TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 1910.

Whitehall, June 20, 1910.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty at Frogmore, on Friday, the 17th instant:—

To His Most Excellent Majesty King George V.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the Ancient and Royal Borough of New Windsor, on behalf of the inhabitants, humbly beg to offer to Your Majesty our profound sympathy, and to give expression to the deep grief which we feel at the loss which the nation has sustained by the death of our late beloved Sovereign King Edward VII.

His reign has been characterized by His desire to maintain the peace of the world, His kind thoughtfulness and care for the sick and the afflicted, and His never ceasing good works for the general welfare of His people.

We mourn the loss, but with every confidence we feel that with Your Majesty's great experience of the vast Dominions over which You rule, the future commercial and political relationship with Foreign Powers and the prosperity of Great Britain and her Colonies will be well maintained.

We desire to humbly offer our loyal congratulations to Your Majesty upon Your accession to the Throne of our glorious Empire.

We especially esteem the privilege which Your Majesty has graciously extended to the Burgesses of Windsor by personally accepting our dutiful Address, and we humbly pray that Your Majesty and Your Gracious Queen may long be spared by Almighty God to fill the exalted position to which You have been called.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It gives Me great pleasure to receive your loyal and dutiful Address, and I am particularly glad to have this opportunity of testifying My esteem for the Burgesses of Windsor. We have been neighbours already for many years, and we shall now be drawn together in that still closer association which has for centuries united your Ancient and Royal Borough to the Sovereigns of this realm.

"I thank you for your generous expression of sympathy in My great loss, and for your appreciation of the many good works which marked My beloved Father's Reign.

"I value the assurance of your confidence that I shall maintain His endeavours to secure prosperity at home and peace abroad, and I am deeply sensible of the sincerity of your good wishes for the Queen and Myself."

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of West Harnham and Britford (formerly East Harnham), in the county of Wilts, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the nineteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and made or expressed to be made between the Right Honourable Jacob, Earl of Radnor, of the first part, William Henry Perry Leslie and Frank Chaplin of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, certain lands and hereditaments containing thirty-five acres and thirty-six perches or thereabouts situate in the said parishes, and delineated and coloured blue on the plan drawn on the said indenture, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Salisbury.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Long Marston, partly in the county of Hertford and partly in the county of Buckingham and wholly in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette upon the nineteenth day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church situate at Long Marston, in the parish of Tring, in the said county of Hertford, and at that time in the diocese of Rochester, but now in the said diocese of St. Albans, and the said consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Long Marston.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Long Marston has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Long Marston shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Long Marston shall be altered so that all those portions of the said parish of Tring and of the parish of Oldbury, in the said county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Albans, which are described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink and green respectively, shall be dissevered from such parishes, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Long Marston.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Long Marston, partly in the county of Hertford and partly in the county of Buckingham and wholly in the diocese of Saint Albans, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Tring and of the parish of Oldbury, both in the said county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Albans, which, taken together, are bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the south-west by the parish of Drayton Beauchamp, in the said county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, upon the north-west partly by the parish of Puttenham, in the said county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Albans, and partly by the said new parish of Long Marston, upon the north-east by the parish of Marsworth, in the said county of Buckingham and in the said diocese of Oxford, and upon the south-east by the boundary which divides the civil parish of Tring Urban from the civil parish of Tring Rural."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council a scheme bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Nash, and the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Goldcliff, both in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas the advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Nash and the said benefice of Goldcliff, are vested in the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, commonly called the King's College of our Blessed Lady of Eton nigh or by Windsor, in the said county of Bucks, and the same College (which said Provost and College are hereinafter called 'the said Provost and College') and their successors.

"And whereas the said Provost and College are desirous that the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Nash and the said benefice of Goldcliff, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And whereas the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Nash and the said benefice of Goldcliff, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parishes or districts in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowsons so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Nash and in the parish of Goldcliff.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Provost and College (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme with their corporate or common seal) and with the consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Nash and the said benefice of Goldcliff, now vested in them the said Provost and College and their successors as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Marton, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Charles Edward Archibald McComas, of Queen Anne's Mansions, in the city of Westminster, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marton, vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in him, the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas and the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, now Bishop of Worcester to hold as joint tenants for the term of the natural life of him, the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas, and thereafter should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Worcester and his successors Bishops of Worcester for ever.

