PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Kimbolton, in the county of Huntingdon and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kimbolton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for The Most Noble William Angus Drogo, Duke of Manchester, Viscount Mandeville, Baron Montagu of Kimbolton (hereinafter called 'the said Duke of Manchester'), during his life, and the said Duke of Manchester is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Duke of Manchester is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kimbolton should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Kimbolton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Kimbolton.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Duke of Manchester, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Duke of Manchester, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of The Honourable Charles William Augustus Montagu, commonly called Lord Charles Montagu, of Number 44, Grosvenor-square, London, a Companion of the Royal Victorian Order, The Honourable Archibald Charles Montagu Brabazon Acheson, commonly called Viscount Acheson, of Mexborough House, in the county of London, The Very Reverend John Julius Hannah, Dean of Chichester, and Sir Charles Gervaise Boxall, of Battlemead, Maidenhead, in the county of Berks, a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Kimbolton, shall be transferred to the said Duke of Manchester, Charles William Augustus Montagu, Archibald Charles Montagu Brabazon Acheson, John Julius Hannah and Charles Gervaise Boxall, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Duke of Manchester, Charles William Augustus Montagu, Archibald Charles Montagu Brabazon Acheson, John Julius Hannah and Charles Gervaise Boxall, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section three of the Explosives Act, 1875, it is provided that the term "explosive" in the said Act shall mean

(amongst other things) every substance manufactured with a view to produce a practical effect by explosion:

And whereas by section fifty of the said Act it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council to exempt any explosive prescribed by Order in Council from any provisions of the said Act:

And whereas tri-nitro-toluol is manufactured with a view to produce a practical effect by explosion:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and prescribe as follows:—

I. Tri-nitro-toluol when in process of manufacture and when kept or sold shall be exempt from being deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act.

II. Tri-nitro-toluol when conveyed or imported shall be exempt from being deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act, provided it is packed in staunch and substantial barrels or in cases constructed of wood not less than one inch in thickness.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the five hundred and eighty-second and five hundred and eighty-third sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that a Pilotage Authority may, by Bye-law made under Part X of that Act, do all or any of the things specified in section five hundred and eighty-two; but that a Bye-law so made shall not take effect until it is submitted to His Majesty in Council and confirmed by Order in Council:

And whereas the Newry Port and Harbour Trustees, being a Pilotage Authority, have made and submitted for the confirmation of His Majesty in Council certain Bye-laws as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the proposed Bye-laws are proper and reasonable:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, doth hereby by and with the advice of His Privy Council, approve of, and by this Order confirm, the said Bye-laws, as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed.

10. In the event of a dispute arising between pilots as to which of them is entitled to the rates in respect of a vessel piloted within the Pilotage District the Trustees shall hear and investigate the dispute, and after hearing all or any persons, and taking such evidence as they may think necessary, shall decide to whom such rates shall be payable, or shall be at liberty to withhold payment of the same, and the Trustees shall be the sole judges in such matters, and there shall be no appeal from their decision.

11. The Superintendent shall be at liberty to suspend any pilot known to be addicted to drink on shore, or who is under the influence of drink when in charge of a vessel, or who in his opinion from any cause whatever becomes incompetent to act as pilot, or who commits a breach of any of these Bye-laws, or commits any offence contrary to the laws relating to pilots contained in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or any Acts extending or amending the same. The suspension of any such pilot shall continue until the next meeting of the Trustees, when if the misconduct or incompetency be proven the pilot offending shall be dismissed or otherwise punished.

War Office,

17th June, 1910.

The following Despatches relating to operations in Somaliland have been received by the Under Secretary of State for the Colonies:—

Despatch relating to Field Operations.

71, Eaton-terrace, London, S.W.,
31st March, 1910.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 5416 of the 3rd of March, transmitting for my consideration a copy of a letter, with enclosures, from Colonel J. E. Gough, on the subject of the operations in Somaliland.

