FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1910.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Llanwinio, in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint David's.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwinio as to one undivided one-third part or share thereof is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in William Parker Howell of Penrheol, in the county of Carmarthen aforesaid, a Lieutenant-Colonel, retired, in Your Majesty's Army, and as to another undivided one-third part or share thereof is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in Edward Harold Morris, of Carmarthen, in the said county of Carmarthen, Gentleman, and as to the remaining undivided one-third part or share thereof is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust for the benefit of Anne Dangerfield, of Down House, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford, Widow, for her life, and as regards such last mentioned undivided one-third part or share she the said Anne Dangerfield is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

“And whereas the said William Parker Howell, Edward Harold Morris and Anne Dangerfield are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwinio should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's and his successors Bishops of the same diocese.

“And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Saint David's, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Llanwinio which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the said parish of Llanwinio.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Parker Howell and Edward Harold Morris and with the consent of the said Anne Dangerfield being the person whose consent as Patron as regards the third undivided one-third part or share of and in the said advowson as above mentioned is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consents they have severally signed and sealed this scheme) and with the concurrence as regards the said third undivided one-third part or share of and in the said advowson of Robert George Dangerfield, Herbert Henry Dangerfield, William Edmund Dangerfield and Liliass Hannah Dangerfield, as being interested in the said advowson after the termination of the life estate therein of their mother the said Anne Dangerfield (such concurrence being testified by the concurring parties having respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwinio shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors in the same bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint David's.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Carno, in the county of Montgomery and in the diocese of Bangor.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Carno now stands limited to uses under which Sir Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn of Wynnstay, in the county of Denbigh, Baronet, is tenant for life thereof in possession free from incumbrances, and the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Carno should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Watkin Herbert, now Bishop of Bangor, in token of his willingness to accept jointly with the other persons hereinafter mentioned the transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Carno which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Carno.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn and the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of Robert Watkin Williams Wynn, of Dolben, in the county of Flint, Esquire, Arthur Watkin Williams Wynn, of Coedymaen, in the county of Montgomery, Esquire, and Watkin Randle Kynaston Mainwaring of Hartsheath, near Mold, in the county of Flint, Esquire (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Carno shall be transferred to the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn, Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, Robert Watkin Williams Wynn, Arthur Watkin Williams Wynn, and Watkin Randle Kynaston Mainwaring, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn, Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor, Robert Watkin Williams Wynn, Arthur Watkin Williams Wynn, and Watkin Randle Kynaston Mainwaring their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bangor.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Finstock-cum-Fawler, in the county of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Finstock-cum-Fawler is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the President and Scholars of Saint John Baptist College, in the University of Oxford (hereinafter called 'the present Patrons').

"And whereas the present Patrons are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Finstock-cum-Fawler now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Reverend Julius Delmege Payne, as Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Charlbury, in the said county and diocese of Oxford, and his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Charlbury for ever.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Francis, now Bishop of Oxford, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Finstock-cum-Fawler, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the particular district or new parish of Finstock-cum-Fawler.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the present Patrons (in testimony whereof they have affixed their corporate or common seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Julius Delmege Payne, Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Charlbury, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Finstock-cum-Fawler, now vested in them the present Patrons as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Julius Delmege Payne, as Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Charlbury, and his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Charlbury, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Julius Delmege Payne, Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Charlbury, and by his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Charlbury.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say;—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Steeple Barton, in the county and diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas two undivided one-third shares of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Steeple Barton are settled to certain uses under which the Right Honourable and Most Noble Charles Richard John, Duke of Marlborough, a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter (hereinafter called the said Duke of Marlborough) is now tenant in tail male in possession and the said Duke of Marlborough is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant and such turn of presentation fell to the owner of such two one-third shares of the said advowson.

"And whereas the remaining one undivided one-third share of and in the advowson of the said benefice of Steeple Barton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Alexander William Hall, of Barton Abbey, in the county of Oxford, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Duke of Marlborough as to all the estate and interest now vested in him as aforesaid and all the estate and interest in remainder of any person claiming through or under him or any of his predecessors in title by virtue of the settlement hereinbefore referred to in the said two undivided one-third shares and the said Alexander William Hall as to the fee simple estate now vested in him in the said remaining one-third share are desirous that the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Steeple Barton should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Francis, now Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Steeple Barton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Steeple Barton.

"Now therefore with the consent as to the said two undivided one-third shares of the said advowson of the said Duke of Marlborough being the person whose consent as Patron in respect of such two undivided one-third shares is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and with the consent as to the said one undivided one-third share of the said Alexander William Hall (in testimony of which consent the said Duke of Marlborough and the said Alexander William Hall have severally signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order all the estate and interest now vested in the said Duke of Marlborough and all the estate and interest in remainder of any person claiming through or under the said Duke of Marlborough or any of his predecessors in title by virtue of the settlement hereinbefore referred to in the said two undivided one-third shares of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Steeple Barton and all the estate and interest of the said Alexander William Hall in the said one undivided one-third share of the said advowson shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of and other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Scarcliffe, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Scarcliffe is vested for an estate in fee simple in the Most Noble Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire.