"And whereas the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, in token of his willingness to accept the share of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage which is hereinafter recommended and proposed to be vested in him and in token that the transfer which is hereinafter recommended and proposed has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Marton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Marton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marton now vested in him, the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas shall be transferred to the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas and the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, to hold as joint tenants for the term of the natural life of the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas, and as from the decease of the said Charles Edward Archibald McComas shall be transferred to and be vested in the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors Bishops of Worcester for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby:

Almeric Fitz-Roy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-one of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the Registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and

"thenceforward such last mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas by section twenty-three of the said Act it is further enacted "That when, ever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act . . . it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively . . . to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent charges or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively as to His Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, moduses or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the thirteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and nine, the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury caused a statement of the facts respecting a proposed disunion of the benefices of Sibertswold and Coldred, both situate in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, to be affixed to the principal outer doors of the churches of the said benefices, such statement being in the words and figures following:—

"A statement in writing of the facts respecting the proposed disunion of the united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Sibertswold and the rectory of Coldred, both in the county of Kent, within the diocese and province of Canterbury, by the separation of the rectory of Coldred from the vicarage of Sibertswold under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, 1 and 2 Victoria, chapter one hundred and six.

"Whereas, it having appeared to us, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the province of Canterbury, that the united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Sibertswold and the rectory of Coldred in our diocese of Canterbury, might with advantage to the interests of religion be disunited by the separation of the rectory of Coldred from the vicarage of Sibertswold under the Pluralities Act, 1838, we have made enquiry into the circumstances of the case, and on such enquiry it having appeared to us that such union may be usefully dissolved, we do hereby in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament make the following statement of facts:—

"That the aggregate population of the parishes of Sibertswold and Coldred according to the latest returns of population does not exceed six hundred and ten persons, the population of the parish of Sibertswold being four hundred and seventy and that of Coldred one hundred and forty.

"That there is a church belonging to each of the said benefices. The church of Sibertswold has accommodation for one hundred and ninety people and that at Coldred for eighty people.

"That there is a sufficient house of residence belonging to Sibertswold, but there is no house of residence belonging to Coldred.

"That the gross annual value, taking the tithe at par, of the united benefice, including the payment of seventy pounds by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England hereinafter referred to, is four hundred and fifty-one pounds sixteen shillings and twopence or thereabouts, and the net annual value is three hundred and forty-five pounds six shillings or thereabouts.

"That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England intend on this disunion taking effect to permanently annex to the benefice of Sibertswold the said sum of seventy pounds per annum hitherto granted by them to the united benefices of Sibertswold with Coldred.

"That the patronage of the united benefice of Sibertswold with Coldred belongs to myself by virtue of my Archbishoprick, and as such patron I consent to the disunion of the said united benefice.

"That the endowment to be appropriated to the vicarage of Sibertswold will consist of the tithe rent-charges arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and thirty-six pounds nine shillings and eightpence-halfpenny, of an annual payment of six pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence tithe in lieu of hops, the reit of the glebe farm and of the land received on exchange with the Earl of Guildford's trustees, now forty-one pounds per annum, and the permanent endowment by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the said sum of seventy pounds per annum.

"That the endowment of the rectory of Coldred shall be the tithe rent charge arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and ninety-seven pounds twelve shillings and elevenpence; net, one hundred and thirty-six pounds eighteen shillings and fivepence-halfpenny.

"That, with the exception of the annual payment due to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the mortgage made to them by an instrument bearing date the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, which annual payment shall be borne and paid by the benefice of Sibertswold, the said vicarage of Sibertswold and rectory of Coldred shall respectively bear, pay, and discharge all the outgoings which are charged upon the income which they shall respectively hold and enjoy.

"The chief reason for the disunion is that it will be to the advantage of the interests of religion to proceed to attach the said benefice or rectory of Coldred (when disunited as aforesaid) to the adjoining benefice of Waldershare.

"Dated this twenty-ninth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine.

"Randall Cantuar."

And whereas the consents of the said Archbishop, as patron of the said united benefice, and of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, as mortgagees, are as follows.—

CONSENTS.

