PRESENT,
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid :

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twentieth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say ;—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Kniveton, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kniveton now stands limited to the use of Henry Stanton, of Snelston Hall, near Ashbourne, in the said county of Derby, Esquire, during his life, and the said Henry Stanton is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kniveton is subject, together with other hereditaments, to a mortgage in favour of Juliana Bowyer Stanton, of Greenfield, Thelwall, near Warrington, Widow, and the Reverend Wilfrid James Stanton, also of Greenfield aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Henry Stanton, with the concurrence of the said Juliana Bowyer

Stanton and the said Wilfrid James Stanton, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kniveton should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, freed and absolutely discharged from the said mortgage.

"And whereas the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Kniveton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Kniveton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Stanton, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Juliana Bowyer Stanton and the said Wilfrid James Stanton (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kniveton shall be transferred to the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at a Council held by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales under the authority of the said Commission :

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ' the said benefice ') of Saint John's in the Vale, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

" Whereas one undivided moiety of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John's in the Vale is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Right Honourable James William Lowther, Member of Parliament, Speaker of the House of Commons, as trustee of the will of the late Right Honourable Henry Earl of Lonsdale, deceased, on certain discretionary trusts in favour (inter alia) of the Right Honourable Hugh Cecil Earl of Lonsdale during his life, but the said James William Lowther is the person who would be entitled to nominate or present to the said benefice if the same were now vacant and if the turn of presentation to be exercised formed part of the said undivided moiety of the said advowson.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Llanwnws or Gwnnws, in the county of Cardigan and in the diocese of St. David's.

"Whereas Rosalie Caroline Chichester, of Arlington Court, Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, Spinster, has (but subject to the mortgage hereinafter referred to) an absolute power of appointment by deed or will over the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwnws or Gwnnws, and the said Rosalie Caroline Chichester is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the advowson of the said benefice of Llanwnws or Gwnnws is together with other hereditaments subject to a mortgage in favour of the trustees of the Clergy Mutual Assurance Society, whose registered offices are at Numbers 2 and 3, The Sanctuary, in the city of Westminster.

"And whereas the said Rosalie Caroline Chichester is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwnws or Gwnnws should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said trustees of the Clergy Mutual Assurance Society are prepared to consent to such transfer for the purpose of enabling the advowson of the said benefice of Llanwnws or Gwnnws to be vested in the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, free from their said mortgage security.

"And whereas the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Rosalie Caroline Chichester, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Clergy Mutual Assurance Society (in testimony of which consent the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Very Reverend Arthur Perceval Purey Cust, Dean of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of York, Sir William Paget Bowman, Baronet, and George Tournay Biddulph, Esquire, the present trustees of the said Clergy Mutual Assurance Society have severally signed and sealed this scheme, and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llanwnws or Gwnnws, shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fourth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Helion Bumpstead, in the counties of Essex and Cambridge and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helion Bumpstead is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Arthur Day of Number 2, Millbank House, in the city of Westminster, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Arthur Day is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helion Bumpstead now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Helion Bumpstead which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Helion Bumpstead.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Day (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helion Bumpstead now vested in him the said Arthur Day, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at a Council held by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales under the authority of the said Commission :

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.

Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Blackburn, in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas part of the income of the said archdeaconry of Blackburn has hitherto been derived from procurations, synodals, visitation fees, and induction fees, or some or one of these sources, and it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that it is undesirable that fees derived from any of these sources should continue to be received by such Archdeacon as aforesaid, and such Archdeacon has discontinued to collect such fees,

"And whereas by reason of such discontinuance the income of such Archdeacon as aforesaid has been diminished and reduced below the yearly sum of two hundred pounds.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the augmentation hereinafter recommended and proposed is required in order to raise the annual income of the said Archdeacon to two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the Venerable Robert Crompton Fletcher, now Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Blackburn (in testimony whereof he, the said Archdeacon, has signed and sealed this scheme), humbly recommend and propose that, subject as is hereinafter mentioned, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, be authorised to pay by half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, to the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Blackburn, and to his successors in the same archdeaconry, the yearly sum of fifteen pounds in addition to the yearly sum of one hundred and eighty-five pounds now payable by us to the Archdeacon for the time being of the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that the first year in respect of which the said yearly sum of fifteen pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Blackburn shall be payable shall be the year ending the first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law, and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees during the same period.