"And whereas the said Duke of Devonshire is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Scarcliffe now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Southwell.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Scarcliffe which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Scarcliffe.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Duke of Devonshire (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Scarcliffe now vested in him, the said Duke of Devonshire as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edwyn, Bishop of South-well, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts : and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of North Petherwin, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Petherwin is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Most Noble Herbrand Arthur Duke of Bedford, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Herbrand Arthur Duke of Bedford is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Petherwin, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Truro.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles William, now Bishop of Truro, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have agreed and undertaken as from the date upon which the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of North Petherwin which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect to make a grant of a yearly sum of fifteen pounds in augmentation of the said benefice out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and in these circumstances the said transfer of patronage will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of North Petherwin.

"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of fifteen pounds will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Herbrand Arthur Duke of Bedford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Petherwin, now vested in him, the said Herbrand Arthur Duke of Bedford as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Shareshill, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Shareshill stands limited to uses under which the Right Honourable Edward Percy, Baron Hatherton (hereinafter called the said Lord Hatherton) is tenant for life in possession, and the said Lord Hatherton is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Lord Hatherton is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Shareshill should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lichfield.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus, now Bishop of Lichfield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Shareshill which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Shareshill.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Lord Hatherton, being the person whose consent is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Shareshill shall be transferred to the said Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Stanhope, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, between that benefice and twenty-six other benefices, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Matthew, Bankfoot; the benefice (being a vicarage) of the Holy Trinity, Bingley; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Bartholomew, Bowling; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Michael, Bradford; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Thomas, Bradford; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Cowling; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Cullingworth; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Denholme Gate; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Eastwood; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Cuthbert, Hunslet; the benefice (being a vicarage) of All Saints, Leeds; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Philip, Leeds; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Simon, Leeds; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Little London, otherwise Saint Matthew, Leeds; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Morton; the benefice (being a vicarage) of New Wortley; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Oakworth; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Otley; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Oxenhope; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Pottery Field, otherwise Saint Jude, Hunslet; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Paul, Pudsey; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Queen's Head, otherwise Queensbury; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Andrew, Stourton; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Woodside; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Wrangthorn; and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Andrew, Yeadon; (hereinafter called 'the said twenty-six benefices') all of which are situate in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon is the Patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Stanhope and also of the said twenty-six benefices.

"And whereas the present endowments of the said benefice of Stanhope comprise amongst other things the sum of eleven thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine pounds and eleven pence London County Three pounds per centum per annum Stock and also the sum of four thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven pounds twelve shillings and five pence India Three pounds per centum per annum Stock held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Stanhope and as part of the endowments of the same benefice.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said twenty-six benefices are at present insufficiently endowed, and that after the transfer to or for the benefit of the Vicars or Incumbents of the said twenty-six benefices of such portions of the said sums of Stock as are specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme, the said benefice of Stanhope will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the cures attached to the said twenty-six benefices by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Stanhope which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Stanhope is now full, the Rector or Incumbent of the same being the Right Reverend John James Pulleine, Suffragan Bishop of Richmond.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which all the said benefices are situate, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, acting as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, acting as such Bishop and also as the Patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Stanhope and of the said twenty-six benefices (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their several episcopal seals), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same all those separate sums of stock (being part of the said sums of eleven thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine pounds and eleven pence London County Three pounds per centum per annum Stock and of four thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven pounds twelve shillings and five pence India Three pounds per centum per annum Stock) which are specified in Column II of the schedule to this scheme appended and which at present are held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said benefice of Stanhope shall be transferred from such benefice to the benefices mentioned in Column I of the said schedule and set opposite to the respective sums of Stock specified in Column II as aforesaid and shall be annexed to such benefices respectively and form part of the endowments thereof.

"And that in the event of the said benefice of Stanhope being avoided by the present Rector or Incumbent thereof by retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents Resignation Acts and a pension under those Acts being awarded to him the said transfer of the said sums of Stock shall take effect upon the cessation of such pension, and in the event of the said benefice of Stanhope being avoided by the present Incumbent without the grant of any pension to him under the said Resignation Acts, then the said transfer shall take effect upon such avoidance.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said diocese of Durham and of the diocese of Ripon respectively.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section eleven of the Revenue Act, 1909, it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix the fees payable in respect of licences for the importation of explosives granted by the Secretary of State under or in pursuance of the Explosives Act, 1875, and the fees so fixed shall be payable in respect of any licence so granted.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare and be it ordered and declared as follows:—

In respect of every importation licence granted by the Secretary of State on or after the first day of March, 1910, in pursuance of the provisions of section 40, sub-section (9), of the Explosives Act, 1875, there shall be paid a fee of ten shillings (10s.) for each two thousand pounds or part of two thousand pounds allowed to be imported under the said licence.