2. I am glad to have this opportunity of placing on record my appreciation of the excellent work performed by the detachments of the King's African Rifles, who were employed on special service in Somaliland during the year 1909. As Colonel Gough points out, the conditions under which they were required to serve were of an exceptionally trying nature, involving all the fatigues and hardships inseparable from active service without any of the stimulus and excitement afforded by actual hostilities. The cheerful, loyal, and conscientious spirit displayed by all ranks throughout reflects the greatest credit on all concerned, and I thoroughly concur in the commendations made by the late Inspector-General with regard to the undermentioned officers:—

Captain The Honourable H. Dawnay, D.S.O., Rifle Brigade.

Brevet Major H. Pope-Hennessy, D.S.O., Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry.

Captain C. E. Dansey, Reserve of Officers.

Major (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) J. A. Hannington, Indian Army.

Major G. E. Pigott, D.S.O., Army Service Corps.

Captain N. G. Anderson, D.S.O., Army Service Corps.

Major F. Woodall, Army Pay Department.

Captain (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) B. R. Graham, Indian Army.

Captain (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) J. D. Mackay, Seaforth Highlanders.

Lieutenant R. A. Boger, Royal Engineers.

Captain M. J. Quirke, Indian Medical Service.

Conductor A. Donnelly, Army Ordnance Corps.

3. I desire particularly to bring to notice the services of Colonel J. E. Gough, V.C., A.D.C. I am much indebted to him both for his sound judgment and advice in dealing with the military situation, and also for the loyal assistance and support which he consistently gave me in carrying out a difficult and unattractive policy. The excellent behaviour of the troops under his command is largely to be attributed to the example of patience and cheerfulness displayed by him under all conditions and in spite of constant ill-health which eventually necessitated his being invalided home.

4. I have already had the honour of drawing attention, in a separate Despatch, to the valuable services rendered by Captain C. E. Dansey and the whole of the political establishment.

5. In conclusion I trust that the services of the officers mentioned in this and other Despatches referred to will receive suitable recognition, and that, in view of the arduous nature of the operations, which His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies has already ruled should be considered as active service, the Army Council will favourably consider the grant of the African General Service Medal or clasp.

I have, &c.,

H. E. S. CORDEAUX

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

Staff College, Camberley,
9th February, 1910.

From Colonel J. Gough to the Under Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose a short Despatch from myself, and an extract from a report of Lieutenant-Colonel Hannington's.

These two reports, taken together, give an outline of the work performed by the King's African Rifles during the year 1909 in Somaliland.

I would have forwarded this report through Captain Cordeaux, C.B., late Commissioner of Somaliland, for his remarks before sending it to the Secretary of State, but Captain Cordeaux has left Somaliland on promotion to be Governor of Uganda.

Under the circumstances I am sending the report direct, but I would be glad if it could be sent to Captain Cordeaux as he is aware of the nature and value of the services of the King's African Rifles in Somaliland.

I have, &c.,

J. E. GOUGH, Colonel,

late Inspector-General, The King's African Rifles.

Staff College, Camberley,
9th February, 1910.

The Under Secretary of State for the Colonies.
Sir,

As the 1st, 3rd, and 4th Battalions, The King's African Rifles, have now left Somaliland, I think it is a suitable moment to forward a Despatch from myself and Lieutenant-Colonel Hannington, giving a short resumé of the work in Somaliland from December, 1908, to December, 1909.

Since August, 1908, the situation in Somaliland has been unsettled, the troops in the Protectorate being practically under active service conditions the whole time. In September, 1908, Lieutenant Rose, of the 6th Battalion, was wounded in an affair with a raiding party in the Ain Valley.

In December, 1908, the Mullah took up such a threatening attitude and there was so much uneasiness amongst our friendly tribes, that reinforcements of King's African Rifles from East Africa, Uganda, and Nyasaland were ordered to the Protectorate.

I took over command of the troops in Somaliland on 20th January, 1909.

On the 22nd January a column consisting of the 1st Battalion (300 strong) and the 6th Battalion (400 strong) left Burao and occupied the Ain Valley, which was at that time threatened with a raid on a large scale.

The 3rd and 4th Battalions, King's African Rifles, did not arrive in the country till about the middle of February. The 3rd Battalion (450 strong) was sent up at once to the Ain column, and the 4th Battalion (450 strong) was kept in reserve at Burao.