"And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of fifteen pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Blackburn shall resign or otherwise avoid his archdeaconry, such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts or either of them or any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at a Council held by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales under the authority of the said Commission:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the nineteenth March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, His Majesty was pleased to order, amongst other things, that where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the schedule to that Order was vested in or held by any trustees other than the Commanding Officer of such unit, those trustees should until otherwise directed by Order in Council under section twenty-nine of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special trustees, to the exclusion of the Association, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and that the corresponding unit should, notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force:

And whereas by virtue of the above recited provisions of the said Order in Council the Trustees named in the first column of the schedule to this Order hold the property described and set opposite to their names in the second column of that schedule in trust for the unit of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third column of that schedule for the purposes and subject to the limitations mentioned in the deed (if any) referred to in the fourth column of that schedule, and it is expedient that such property should be transferred from those Trustees to the County Association mentioned in the fifth column of that schedule:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said property shall in each case be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said Trustees to and vested in the said County Association, subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the said property is properly applicable, and shall be held by that Association in like manner in all respects as it was held by the said Trustees for the benefit of the said unit of the Territorial Force, or for such other purposes as the Association, with the consent of the said unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council), shall direct, but so that the interest of any beneficiary other than the said unit or the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry with which it corresponds shall not without the consent of such beneficiary be affected.

SCHEDULE.

GOOLE PILOTS' SUPERANNUATION FUND.

The Humber Conservancy Board as the Pilotage Authority for the district in which the Port of Goole is situate, do make and publish the Bye-laws hereinafter set forth for the establishment of a Fund for the payment of pensions and retiring allowances, and disablement and other allowances to the Goole pilots, being contributors to such Fund.

DEFINITIONS.

In the construction of every Bye-law, matter and thing hereinafter contained, the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say:—

“The Board” means the Humber Conservancy Board.

“The Fund” means the Fund for the time being provided under these Bye-laws.

“Pilot” or “Goole pilot” means any pilot duly licensed by the Board for the Port of Goole or the waters thereof.

“The Service” means the Goole Pilotage Service.

“The General Committee” means the Finance Committee of the Board.

“The Managing Committee” means a Committee consisting of the three Commissioners representing the Goole Shipowners and the two Commissioners representing the Goole Chamber of Commerce and Shipping on the Humber Conservancy Board, together with two Goole Pilots to be chosen annually at the General Meeting mentioned in Bye-law twenty-four.

“The Clerk to the Fund” means the person from time to time appointed by the Managing Committee to such Office.

ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF THE FUND.

1. The Fund shall be deemed to be established as from the first January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and shall be administered for the exclusive benefit of the Goole pilots.

2. The pilots entitled for the time being to the benefits of the Fund shall be termed “The Goole Pilots’ Superannuation Fund Society,” and the Fund shall be maintained by contributions thereto by the members of the Society and the Board in manner hereinafter provided.

MEMBERSHIP.

3. All Goole pilots to be hereafter appointed, and all Goole pilots under the age of fifty-five years in the Service at the date of the establishment of the Fund and who may have applied to become members within six months from such date, shall become and be members upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing. In every other case the Managing Committee shall determine whether and upon what terms a pilot who may be disqualified by age may be admitted as a member. A person appointed pilot temporarily, or for a special purpose, shall not be eligible as a member.

4. Every pilot shall on his appointment or prior to becoming a member of the Society, make an application for that purpose in writing under his hand, addressed to the Clerk to the Fund. Such application shall be in the Form set out in the Schedule hereto.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

(a) By Members.

5. Every pilot who becomes a member of the Society shall, until he dies, retires, or is dismissed from the Service, pay to the Fund yearly, at such times and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the General Committee, a sum to be calculated after the rate of two pounds ten shillings per centum per annum on his net earnings as a pilot.

(b) By the Board.

6. The Board will, so long as there shall be a sufficient surplus of the fees mentioned in section six hundred and two of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and so long as such surplus shall be applicable to such purpose, contribute to the Fund yearly out of the surplus of such fees such sum as they shall in their discretion think fit.

PENSIONS, RETIRING ALLOWANCES, DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCES, AND REPAYMENTS.