Provided that the minimum fee payable in respect of any such licence shall be one pound (£1).

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Privy Seal.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Pentland.

Sir Walter Hely-Hutchinson.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that His Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that the Second Part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any British Possession which in the opinion of His Majesty affords to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said British Possession as to His Majesty may seem just; and that from and after the day named in such Order in Council such British Possession shall be deemed to be a British Possession to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the said Second Part thereof, but that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any British Possession the said Second Part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such Possession.

And whereas by the Medical Act (1886) Amendment Act, 1905, it is provided that for the purposes of the Medical Act, 1886, where any part of a British Possession is under a central and also under a local legislature, His Majesty may, if he thinks fit, by Order in Council, declare that the part which is under the local legislature shall be deemed a separate British Possession.

And whereas the Province of Prince Edward Island, in the Dominion of Canada, is under a central and also under a local legislature.

And whereas the said Province of Prince Edward Island affords, in His Majesty's opinion, to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Province as to His Majesty seem just.

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order and declare that the Province of Prince Edward Island, in the Dominion of Canada, shall be deemed a separate British Possession, and that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed as from the date of this Order to apply to the said Province of Prince Edward Island.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Pentland.
Sir Walter Hely-Hutchinson.

WHEREAS by section 20 (3) of the Finance Act, 1894, it is enacted that His Majesty the King may, by Order in Council, apply that section to any British Possession where His Majesty is satisfied that, by the law of such Possession, either no duty is leviable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom when passing on death, or that the law of such Possession as respects any duty so leviable is to the like effect as the foregoing provisions of that section.

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that by the law of the Yukon Territory in the Dominion of Canada no duty is leviable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom when passing on death.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of and in exercise of the power by the aforesaid Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the twentieth section of the Finance Act, 1894, shall apply to the Yukon Territory in the Dominion of Canada.

ORDER of the Local Government Board:
Motor Car Act, 1903: Regulations under Section 9 (1).

COUNTY OF LONDON.

Metropolitan Borough of Hampstead.

To the London County Council;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in Regulations made by Us, the Local Government Board, with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the London County Council having made application to Us to make a Regulation in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising part of a certain road situate within the Metropolitan Borough of Hampstead, We directed a Local Inquiry to be held into the matter by one of Our Inspectors, and the Inquiry was held accordingly, and Report has been made to Us thereon:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us in that behalf, We do, by this Our Order, make the following Regulations:—

ARTICLE I.—The provisions of sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Act with respect to the driving of a motor car at a speed not exceeding ten miles per hour shall apply and have effect within the limits comprising so much of Heath-street, within the Metropolitan Borough of Hampstead as extends from its junction with High-street to a point situate 80 yards north of its junction with Hampstead-square.

ARTICLE II.—These Regulations shall come into operation on the seventeenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this sixth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

John Burns,
President.

H. C. Munro, Assistant-Secretary.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 13TH JANUARY 1910.)

FIFESHIRE (STRANGLES AND INFLUENZA) ORDER OF 1910.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1909, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Power to make Regulations.

1.—(1.) The Local Authority of a District mentioned in the Schedule hereto may by Regulation applicable to their District declare that the owner or person in charge of a horse affected with strangles or influenza, or suspected of being so affected, shall not

(i.) expose the horse in a market, fair, sale-yard, or other public or private place where horses are commonly exposed for sale;

(ii.) place the horse in a lair or other place adjacent to or connected with a market, fair, or sale-yard, or where horses are commonly placed before exposure for sale;

(iii.) place or keep the horse on common or unenclosed land, or in a field or place insufficiently fenced, or in a field adjoining other land on which horses are kept or adjoining a highway unless the field is so fenced or situate that animals therein cannot in any manner come in contact with any horse kept on the adjoining land or passing along the highway or grazing on the sides thereof;

(iv.) graze the horse on pasture being on the sides of a highway;

(v.) allow the horse to stray on a highway or thoroughfare or on the sides thereof;

(vi.) place the horse, or cause it to be placed in any stable or building in the occupation of some person other than the owner or person in charge of the horse, unless such occupier has notice of the horse being affected or suspected of being affected;

(vii.) take the horse or cause it to be taken into any public shoeing-forge or smithy; or (viii.) permit the horse to drink from any public watering trough.

(2.) The Regulations may be restricted to strangles or to influenza.

