Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 21st day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable John Edward Ellis, M.P., made affirmation as a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 21st day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Statutes made by the University of London Commissioners it is provided that four members of the Senate of the University shall be appointed by His Majesty in Council, and that every casual vacancy in the Senate by death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled by the body by which the member causing the vacancy was appointed, but that the person appointed to fill any casual vacancy shall hold office only so long as the member in whose place he is appointed would have done if he had not vacated his office;

And whereas Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventh August, one thousand nine hundred, to appoint (amongst others) Sir Henry Enfield Roscoe, F.R.S., to be a member of the said Senate:

And whereas the said Sir Henry Enfield Roscoe has from time to time by Orders in Council been re-appointed a member of the said Senate in accordance with the said Statutes and his term of office would in the ordinary course expire on the second Tuesday in May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen:

And whereas the said Sir Henry Enfield Roscoe has tendered his resignation as a member of the said Senate and it is necessary to appoint another person as a member in his place:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint Francis Dyke Acland, Esquire, to be a member of the Senate of the University of London, in place of the said Sir Henry Enfield Roscoe resigned, for the unexpired residue of the term of office of the said Sir Henry Enfield Roscoe.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Poulton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnott, Bishop of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said