7. Every member under the age of fifty-five years at the date of his becoming a member, and every member hereafter appointed a pilot, shall be at liberty to retire from the Service on attaining the age of sixty-five years, and upon such retirement his contributions shall cease, and he shall become entitled to receive a pension at the rate of two pounds twelve shillings per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the day of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine. Provided always that in no case shall the amount of a pension exceed one pound per week unless the General Committee on the recommendation of the Managing Committee shall otherwise determine.

8. If through failure of health any member with the consent of the Managing Committee retires from the Service before he becomes entitled to a pension, upon such retirement his liability for contributions shall cease, and he shall become entitled to the following benefits:—

(a) If such retirement takes place when the retiring member has completed fifteen years in the Service, he shall (subject as hereinafter provided) receive during his life a retiring allowance at the rate of one pound fourteen shillings and eight pence per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the date of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee, on the recommendation of the Managing Committee, shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine.

(b) If such retirement takes place when the retiring member has completed ten years in the Service, he shall (subject as hereinafter provided) receive during his life a retiring allowance at the rate of seventeen shillings and four pence per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the date of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee, on the recommendation of the Managing Committee, shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine.

(c) Provided that if any member in receipt of such retiring allowance as aforesaid shall re-enter the Service or recover in health so far as to be capable of earning his own livelihood, wholly or partially, as before his retirement, the General Committee, on the recommendation of the Managing Committee, may revoke or reduce his allowance accordingly while he is under the age of sixty-five. Provided also that no retiring allowance shall be increased by reason of the retiring member subsequently attaining the age of sixty-five years or otherwise.

(d) In cases other than aforesaid, members retiring from the Service from ill-health may be refunded all or part of the payments made by them to the Fund, but without interest, if the Managing Committee so recommend, and if the General Committee shall in their absolute discretion determine that the financial position of the Fund is such as to amply justify such return; such refunding to be made in such manner or by such instalments as the General Committee shall determine.

9. If a member shall be temporarily disabled by accident occurring whilst in the discharge of duty, or shall be temporarily disabled from performing his duty by sickness, he shall be entitled on the recommendation of the Managing Committee to receive a sick allowance, the amount and period of such allowance to be in all cases determined by the General Committee.

10. Failure of health, disablement, or sickness shall in every case be proved to the satisfaction of the Managing Committee. No allowance, gratuity, or bonus shall be paid in respect thereof, otherwise than on a certificate of a qualified medical practitioner, approved by the Managing Committee. Any applicant for relief in consequence of disablement or sickness who shall refuse to be examined by the medical officer will be excluded from relief.

11. All pensions and allowances shall be paid weekly, fortnightly, or monthly, as the Managing Committee shall from time to time determine.

12. If a member voluntarily, or on notice from the Board (except in case of dishonesty or fraud, or gross misconduct, or neglect of duty as a pilot) retire from the Service, he may be refunded all or part of the payments made by him to the Fund, but without interest, if the Managing Committee so recommend, and if the General Committee think fit and determine that the financial position of the Fund is such as to amply justify such return, such refunding to be made in such manner or by such instalments as the General Committee shall determine.

13. If a member dies before he shall become a pensioner his case shall be dealt with by the Managing Committee in one of the two alternative methods following, as the said Committee may determine, viz. :—

(a) The widow, children, parents or other relatives of such member who in the opinion of the said Committee are actually dependent upon him shall be paid an allowance per annum equal to what his pension would have been, until they have received such a sum or sums as equals the total sum contributed by such member to the Fund, but without interest, after deducting therefrom all sums which such member shall have received from the Fund during his life in allowances or otherwise.

or (b) The said Committee may, if in their discretion they consider it best, pay over to such family or dependents a lump sum equal to two-thirds of the amount so contributed after deducting as hereinbefore mentioned.

14. If a member die after becoming a pensioner, or while he is in receipt of a retiring allowance, but before the payments to him by way of pension or retiring allowance or otherwise have reached a sum equal to two-thirds of the amount of his contributions, his case shall be dealt with by the Managing Committee in one of the two alternative methods described in the last preceding Bye-law.

15. The receipt in writing of the person or persons to whom any moneys payable under Bye-laws thirteen or fourteen shall be paid, shall be a full and complete discharge to the Managing Committee and the Board respectively. For the purposes of these Bye-laws persons under the age of twenty-one years but not under sixteen shall (notwithstanding their infancy) be competent to give a good discharge for any moneys paid to them.