(3.) The Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries two copies of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

2. Horses shall be animals, and strangles and influenza shall be diseases for the purposes of this Order and of the following sections of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 (namely):

Section forty-three (Police);

Section forty-four (General Administrative Provisions); and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences or procedure.

INSTRUMENT substituting the new church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Galmpton, within the parish of South Huish, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, for the old church of Saint Andrew, now in ruins, but situate within and having formerly been the parish church of the same parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send Greeting:—

WHEREAS a new church has been built at Galmpton, within the parish of South Huish, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, and has been consecrated and dedicated to the Holy Trinity.

And whereas the Right Reverend Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, as Diocesan, the Reverend Edward Russell Bernard, one of the Canons Residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, acting on behalf of the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church, as the Patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of South Huish, and the Reverend Walter Reece-Heal, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage, have by an Instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the seventh day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of South Huish that the said new church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Galmpton, within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Andrew) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do by this Instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and of the said Walter Reece-Heal, hereby declare that the said new church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Galmpton, within the said parish of South Huish, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church of Saint Andrew, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of South Huish, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Andrew, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of the Holy Trinity, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish; and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned) do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of Saint Andrew or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of the Holy Trinity (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of South Huish) and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury have caused their common or capitular seal to be affixed, and the said Walter Reece-Heal has set his hand and affixed his seal this eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

LAW LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,
187, Fleet-street, London, E.C.
13th January, 1910.

To the Shareholders of the Society.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Meeting of the Law Life Assurance Society will be held at the Society's Office, No. 187, Fleet-street, London, E.C., on Wednesday, the 2nd day of February, 1910, at one o'clock in the afternoon, when the subjoined resolution, which was passed at the second of the two Special General Meetings of the Society, which were held on the 12th day of January, 1910, will be submitted for confirmation as a Special Resolution:—

Resolution.—"That the Regulations of the Society be altered and amended as follows, namely:—

"(1) By substituting 'fourteen days' for 'twenty-eight days' in Regulation 39.

"(2) By inserting after Regulation 130 the following new regulation, namely:—

"130A. At the Quinquennial Meeting, to be held by the Society in respect of the quinquennium ended on the 31st December, 1909, the surplus for such quinquennium shall be duly declared, and shall be allocated in the proper proportions to the proprietors and the policy-holders of the Society, and as regards the share so allocated to the proprietors so much thereof as may be required for the purpose shall be applied in making up the Proprietors' Guarantee Fund to £1,000,000, and the balance thereof shall, in the event of the Provisional Agreement, dated the 13th December, 1909, and made between William Rolle Malcolm, Esq., on behalf of the Society, of the one part, and the Right Honourable Lord George Francis Hamilton, P.C., G.C.S.I., on behalf of the Phoenix Assurance Company Limited, of the other part, becoming absolute on or before the 31st December, 1910, be held in trust for the said Phoenix Assurance Company Limited, upon and subject to the terms and conditions contained in the said agreement, but subject as aforesaid, such balance shall be dealt with and applied in accordance with the regulations of the Society in force on the 1st January, 1910, but so that in the event of the same being so dealt with and applied as last aforesaid, all necessary and proper allowances and adjustments shall be made with respect to any payment made by way of dividend to the proprietors in the month of July, 1910, in excess of the ordinary half-yearly dividend of 8s. per share, the intention being that any such excess shall be treated as a payment on account or by way of quinquennial bonus. The share of the said surplus which shall be allocated to the policy-holders of the Society as aforesaid shall, in any event, be distributed in accordance with the regulations of the Society in force on the 1st January, 1910."

By Order of the Directors.

E. H. HOLT, Manager and Secretary.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding-up).

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 0015 of 1910.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies Winding-up.

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 00447 of 1909.

In the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and in the Matter of the SILBERHUTTE SUPPLY COMPANY Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above petition for the winding up of the above named Company by the High Court of Justice, directed to be heard on the 12th of January, 1910, was adjourned by the Court, and will be heard on Tuesday, the 25th of January, 1910, before the Court sitting at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, when, in consequence of the shareholders of the Company having, at an Extraordinary General Meeting held on the 6th of January, 1910, resolved that the Company be wound up voluntarily, and that William Swan (of Messrs. Monkhouse, Goddard, and Co., Chartered Accountants), of Mosely-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, be appointed Liquidator of the Company, the Court will be asked by the petitioners to make an Order for the compulsory winding up of the Company, or in the alternative for an Order continuing the voluntary winding up of the Company under the supervision of the Court, and that a proper person may be appointed as Liquidator to act in place of the said William Swan, or in the alternative jointly with him as an additional Liquidator, instead of making an Order for the winding up of the Company by the Court. Any creditor or contributory of the Company desirous to support or oppose the making of an Order on the said petition, either for continuing the winding up of the Company under the supervision of the Court, or for the winding up by the Court, may appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.