Like all operations in Somaliland, the great difficulty to be met was in arranging for supply and transport for the troops.

The local purchase of camels proceeded slowly, but by degrees sufficient camels were purchased to allow of seven days' forage and rations and two days' water being carried in the field on Government transport.

The pushing up of supplies to form a four and a half months' reserve at Burao was arranged for by the Director of Supply and Transport.

With the active assistance of the civil officials of the Protectorate this big reserve was transported up from Berbera to Burao (a distance of 90 miles) by the use of locally hired transport.

In addition to arranging for the supply and transport, an Ordnance dépôt was established at Burao.

When it is remembered that practically nothing can be obtained locally in the Protectorate, except fresh meat and burden camels, it will be realised that the organization of these departments entailed a considerable amount of care and hard work upon the officers of the departments concerned.

Up to the beginning of June, when I was invalided out of the country, we never had to go short of either rations or forage.

On March 22nd, 1909, two companies of the 113th Infantry, under Major Lloyd Jones, occupied Laskhorai. It was found necessary to occupy this place as the Wasangli Somalis were much opposed to the Government, and it was thought that the occupation would bring pressure to bear upon them, and also that it would prevent the Mullah moving up into that neighbourhood. This detachment remained in occupation of Laskhorai until 6th of May, 1909, when it was withdrawn owing to the monsoon breaking and preventing any landing on that coast taking place. From January, 1909, till June, 1909, the troops were employed on reconnaissances, and were moved about to localities threatened with raids by the dervishes. The regular troops never actually came in contact with the dervishes, but there were constant small affairs between our native scouts and parties of dervishes. In these skirmishes we lost about thirty killed and wounded, and the dervishes probably a few more.

Although the troops had not any of the excitement of active hostilities, they underwent all the fatigues and discomforts incidental to such service. There was not a tent in the force, except four or five for the use of the hospital. The allowance of baggage was limited to the amount that could be carried on the march. The fatigues entailed by the necessity for storing water were heavy and continuous. In April and May the heat was excessive and shade a luxury difficult to obtain. The troops were, except during the rains, on a short allowance of water, the water itself being extraordinarily repulsive. I would particularly draw attention to the fact that, under these somewhat trying conditions, the discipline and spirit of the troops were beyond praise.

The following Officers and non-commissioned Officers did exceptionally good work, and I would wish to draw attention to their services.

Captain The Honourable H. Dawnay, D.S.O., Rifle Brigade, was my Chief Staff Officer. It was mainly owing to his ability and keenness that all the arrangements for organising and maintaining the Force worked so smoothly.

Brevet Major H. Pope-Hennessy, D.S.O., Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry, was D.A.A. and Q.M.G. Although he is senior in Army rank to Captain Dawnay, he worked most loyally under that officer. He is a hard-working, capable officer.

Captain Dansey (Reserve of Officers), Political Officer, Somaliland Protectorate, who acted as Intelligence Officer. Captain Dansey had a difficult task in dealing with our so-called friendlies and in arranging for the organisation of the native scouts. He was of the greatest assistance to me.

Major (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) J. A. Hannington, Indian Army. Lieutenant-Colonel Hannington was commanding the 6th Battalion K.A.R., and I handed over command of the troops to him when I was invalided. He always gave me the most loyal support. A good hard-working officer.

Major G. E. Pigott, D.S.O., Army Service Corps, was Director of Supply and Transport, and he was also responsible for the Ordnance Department. Major Pigott had an exceptionally difficult task; his arrangements were excellent.

Captain N. G. Anderson, Army Service Corps, was Assistant Director of Supply and Transport after the arrival of Major Pigott; previous to the arrival of the latter officer Captain Anderson was in charge of the department, and was of the greatest assistance to me.

I should also like to call attention to the good services of the following Officers and Warrant Officer:—

Major Woodall, Army Pay Department.

Captain (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) B. R. Graham, Indian Army, commanding the 4th Battalion, The K.A.R.

Captain (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) J. D. MacKay, Seaforth Highlanders, commanding the 3rd Battalion, The K.A.R.