"We, Randall Thomas, by Divine Providence Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, being by virtue of our Archbishoprick the patron or person entitled to present to the united benefice of Sibertswold with Coldred, the same being now vacant, hereby consent to the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the vicarage of Sibertswold from the rectory of Coldred under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, and to all matters and things contained in the aforesaid statement of facts.

"As witness my hand and seal, this twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine.

"We, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, hereby consent that the annual payment due to the Governors in respect of the mortgage made to us by an instrument dated the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, shall be borne and paid by the benefice of Sibertswold."

And whereas on the fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and ten, the said Archbishop, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, certified to His Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"We, the undersigned Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the province of Canterbury, do hereby, in pursuance of the Pluralities Act, 1838, certify to Your Majesty in Council that it having appeared to us that the united benefice consisting of the vicarage of Sibertswold and the rectory of Coldred in our diocese of Canterbury might with advantage to the interests of religion be disunited by the separation of the rectory of Coldred from the vicarage of Sibertswold, we enquired into the circumstances of the case and on such enquiry it appeared to us amongst other things.

"That the aggregate population of the said united benefice according to the latest returns does not exceed six hundred and ten persons, the population of the parish of Sibertswold being four hundred and seventy and that of Coldred one hundred and forty.

"That there is a church belonging to each of the said benefices.

"That there is a sufficient house of residence belonging to Sibertswold but there is no house of residence belonging to Coldred.

"That the gross annual value taking the tithe at par of the said united benefice including the payment of seventy pounds by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England hereinafter referred to is four hundred and fifty-one pounds sixteen shillings and two pence or thereabouts and the net annual value is three hundred and forty-five pounds six shillings or thereabouts.

"That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners intend on this disunion taking effect to permanently annex to the benefice of Sibertswold the said sum of seventy pounds per annum hitherto granted by them to the united benefices of Sibertswold with Coldred.

"That the patronage of the said united benefice belongs to us by virtue of our Archbishopric and as such patron we consent to the disunion of the said united benefice.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council, we caused a statement in writing of the facts to be affixed to the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of Sibertswold and Coldred with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The copies of the statement of facts and notice before mentioned together with our consent in writing as patron of the said united benefice are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry, consent and matters aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Coldred from the vicarage of Sibertswold, and we recommend that after the said disunion shall have been carried into effect that (with the exception of the annual payment due to the governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the mortgage made to them by an instrument bearing date the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, which annual payment shall be borne and paid by the benefice of Sibertswold) the said vicarage of Sibertswold and rectory of Coldred shall respectively bear, pay, and discharge all the outgoings which are charged upon the income which they shall respectively hold and enjoy and that the endowment to be appropriated to the vicarage of Sibertswold shall consist of the tithe rent-charges arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and thirty-six pounds nine shillings and eightpence-halfpenny, of an annual payment of six pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence tithe in lieu of hops, the rent of the glebe farm and of the land received in exchange with the Earl of Guildford's trustees now forty-one pounds per annum and the aforementioned permanent endowment by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of seventy pounds per annum and that the endowment to be appropriated to the rectory of Coldred shall consist of the tithe rent-charge arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and ninety-seven pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence.

"As witness our hand this fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

"Randall Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarage of Sibertswold and the rectory of Coldred, situate in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Coldred from the said vicarage of Sibertswold.

And His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that (with the exception of the annual payment due to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the mortgage made to them by an instrument bearing date the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, which annual payment shall be borne and paid by the benefice of Sibertswold) the said vicarage of Sibertswold and the said rectory of Coldred shall respectively bear, pay and discharge all the outgoings which are charged upon the income which they shall respectively hold and enjoy; and that the endowment hereby assigned and attached to the said vicarage of Sibertswold shall consist of the tithe rent-charges arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and thirty-six pounds nine shillings and eightpence-halfpenny, of an annual payment of six pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence tithe in lieu of hops, the rent of the glebe farm and of the land received in exchange with the Earl of Guildford's trustees, now forty-one pounds per annum, and the aforementioned permanent endowment by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of seventy pounds per annum, and that the endowment hereby assigned and attached to the said rectory of Coldred shall consist of the tithe rent-charge arising in that parish of the commuted value of one hundred and ninety-seven pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence.
