Whitehall, April 19, 1910.

His Majesty The King has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Hannah Hugill:—

On the 11th September, 1909, Mrs. Hugill, on going into a field at Court House Farm, Great Busby, with her daughter to bring in some cows, was attacked by an infuriated bull. She defended herself with a pitchfork, but was knocked down by the bull, which commenced to gore her. Her daughter, Hannah, aged 15 years, who had been left at the gate, about a hundred yards from the place where her mother was attacked, came to her aid, and, recovering the fork from under the bull, used it with all her strength, thus diverting the animal's attention.

The mother and daughter then succeeded in making good their escape from the field, though the mother was again attacked while crossing the fence. The girl's action saved her mother from severe and, possibly, fatal injury.

Whitehall, April 6, 1910.