Lieutenant R. A. Boger, Royal Engineers, in charge of the water arrangements.

Captain M. J. Quirke, Indian Medical Service, the Senior Medical Officer with the Force.

Conductor A. Donnelly, Army Ordnance Department, in charge of the Ordnance Department.

I have, &c.,

J. E. GOUGH, Colonel,

late Inspector-General, The King's African Rifles.

EXTRACT.

Confidential.

Burao, December 7th, 1909.

From Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Hannington, Commanding Troops, Somaliland, to His Majesty's Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief, Somaliland Protectorate.

On June 3rd I took over command from Colonel Gough, who had gone sick. From that date to September 10th no movements of troops were undertaken, owing to attempts being made to arrive at an agreement with the Mullah.

September 10th.—The 6th Battalion moved out to Badwein on account of threatened hostilities from the Warrangli country. From this date a system of continuous patrolling was carried out to Adad.

October 1st.—One company, 6th Battalion, moved to Yaguri on account of attack on Illaloe post there.

October 11th.—Camel Company (Indian) of 6th Battalion, moving on patrol to Adad, was attacked by dervishes, losing five rank and file killed and one transport follower. The company put the dervishes to flight, pursuing them for miles, and being joined in the pursuit by C Company, 6th Battalion. The remainder of the 6th Battalion moved out in support.

October 26th.—The 1st and 3rd Battalions moved out from Wadamago to Badwein. The 4th Battalion moving up from Burao to Eildab. The concentration was carried out as if a forward move was to be made. The object was the support of the tribes whom the Political Officers were organising for a raid on a large scale with the idea of giving them confidence to look after and defend themselves.

October 27th.—The tribal force refused to go forward without actual attendance of troops. Some 200 riflemen mutinied, firing over the Government camps, and the whole scheme fell through. All troops except the 6th Battalion were moved back to Eildab and Wadamago.

November 1st–10th.—The 6th Battalion carried out a system of patrols in support of an Illaloe raiding party despatched by the Political Officer.

November 13th.—Two companies 6th Battalion moved out in pursuit of raiders who had raided Waridad. From this date, owing to instructions from England, no offensive movements have been undertaken.

December 10th–20th.—The Ain column returned to Burao. The foregoing record of work carried out by the troops differs but little from active service and the work which would have been carried out on an expedition, especially in the case of the 6th Battalion. The conditions and precautions have been similar to active service, and, in his telegram of November 1st, His Majesty's Secretary of State has been pleased to direct that it shall be deemed to be active service.

In connection with the above work I have the honour to bring to your notice for favourable consideration the services of the following for good work during the past year.

STAFF.

Captain the Honourable H. Dawnay, D.S.O., Rifle Brigade, Chief Staff Officer. A most capable officer whose services have been invaluable.

Brevet Major L. H. Pope-Hennessy, D.S.O., Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry, Staff Officer. A good hard-working, loyal Staff Officer, who has done good work.

Brevet Major (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) H. A. Walker, Royal Fusiliers, commanding 1st Battalion, King's African Rifles.

Captain J. L. Jesse, Army Service Corps, Base Commandant.

The above three officers for the able and efficient manner in which all Army Service Corps duties have been carried out.

Captain M. J. Quirke, Indian Medical Service, P.M.O. For general good work.

Lieutenant R. A. Boger, Royal Engineers. A most energetic capable officer who has done very good work.

Conductor A. Donnelly, Army Ordnance Department, who has carried out all ordnance work in a particularly efficient manner.

Staff Sergeant J. S. Hyland, Army Service Corps.

Staff Q.-M.-Sergeant L. Hancock, Army Service Corps.

I beg to bring to notice the splendid behaviour of the rank and file of the King's African Rifles Battalions. In spite of the disappointment at seeing no fighting, and with none of the excitement but all the hard work of active service, their bearing and behaviour has been excellent. There has been a complete absence of serious crime and all work has been continuously well performed.

In view of the conditions under which officers have lived for the past year I would request for your favourable recommendation the privilege of two months extra Somaliland leave being granted to officers. This was done at the end of the previous operations in this country.
