks" or "Abstractors" may, with the consent of the Commissioners, be transferred from one Department to a similar situation in another, without a further certificate of qualification.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889," it is, among other things, enacted that the Board of Trade shall from time to time cause such new denominations of standards for the measurement of electricity as appear to them to be required for use in trade to be made and duly verified.

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased to approve the several denominations of standards set forth in the Schedule thereto as new denominations of standards for electrical measurement.

And whereas in the said Schedule the limits of accuracy attainable in the use of the said denominations of standards are stated as follows:—

For the Ohm within one hundredth part of one per cent.

For the Ampere within one tenth part of one per cent.

For the Volt within one tenth part of one per cent.

And whereas, at an International Conference on Electrical Units and Standards held in London in the month of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the International Electrical Units corresponding with the said denominations of standards were defined as follows:—

The International Ohm is the resistance offered to an unvarying electric current by a column of mercury at the temperature of melting ice 14.1521 grammes in mass of a constant cross sectional area and of a length of 106.300 centimetres.

The International Ampere is the unvarying electric current which when passed through a solution of nitrate of silver in water deposits silver at the rate of 0.00111800 of a gramme per second

The International Volt is the electrical pressure which when steadily applied to a conductor whose resistance is one International Ohm will produce a current of one International Ampere.

And whereas it has been made to appear to the Board of Trade to be desirable that the denominations of standards for the measurement of electricity should agree in value with the said International Electrical Units within the said limits of accuracy attainable.

And whereas the denominations of standards made and duly verified in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council have been again verified.

And whereas the Board of Trade are advised that the said denominations of standards agree in value with the said International Electrical Units within the said limits of accuracy attainable, except that in the case of the Ohm the temperature should be 16.4 c. in place of 15.4 c. as specified in the Schedule to the said Order in Council.

And whereas it has been made to appear to the Board of Trade that the said denominations of standards should be amended so that the aforesaid exception may be remedied.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the said Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to revoke the said Order in Council dated the twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and is further pleased to approve the several denominations of standards set out in the Schedule hereto as denominations of standards for the measurement of electricity.

"I. Standard of Electrical Resistance.

"A standard of electrical resistance denominated one Ohm agreeing in value within the limits of accuracy aforesaid with that of the International Ohm, and being the resistance between the copper terminals of the instrument marked 'Board of Trade Ohm Standard Verified, 1894 and 1909,' to the passage of an unvarying electrical current when the coil of insulated wire forming part of the aforesaid instrument and connected to the aforesaid terminals is in all parts at a temperature of 16.4 c.

"II. Standard of Electrical Current.

"A standard of electrical current denominated one Ampere agreeing in value within the limits of accuracy aforesaid with that of the International Ampere and being the current which is passing in and through the coils of wire forming part of the instrument marked 'Board of Trade Ampere Standard Verified, 1894 and 1909,' when on reversing the current in the fixed coils the change in the forces acting upon the suspended coil in its sighted position is exactly balanced by the force exerted by gravity in Westminster upon the iridioplatinum weight marked A and forming part of the said instrument.

"III. Standard of Electrical Pressure.

"A standard of electrical pressure denominated one Volt agreeing in value within the limits of accuracy aforesaid with that of the International Volt, and being one hundredth part of the pressure which when applied between the terminals forming part of the instrument marked 'Board of Trade Volt Standard Verified, 1894 and 1909,' causes that rotation of the suspended portion of the instrument which is exactly measured by the coincidence of the sighting wire with the image of the fiducial mark A before and after application of the pressure and with that of the fiducial mark B during the application of the pressure, these images being produced by the suspended mirror and observed by means of the eyepiece.

"In the use of the above standards the limits of accuracy attainable are as follows:—

"For the Ohm, within one hundredth part of one per cent.

"For the Ampere, within one tenth part of one per cent.

"For the Volt, within one tenth part of one per cent.

"The coils and instruments referred to in this Schedule are deposited at the Board of Trade Standardizing Laboratory, 8, Richmond-terrace, Whitehall, London."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 45 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, it is provided as follows:—

And whereas by section 59 of the said Act it is provided as follows:—

(1) The exhibition at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the exhibition elsewhere during the period of the holding of the exhibition, without the privity or consent of the proprietor, of a design, or of any article to which a design is applied, or the publication, during the holding of any such exhibition, of a description of a design, shall not prevent the design from being registered, or invalidate the registration thereof, provided that—

(a) The exhibitor, before exhibiting the design or article, or publishing a description of the design, gives the comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so; and

(b) The application for registration is made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

The following Statutes made by the Governing Body of King's College, Cambridge, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

A STATUTE to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge and amended by a Statute dated the 19th day of December 1902, duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the 30th day of October 1909 and passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas by Statute E Chapter II made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge as amended by Statute dated the 19th day of December 1902 and approved by His Majesty the King in Council on the 10th day of August 1903 it is enacted as follows:

Chapter II. Conditions of Eligibility.

1. The Fellows shall be elected from among the Graduate Members of the College, who shall not have completed seven years from the twenty-fifth day of March next preceding the date of their commencing residence in the University.

2. Provided that a Congregation may at any time, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, direct that all or any of the vacant Fellowships shall, either for the then ensuing year or thenceforth until otherwise determined, be open to all Graduate Members of the University not exceeding the standing mentioned in the first section of this chapter, and also, if thought advisable, to all Graduate Members of the University of Oxford of the like standing.