16. If a member shall be broken and dismissed as a pilot, or retire from the Service on account of gross misconduct or neglect of duty, or on account of having committed or abetted dishonesty or fraud, he shall forfeit all his contributions and lose all benefit whatsoever from the Fund. The Managing Committee shall, after having made enquiry and investigation, have full power to determine, and shall be absolute judges, whether any member has or has not been dismissed or has retired from the Service on account of misconduct, neglect of duty, or dishonesty, or of fraud, or abetting the same. Provided that the Managing Committee may, in exceptional cases, if they consider any extenuating circumstances exist, grant to a member so broken and dismissed, or retiring as aforesaid, such a sum, not in any case exceeding one half of the amount of his contributions, without interest, as in their discretion they may think fit, such grant to be made in such manner and by such instalments as the Managing Committee shall determine.

MANAGEMENT OF FUNDS.

17. The Fund shall be managed by the Managing Committee.

18. The decision of a majority of the members of the Managing Committee, present at any meeting of such Committee, shall be deemed to be the decision of the Managing Committee. Four members of the Managing Committee shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. The Managing Committee shall elect a Chairman for the year at their first meeting in the year. In the absence of the Chairman, the other members of the Managing Committee may choose a Chairman. The Chairman of the meeting shall in case of equal division have an additional or casting vote. The procedure of the Managing Committee shall be regulated by such Committee.

Officers.

19. The Managing Committee shall from time to time, with the approval of the General Committee, appoint such officers or agents (if any) as they shall think necessary for the proper management of the affairs of the Society and the Fund, and shall fix the salaries or other remuneration (if any) of such officers or agents respectively, and may remove any such officers or agents.

Trustee and Treasurer.

20. The Board shall be the Trustee and Treasurer of the Society.

ACCOUNTS.

Audit of Accounts.

21. The Managing Committee shall cause the accounts of the Fund to be regularly entered in proper books, and shall balance the same once at least in every year up to the thirty-first December then last, and shall cause a balance-sheet or statement of the accounts of the Fund at that day, with all necessary vouchers up to the date of the said balance-sheet, to be made out and laid before an Auditor, to be appointed as next hereafter mentioned, within one month after the date of the said balance-sheet.

22. The Auditor shall be a Chartered or Incorporated Accountant of Goole, to be from time to time appointed at the Annual Meeting held as mentioned in Bye-law twenty-four hereof. In the event of the death or retirement of such Auditor, or of his inability or refusal to perform the duties, the Managing Committee shall fill up the vacancy for the remainder of the term of his office. The remuneration of the Auditor shall be fixed by the Managing Committee.

23. The accounts shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any member of the Society.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

24. An annual general meeting of the members of the Society shall be held during the month of February, March or April in each year, at such place, day and hour as may be fixed by the Managing Committee. At such meeting the Managing Committee shall present a report of their proceedings during the previous year, and a statement of accounts, and two Goole pilots shall be elected as members of the Managing Committee for the following year. The Auditor shall also be appointed at this meeting for such year.

Voting.

25. All questions which may arise at such meetings, or at any meeting of the Society held under these Bye-laws, shall be determined by the majority of the members of the Society then and there present, who, in the absence of the Chairman of the Managing Committee, may elect one of the members of the Managing Committee, or in their absence, one of the members of the Society present, as Chairman for the occasion. The Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to vote, and in the event of an equality of votes at any meeting the Chairman of that meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote. All Members of the Managing Committee shall be summoned to attend all meetings of the Society. Minutes of the proceedings shall be made, and shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman of the meeting.

Special Meetings.

26. A special general meeting of the members of the Society may be convened at any time by the Chairman of the Managing Committee, or upon a requisition to the Chairman to that effect, signed by at least four of the members of the Society, not being members of the Managing Committee. Meetings may be adjourned. Fourteen days' notice shall be given of all meetings, in such manner as the Managing Committee may direct.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Disputes.

28. The Board, after hearing the opinion of the General Committee, shall decide all cases not provided for by these Bye-laws. Any dispute, difference or question respecting the construction, operation or meaning of these Bye-laws, or any modification thereof, or addition thereto, or otherwise, relating to the Fund, shall be submitted to and determined by the General Committee, whose decision shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties.