3. Provided further that in the case of Graduate Members of the College or of the University, who have entered the University as Advanced Students, or who have not kept the residence and passed the examinations generally required by the University for the first degree, the Governing Body shall determine from time to time the period and conditions of eligibility for a Fellowship.

4. Provided further that the Governing Body may direct that in any specified year one or more vacant Fellowships shall be open in the first instance only to persons who have entered the University as Advanced Students and who are of sufficient merit for election, subject to any conditions as to eligibility or manner of election that they think fit; and may for that year exclude such persons from eligibility to any Fellowships which are open to other candidates.

5. Provided further that the electors may in any year elect to one vacant Fellowship any person not satisfying the conditions for the time being required, whom they shall consider to be specially qualified to promote the interests of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research; and may, if previously authorized thereto by the Governing Body, make it at the time of election a condition that the Fellow so elected shall accept any College office to which he shall be elected or appointed within one year after becoming a Fellow, and shall hold such office until he shall be released from the obligation so to do, either by an express vote of the Governing Body or by his not being re-elected or re-appointed to such office, or until he has become entitled to retain his Fellowship for life: provided also that on any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

5. Provided further that the electors may in any year elect to one vacant Fellowship any person not satisfying the conditions for the time being required, whom they shall consider specially fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research; and may, if previously authorized thereto by the Governing Body, make it at the time of election a condition that the Fellow so elected shall accept any College office to which he shall be elected or appointed within one year after becoming a Fellow, and shall hold such office until he shall be released from the obligation so to do, either by an express vote of the Governing Body or by his not being re-elected or re-appointed to such office, or until he has become entitled to retain his Fellowship for life; provided also that on any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

6. At every election of Fellows, every person qualified under the first section of this chapter and not coming under the provisions of the third section shall be deemed to be a candidate; and the Governing Body may from time to time determine what shall be held to constitute a person a candidate under the second, third, fourth, and fifth sections of this chapter, and make regulations restricting the number of Fellowships which may be filled under the provisions of the fifth section of this chapter, and imposing conditions of eligibility for candidates under the same section.

A STATUTE to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the 30th day of October 1909 and passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas by Statute K Chapter II made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge it is enacted as follows :

The residue of the general income of the College (being all the income not belonging to any trust or other appropriated fund), as appearing by the accounts when audited, shall be called the divisible income of the College, and shall be applicable, after carrying forward a sufficient balance towards the expenses of the ensuing year, for payment of the Dividend of the past year.

2. The Annual Congregation shall in each year determine what part of the divisible income of the past year shall be paid by way of Dividend to the Provost and Fellows, provided that the Dividend of a Fellow shall not exceed two hundred and fifty pounds.

3. The Annual Congregation may in each year direct that a payment on account of the Dividend of the ensuing year shall be made to the Provost and Fellows at the end of six calendar months from the day of that Congregation, and may fix the amount of such payment at any sum not exceeding one half of the Dividend voted at that Congregation; and all sums so paid shall at the end of such year be reckoned as part of the divisible income of the year, and shall be brought into account in distributing the Dividend to be then voted.

4. The stipends and other fixed pecuniary emoluments of the Provost, Officers, and Scholars shall be payable quarterly on the usual quarter days.

5. Both the Dividend and also the stipends and other fixed pecuniary emoluments of the Provost, Fellows, Scholars, and Officers shall be considered as accruing from day to day, and shall be apportionable accordingly.

6. Every Fellow shall, in addition to his Dividend, be entitled during residence to rooms and commons.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statute K Chapter II in manner herein-after appearing: Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend Chapter II of the said Statute K hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say):

Chapter II. Dividend.

1. The residue of the general income of the College (being all the income not belonging to any trust or other appropriated fund), as appearing by the accounts when audited, shall be called the divisible income of the College, and shall be applicable, after carrying forward a sufficient balance towards the expenses of the ensuing year, for payment of the Dividend of the past year.

The Annual Congregation may in each year direct that a payment on account of the Dividend of the ensuing year shall be made to the Provost and Fellows at the end of six calendar months from the day of that Congregation, and may fix the amount of such payment at any sum not exceeding one half of the Dividend voted at that Congregation; and all sums so paid shall at the end of such year be reckoned as part of the divisible income of the year, and shall be brought into account in distributing the Dividend to be then voted.

4. The Annual Congregation may from time to time make regulations providing that the payment of the Dividend, or of some specified portion thereof, to a Fellow shall, during the whole or some specified portion of the period of his tenure of his Fellowship, be conditional on his being engaged in work in the College or in the University, or in a course of study or research, in such a manner as to fulfil conditions to be specified by the regulations. And the regulations so made shall specify the manner in which it shall be ascertained whether the said conditions have been or are being fulfilled. Provided that such regulations shall not apply to a Professorial Fellow, or to a Fellow who holds his Fellowship under the provisions of Statute E. V. 2 or of Statute E. V. 4, or to a Fellow who has held as a Fellow one or more of the College and University offices defined in Statute E. V. 3 for not less than twelve years altogether, or to any Fellow elected to his Fellowship before the time of this section coming into operation.

5. The stipends and other fixed pecuniary emoluments of the Provost, Officers, and Scholars shall be payable quarterly on the usual quarter days.

6. Both the Dividend and also the stipends and other fixed pecuniary emoluments of the Provost, Fellows, Scholars, and Officers shall be considered as accruing from day to day, and shall be apportionable accordingly.
